Title: GTMO
COUNTERTERRORISM DIVISION (CTD)
INSPECTION SPECIAL INQUIRY

Synopsis: Request approval to designate captioned matter as an Inspection Division (INSD) Special Inquiry.

Details: Based upon a request from OGC, INSD conducted a survey of all Bureau personnel who had served in any capacity at GTMO since 09/11/2001. This survey, which was disseminated via email, requested personnel to advise INSD if they observed any aggressive mistreatment, interrogations or interview techniques of GTMO detainees by representatives of any law enforcement, military or Bureau personnel which were not consistent with Bureau guidelines. Records obtained by CTD determined there were 532 Bureau employees or contractors who served at GTMO during this time frame. The survey resulted in identifying nine employees who observed such treatment and they provided short summaries of what they observed. There were no documented incidents involving any Bureau personnel. These summaries were provided to General Counsel Valerie Caproni, who requested these nine employees be interviewed.

In order to commence with the interviews, it is requested that the Deputy Director designate and approve this matter as an INSD Special Inquiry.

Details: In July, 2004, OGC requested INSD to conduct an inquiry into whether FBI personnel had observed any mistreatment or aggressive behavior of detainees at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba (GTMO). Based upon this request, on 7/09/2004, INSD sent an email message to all FBI personnel who had served in any capacity at GTMO since 09/11/2001. The email was detailed as follows:

"You have been identified as having conducted an assignment at GTMO, Cuba since 09/11/2001. The Inspection Division has been tasked with contacting those employees who have served in any capacity at GTMO and obtain information regarding the treatment of detainees. Employees should immediately respond to the following:

1) Employees who observed aggressive treatment, interrogations or interview techniques on GTMO detainees which was not consistent with Bureau interview policy/guidelines, should respond via email for the purpose of a followup interview.

2) Employees who served at GTMO and observed no aggressive treatment of detainees, should respond via an EC documenting a negative response. The EC should include the employees official Bureau name, title, and tenure of assignment at GTMO.

The EC should be titled "GTMO, Counterterrorism Division, Inspection Special Inquiry", file number 297-HQ-1327669-A. The EC should not be uploaded, but only serialized, with a hard copy."

CTD provided a list containing the identity of all Bureau personnel and it was determined 493 had served in some capacity. This list was utilized for the forwarding of the above described email.

INSD received 434 responses from Bureau personnel. Some non-responders included contractors no longer employed by the FBI and employees who had since retired. INSD received 26 positive responses from Bureau personnel. The majority of these employees did not have knowledge of what the "approved" interview/interrogation guidelines were, but wanted to ensure INSD was aware of a possible incident of mistreatment. It should be noted that the 26 employees who responded did not observe any mistreatment of detainees by FBI personnel. Any mistreatment observed or rumored to have occurred, was allegedly conducted by employees of outside organizations. These 26 employees were requested to provide a brief synopsis of what they observed in order that OGC could make a determination of whether a follow-up interview would be required. The synopsis provided by each personnel is attached to their enclosed FD-302 in this communication.

The synopsis of each of the 26 incidents was provided to OGC for review. Subsequent to the review, OGC determined that nine of the employees would be required to be interviewed. The personnel are identified as follows:

1) [redacted] - Boston Division
2) [redacted] - CIRG
3) [redacted] - CIRG

5) [redacted] - Los Angeles Division
6) [redacted] - CTD
7) [redacted] - Houston Division
8) [redacted] - Anchorage Division
9) [redacted] - CIRG

The interviews of the above personnel were conducted during the first two weeks of September, 2004 with the exception of [redacted] [redacted] is currently on extended sick leave due to a medical illness and was not available. It should be noted that [redacted] had previously documented his concerns of interrogation techniques at GTMO and provided this documentation to OGC. A copy of [redacted]s communication is attached to this report.

b6 -1

The interviews resulted in a determination that no FBI personnel were involved in any mistreatment or aggressive behavior of detainees at GTMO. All incidents observed by these employees involved outside entities, the majority of whom could not be identified. None of the incidents were similar in nature to those reported at the Abu Ghurayb Prison. Specifics regarding each reported incident are detailed in each of the enclosed FD-302s.

