March 10th 1936

My dear Jack Dempsey:- E, C, J

If you are alarmed to your little one because of kidnap threats and inconvenienced because of the elevator strike - My house is open to Hannah and little Joan - And while the "money changers" have left me little to offer - My house is American - clean - and safe! and no one need know - Ah yes I have a youth bed I have on hand when my little grand-daughter visits me.

This is just a tiny gesture from one who has always admired and respected the man, Jack Dempsey!

Sincerely,

Mrs. [redacted] b7c

Dear Mr. Dempsey,

I have some very important to tell you. Something happened with me last Monday March 4, which will interest you very much, because it is concerning you or rather your baby.

Since I did not know what to do, even I do not dare to go out from my house. I do not dare to go to your restaurant and maybe you do not dare to come to my house if I call you, though I am only a woman, so it is better if you will be with car at 9th Ave and 52nd St corner - West Uptown corner - Thursday March 19, 10 A.M.

I hope you could understand this letter because I am so nervous can not write orderly.

Yours truly

Mrs. T.

Hello Jack.