Mr. [redacted]

As requested, here is a brief summary of what I observed at GTMO:

On a couple of occassions, I entered interview rooms to find a detainee chained hand and foot in a fetal position to the floor, with no chair, food, or water. Most times they had urinated or defacated on themselves, and had been left there for 18, 24 hours or more. On one occassion, the air conditioning had been turned down so far and the temperature was so cold in the room, that the barefooted detainee was shaking with cold. When I asked the MP's what was going on, I was told that interrogators from the day prior had ordered this treatment, and the detainee was not to be moved. On another occassion, the A/C had been turned off, making the temperature in the unventilated room probably well over 100 degrees. The detainee was almost unconcious on the floor, with a pile of hair next to him. He had apparently been literally pulling his own hair out throughout the night. On another occassion, not only was the temperature unbearably hot, but extremely loud rap music was being played in the room, and had been since the day before, with the detainee chained hand and foot in the fetal position on the tile floor.

Any questions, feel free to call or ask via email. [redacted] [redacted]

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 09/09/2004

[redacted] Boston Division, EOD: [redacted] was telephonically contacted concerning her knowledge of any aggressive treatment, interrogations, or interview techniques at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba (GTMO). After being advised as to the identity of the interviewing Agent and the purpose of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information to thirteen specific special inquiry questions:

b6 -2

b7C -1

[redacted] described her two month TDY assignment at GTMO as an interrogator of detainees. During February and March 2003, [redacted] was teamed with two different Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS) Agents and several contract translators for detainee interviews. [redacted] initially worked with one NCIS Agent for roughly the first three weeks of her assignment, then a second Agent the last five weeks of the TDY. [redacted] noted a slight work overlap between the two NCIS Agents during their training transition. The primary questioning responsibility for the interrogations was alternated each interview between the Agents. [redacted] also noted the interview assignment for the translators varied daily based on the spoken language of the detainee.

[redacted] never witnessed or was aware of any aggressive treatment, interrogations, or interview techniques employed on detainees at GTMO inconsistent with FBI or DOJ policy/guidelines. [redacted] had no knowledge or understanding of Department of Defense (DOD) authorization for the permitted use of harsh/aggressive interrogation techniques. Furthermore, [redacted] was unaware of DOD authorized interview techniques.

[redacted] had no substantive contact with Military Police or other U.S. government personnel at GTMO regarding detainee conditions or treatment and was unaware of any specific allegations of misconduct or mistreatment by U.S. personnel alleged by interviewees or others. [redacted] stated she had no pictures, video, audio, notes, or other documentation which depicted or described aggressive treatment, interrogations or interview techniques employed at GTMO or knowledge of anyone else who was in possession of such items.

by SSA [redacted] b6 -1 b7C -1 RESPONSES-15

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency;

[redacted] witnessed the consequences of perhaps questionable treatment of detainees on two different occasions. The two separate incidents occurred at the interrogation trailers named "Delta Camp." However, [redacted] was unable to recall the specific dates or provide any knowledge of the two detainees' identities. In both incidents, the detainees were chained hand and foot in the fetal position and laying on the floor of the interview rooms. The rooms were without furnishings, to include any chairs. [redacted] also recalled the rooms were without evidence of any food or water. Furthermore, the temperature control of the rooms was regulated to be either extremely cold or hot. [redacted] noted one occasion where excessively loud rap music played in the detainee's interview room. [redacted] believed the detainees were kept in such conditions for periods of time more than 18-24 hours, and longer. The detainees had urinated and/or defecated on themselves.

Shortly after the TDY assignment ended, [redacted] sent a personal letter to the Director explaining her desire to return to GTMO. [redacted] informed the Director she was in a position to generate significant intelligence collection regarding an investigative matter, and address the issue relating to the treatment of detainees. On 10/03/2002, number [redacted] was transported from the Naval Brig to Camp Delta, at which point he was fed, and interrogated by an interrogation team, however he failed to provide any substantive information. Later that same evening, number [redacted] was transported to Camp X-Ray where he was placed in a plywood hut and interrogated by another military interrogation team until the early morning hours of 10/04/2002. [redacted] and [redacted] observed both interrogations. [redacted] advised the interrogators screamed and yelled at number [redacted] during both interrogations. At some point during the second interrogation, [redacted] and [redacted] returned to their quarters. During the late afternoon hours of 10/04/2004 [redacted] and [redacted] returned to observe the interrogation of number [redacted] [redacted] advised the Koran had been placed in front of number [redacted] and Captain [redacted], United States Marine Corp, began to interrogate the detainee. At some point during the interrogation, Captain [redacted] squatted over the Koran, which incensed number [redacted] and caused him to reach for the Koran. While [redacted] did not observe the incident, he was nearby when it occurred, heard the yelling, and went to the hut to learn what happened. [redacted] was then told what occurred. [redacted] and [redacted] then returned to their quarters. On 10/05/2002, a German Shepherd was placed in front of number [redacted] while his handler commanded the dog to growl, bark, and show his teeth. [redacted] and [redacted] were displeased with the interrogation techniques utilized on number [redacted] and decided to depart Camp X-Ray. They were never again in the presence of number [redacted] [redacted] believed the interrogation of number [redacted] concluded on 10/08/2002.

[redacted] was laughing and he told [redacted] and [redacted] he wanted to show them something. [redacted] accompanied [redacted] while [redacted] remained in the observation room. [redacted] later told [redacted] that [redacted] had taken him to an interrogation room where he observed a detainee with a full beard whose head had been wrapped in duct tape. Shortly thereafter, [redacted] and [redacted] departed GTMO.

[redacted] Supervisory Special Agent (SSA), EOD: [redacted] National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crimes (NCAVC), FBI Academy, Quantico, Virginia, was interviewed regarding his knowledge of any aggressive treatment, interrogations, or interview techniques at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba (GTMO). After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the purpose of the interview, SSA [redacted] provided the following information in response to thirteen special inquiry questions: b6 -1 b7C -1

[redacted]s TDY assignment to GTMO began in the middle of September 2002 and ended in late October 2002. [redacted] was teamed with SSA [redacted] also from NCAVC, both of whom were responsible for providing behavioral analysis assistance to law enforcement and military personnel conducting interrogations of detainees. While [redacted] never participated in detainee interrogations, he sometimes observed them. Also, when requested, he reviewed background files of the detainees to assist in the formation of interview strategies. b6 -1 b7C -1

[redacted]'s primary point of contact was [redacted] a civilian contractor employed by the military, who was responsible for the interrogations at GTMO. [redacted] directed military reservists who conducted the interrogations of the detainees. SSA [redacted] advised [redacted] exhibited "bizarre behavior", meaning he displayed a range of emotions and often "lost it" or became very angry when something insignificant occurred. b6 -1 b7C -1

[redacted] did witness aggressive treatment, interrogations or interview techniques employed on detainees at GTMO inconsistent with FBI or DOJ policy/guidelines on two occasions. The first incident occurred with detainee number [redacted] and the second incident occurred with an unknown detainee. b6 -4 b7C -4

When [redacted] arrived at GTMO, number [redacted] was incarcerated in a darkened cell in the Naval Brig. [redacted] told [redacted] he planned to have military personnel interrogate number [redacted] for 24 hours in an attempt to get him to cooperate. When [redacted] objected to this technique, [redacted] said the technique had been approved by "the Secretary" who [redacted] understood to be b6 -1,3,4 b7C -1,3,4

Secretary Rumsfeld. After some discussion and input from [redacted] and [redacted] the decision was made to provide number [redacted] with food since he had been on a self induced fast for a few days. Number [redacted] did eat the food, but still refused to provide any information during his interrogation. He was subsequently moved to a plywood interrogation hut in Camp X-Ray. While in Camp X-Ray, number [redacted] was aggressively interrogated by military reservists at the direction of [redacted] During the interrogation, the reservists yelled and screamed at number [redacted] Additionally, a German Shepard was positioned at the door of the interrogation hut and made to growl and bark at the detainee. At one point, one of the interrogators placed a Koran in front of number [redacted] while number [redacted] was seated in a chair. The interrogator then straddled the Koran, at which point the detainee became very angry, but still refused to provide any information.

b6 -1,3,4
b7C -1,3,4

Late one evening, [redacted] witnessed a second incident which involved a detainee who had been duct taped. [redacted] and [redacted] were in an observation room, located between two interrogation rooms, watching military personnel conduct an interrogation. At some point, [redacted] entered the room and told [redacted] to come with him as he wanted to show him something. [redacted] accompanied [redacted] to another observation room, located down the hall, where several Military Police were observing an interrogation. When he entered the observation room, [redacted] observed an unknown detainee with a full head of hair and a beard whose head was wrapped in duct tape in the adjacent interrogation room. There were two interrogators in the room with the detainee. [redacted] asked [redacted] if the detainee had been spitting at the interrogators or exhibiting belligerent behavior toward them. [redacted] replied no, and then told [redacted] the detainee's head had been duct taped because he would not stop quoting the Koran. [redacted] did not approve of the treatment of the detainee and asked [redacted] how he planned to remove the duct tape, but [redacted] never answered him. [redacted] then exited the observation room and returned to his quarters.

Based on conversations with [redacted], [redacted] believed Department of Defense authorization for the permitted use of harsh/aggressive interrogation techniques may have come from Secretary Rumsfeld. On several occasions when [redacted] questioned [redacted] about the techniques utilized, [redacted] said it had been approved by "the Secretary", who [redacted] understood to be Secretary Rumsfeld. With the exception of [redacted] s comments

regarding the Secretary, [redacted] had no knowledge or understanding of Department of Defense (DOD) authorization for the permitted use of harsh/aggressive interrogation techniques. Furthermore, SSA [redacted] believed [redacted] had the authority to approve interrogation techniques, including the use of the duct tape on the unknown detainee. b6 -1,3 b7C -1,3

[redacted] had no contact with interviewees during his tenure at GTMO. He also stated he had no pictures, audio, notes or other documentation which depicted or described aggressive treatment, interrogations or interview techniques employed on detainees at GTMO and had no knowledge of anyone else who was in possession of such items. [redacted] had no additional information related to the treatment of detainees at GTMO. b6 -1 b7C -1

Upon his return from GTMO, [redacted] along with [redacted] related the aforementioned incidents to SAC Stephen R. Wiley. Also, [redacted] drafted an EC dated 11/22/2002, which outlined the aforementioned events, was approved by SAC Wiley, and subsequently forwarded to CTD Executive Management. b6 -1 b7C -1

I was TDY to GTMO from the dates of June 2, 2003 to July 17, 2004. During that time I did not observe aggressive treatment, interrogations or interview techniques on GTMO detainees which was not consistent with Bureau interview policy/guidelines by any FBI personnel or the interrogators from FT. Belvoir consisting of Air Force OSI, Naval Investigative Service and possibly a few other services although I can't recall which ones. However, I do recall seeing some techniques utilized by other interrogators not associated with the FBI or the Ft. Belvoir interrogators. I occasionally saw sleep depravation interviews with strobe lights and two different kinds of loud music. I asked the one of the interrogators what they were doing they said that it would take approximately four days to break someone doing an interrogation 16 hours on with the lights and music and four hours off. The sleep depravation and the lights and alternating beats of the music would wear the detainee down. There was a time period where the interrogations were obtrusive enough that the interview rooms for an entire trailer were not available if one of these techniques were being utilized.

ok under DoD policy

I heard many rumors about things that I did not observe. I spoke with one interrogator (not sure if military or contractor or other) that bragged about doing a lap dance on one Detainee (possibly #[redacted]) Another interrogator (not sure if military or contractor or other) bragged about making Detainee #[redacted] listen to satanic black metal music for hour and hours. Then the interrogator dressed as a Catholic Priest and baptized the detainee in order to save him.

[redacted] did not witness or observe aggressive treatment, interrogations or interview techniques utilized on GTMO detainees conducted by FBI or other law enforcement personnel which were not consistent with FBI or DOJ policy/guidelines, but did observe such behavior by non-law enforcement Department of Defense (DOD) personnel on at least two occasions. On these occasions the DOD personnel utilized sleep depravation by playing load music for 16 hours at a time with four hours between sessions. [redacted] and others brought these instances to attention of SSA [redacted] who was his Acting Supervisor (Atlanta Division) at GTMO.

[redacted] was not familiar with DOD policy/guidance regarding what interview/interrogation techniques were authorized. During conversations with unidentified DOD employees regarding interview techniques, [redacted] recalled being asked if he used "fear up" or "family compassion" techniques. [redacted] did not know the identities of the DOD interviewers or detainees involved in the activity. The aggressive interviews [redacted] witnessed occurred at Camp Delta in either the Yellow, Brown or Gold areas. Most interviews conducted by law enforcement and DOD personnel occurred in interview rooms located in trailers in these areas. Often DOD personnel would reserve an entire trailer when employing aggressive interview techniques. [redacted] (S)

b1 [redacted] (S)

[redacted] had no substantive contact with DOD personnel regarding the condition or treatment or detainee's other than regularly held briefings by the DOD Command which provided general updates of activity and the number of detainees at GTMO. [redacted] and others were provided a tour of the cell area at GTMO and he characterized the cells as small but acceptable. He recalled that the detainees were switched from Meals Ready to Eat (MREs) to regular food because the detainee's were becoming overweight due to the calories contained in the MREs.

[redacted] could not recall any allegation of mistreatment brought to his attention by detainees, other than the detainees referring to techniques employed by DOD personnel as "games." [redacted] indicated most of the interviews conducted by the his Special Projects team were negative. Special Projects was tasked with interviewing the most hardened detainees.

[redacted] was not in possession of pictures, video, audio, notes or other documentation which depicted or described aggressive treatment. He indicated the interviewers were searched for contraband each time they entered or exited the compound.

[redacted] heard many rumors about aggressive or inappropriate interrogation techniques by DOD which were unsubstantiated. Among the rumors he heard were that a female DOD interrogator did a lap dance on a detainee, that a DOD interrogator forced a detainee to listen to satanic black metal music for hours, and that a DOD interrogator dressed as a Catholic Priest and baptized a detainee in order to save him. [redacted] had no first hand knowledge of these events and was unsure as to if they actually occurred.

Yes. There was an incident of observation of a detainee in a 'stress position'. This was within the regs of military techniques but outside MIOG (No Bureau personnel involved). That was the limit of direct observations. In terms of knowledge of 'mistreatment' I can speak to that in great detail from formal meetings which I attended and informal discussions with DoD personnel. BC

[redacted] I was the Case Agent for the first interrogation team to arrive at GTMO. I spoke with Valerie Caproni two months ago when I was in Iraq and the Abu Ghraib fallout was just breaking. At that time, it seemed the Bureau's focus was identifying any liability in the form of direct involvement. I would be happy to sit down with you and walk you through what I saw as the predictable onset of aggressive treatment, interrogations or interview techniques. In short, the Bureau personnel there had no direct particiation. But I think I may be able to assist in describing the landscape for you and giving you the details about where some things went off the tracks. I just moved to TTIC (Tyson's Corner) and am phone-less, but I have this e-mail

A military interrogator and I were interviewing a new arrival at GITMO during the evening hours when we heard what sounded like thunder. After hearing several "thunderclaps" we stepped outside the interview room to take a break and see if the weather had made a drastic change from the clear skies we had witnessed prior to the start of our interview. As we walked down the hallway of the temporary building where the interview rooms were located, I glanced in an open doorway where I saw at least two individuals dressed in BDU's standing and an inmate kneeling on the floor with his forehead on the ground. The inmate was holding his nose and crying. There was a small amount of blood on the floor near the inmate's face. I asked the BDU-clad personnel what had happened. They explained that the inmate had become upset with them and threw himself to the floor. (I had heard previously that one of the female military personnel would wet her hands and touch the inmates as part of their psych-ops to make the inmates feel "unclean" and upset them.) The inmate's nose appeared to be bleeding. One of the military personnel left the room to retrieve a medical kit for the inmate. I saw nothing else to contradict the military personnel's explanation of events.

FD-302 (Rev. 10-6-95)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 09/07/2004

Special Agent (SA) [redacted] Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), who entered on duty with the FBI on [redacted] and arrived at the Houston Division of the FBI, Corpus Christi Resident Agency (CCRA), on or about 01/22/1998, and whose telephone number is [redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing Assistant Inspector (AI) and the purpose of the interview. SA [redacted] then provided the following information telephonically:

b2 -1
b6 -1,2
b7C -1,2

SA [redacted] was assigned to an interviewing team at the detention facility at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba (GITMO), from about September until late November 2002. The interviewing team consisted of three people, including SA [redacted]. Besides himself, SA [redacted]'s interviewing team included a contract linguist, whom SA [redacted] believes was contracted through the military and whose identity SA [redacted] could not recall, and an Army representative whose name SA [redacted] could not recall, either. The Army representative was from an organization similar to the Air Force's Office of Special Investigations (AFOSI), an investigative entity; however, SA [redacted] could not recall the name of the organization. He was certain it was not a military intelligence entity since the activities of his interviewing team, deemed by officials at GITMO to be law enforcement activities, were separated from intelligence-gathering interviews that military intelligence personnel and representatives from other government agencies performed. For most of his stay at GITMO, SA [redacted] and his team performed interviews in the morning. The afternoons and evenings were reserved for interviews conducted by those who were gathering intelligence. SA [redacted] did not know of the specific activities that occurred during the afternoon and evening interviews.

Near the end of SA [redacted]'s tour of duty at GITMO, about two to three weeks before Thanksgiving, SA [redacted] was partnered with a female military intelligence enlisted person whose identity SA [redacted] could not recall, but who may have been a military reservist since she indicated to SA [redacted] that she was a probation officer in Los Angeles, California. SA [redacted] and the military intelligence soldier were detailed to an interviewing effort that focused on a recent group of detainee arrivals at GITMO. These interviews, unlike those he had performed with the other interviewing team, occurred in the evenings. The purpose of the interviews was to gain as much information as possible from the detainees before they were exposed to the general detainee population.

SA [redacted] heard through the person placed in charge of law enforcement agency personnel at GITMO that other government agencies were using female military intelligence personnel in psychological operations-type activities against the detainees. The person in charge, whose identity SA [redacted] could not recall, told SA [redacted] that in an effort to disrupt detainees who were praying during interrogations, female military intelligence personnel would wet their hands then touch the detainee's face, causing the detainee to stop praying because he considered himself unclean. The person responsible for law enforcement agency personnel emphasized to SA [redacted] that law enforcement agency personnel were not allowed to use this type of practice when interviewing detainees. SA [redacted] did not witness this technique, or anything similar to it, performed on a detainee.

SA [redacted] did not have knowledge of interviewing tactics or techniques addressed in any type of Department of Defense policy since he never received a briefing or written materials describing such a policy. SA [redacted] was only aware of the technique of wetting of the hands from his conversation with the person placed in charge of law enforcement agency personnel.

Sometime near the end of his tour at GITMO, when he was partnered with the military intelligence soldier, SA [redacted] and the soldier were conducting an evening interview of an Iraqi detainee who had been apprehended in Afghanistan. During the interview, SA [redacted] and the soldier heard banging sounds similar to claps of thunder, but were perplexed by the sounds since there had not been any indication of rain when they entered the interviewing facility. They decided to exit the facility to investigate the sounds.

As SA [redacted] and the soldier were exiting the interviewing facility, they noticed a detainee on the floor in another interviewing room, "crumpled over," and crying. SA [redacted] asked the personnel in the interviewing room, all of whom appeared to be military personnel based on their uniforms, what had happened. SA [redacted] recalled that the military personnel may have responded that the detainee had thrown himself to the floor. SA [redacted] observed that the detainee's nose appeared to be bleeding. SA [redacted] did not see or hear anything else about the incident that disputed the account offered by the military personnel present in the room. SA [redacted] did note that when he exited the facility, there was no indication of thunder outside. The lack of thunder caused him to wonder about the noises he had heard. However, since he did not observe the events that transpired in the other interviewing room, and he did not receive other information contradicting the account of events provided by those in the room where he found the detainee bleeding, apparently from the nose, SA [redacted] could not say that what transpired in that interview room fell outside U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) policy. However, SA [redacted] stated that there was potential for the events occurring in that interview room to not fall in line with either FBI or DOJ policy. SA [redacted] emphasized that he did not observe any FBI or DOJ personnel present in the interviewing room where he observed the bleeding detainee.

SA [redacted] did not know the identify of the personnel present in the interviewing room where he observed the bleeding detainee, or the identity of the detainee; however, SA [redacted] felt that determining their identities would be possible by querying logs maintained by the military at GITMO. According to SA [redacted], the date, interviewing room, and the identities of the interviewers and detainees for each interview were maintained by the military at GITMO. SA [redacted] produced an FD 302 of his interview of the Iraqi detainee that evening; however, he did not maintain a copy.

In addition to the military intelligence soldier on SA [redacted]'s interviewing team on the evening he observed the bleeding detainee, SA [redacted] received interviewing assistance from an Army psychologist or psychiatrist who was an officer. SA [redacted] stated that this individual was a major, but that he could not recall his name. SA [redacted] made a comment about what he had observed to this person.

SA [redacted] described the interviewing facilities at GITMO as temporary structures. The interviewing facility he used consisted of about 12 interviewing rooms on either side of a hallway. There were six rooms in a row on one side of the hallway and six rooms on the other side. Adjacent to each room were surveillance rooms that allowed other persons to observe interviews without entering an interviewing room. During the evening when SA [redacted] saw the bleeding detainee, SA [redacted] was occupying an interviewing room at one end of the facility, and he observed to detainee in an interviewing room two to three rooms from his, and on the same side of the hallway.

b7C -1

SA [redacted] received a tour of the detention facilities at GITMO; however, he did not talk about what went on at the facility with the military personnel he encountered during the tour. SA [redacted] did not consider any of these contacts substantive in nature.

SA [redacted] noted that during the course of at least one detainee interview, but possibly another as well, he documented information he received from the detainee about abuses that may have occurred in Afghanistan. SA [redacted] stated that the Iraqi he interviewed the evening he observed the bleeding detainee was one of the detainees whose information about possible abuses in Afghanistan was specific enough to document in an FD 302. SA [redacted] documented the information relating to possible detainee abuse in a separate case file; one that was being set up to address possible war crimes. SA [redacted] did not know the case file number and he did not maintain a copy of the FD 302. SA [redacted] believed that representatives from other law enforcement agencies at GITMO documented information regarding possible detainee abuse.

Based on the condition of the facilities, and having had the opportunity to walk through the cells where detainees were held, SA [redacted] had no indication of systemic detainee abuse at GITMO. SA [redacted] believed the detainees were well fed and provided with essential needs, such as medical treatment. He was made aware of one detainee who received medical treatment costing around $100,000.00 for an eye injury he sustained while building an explosive device in Afghanistan intended for use against U.S. soldiers.

INSPECTION SPECIAL INQUIRY

Synopsis: To provide response to e-mail from Steven C. McGraw, Inspection Division on 07/09/2004.

Details: The purpose of this electronic communication is to provide a response to an e-mail from Steven C. McGraw, Inspection Division on 07/09/2004.

Writer, Anchorage Field Office Special Agent [redacted] [redacted] briefly visited GTMO in 02/2002 to debrief a detainee as FISA case agent on the "Portland 7" counterterrorism investigation. While at GTMO, writer observed no apparently improper aggressive treatment of detainees. Writer visited GTMO for a period of approximately 3-4 days and returned to Portland Division, his office of assignment at the time. b6 -1 b7C -1

Writer would add that when the detainee was brought into the interview shack at Camp Xray, the detainee appeared to suffer from physical injuries to include possible broken fingers and injuries to his face. When writer inquired as to the cause of the detainee's injuries, writer learned that the detainee had recently exhibited non-compliance with a prison guard, and that the rapid reaction team was brought in to bring the detainee into compliance. Writer learned that no Bureau employees were involved in above incident.

[redacted] traveled to GTMO in February 2002, to debrief a detainee identified as [redacted] regarding case specific information on the "Portland 7" Counterterrorism matter. The interview was conducted in a make-shift plywood shack used for conducting interviews, located adjacent to the "Dog Cages" in Camp X-Ray. When the detainee was brought in for the interview, [redacted] observed the detainee had a black eye, facial cuts around the nose area, and his fingers on both hands were taped up. The detainee, who spoke English, said words to the effect "they", motioning to the Military Police (MP) guards, had done this to him. A Colonel in charge of the MPs, whose name [redacted] could not recall, advised that the detainee's injuries were sustained in a scuffle due to the detainee becoming non-compliant and had to be bought into compliance by a Rapid Response Team. The detainee also had a cast on one of his ankles which was for an injury sustained prior to the detainee's arrival at GTMO.

[redacted] did not have any substantial dealing with any MPs, other military personnel, Department of Defense (DOD) civilians, or any other contractors at GMTO regarding detainees condition and treatment. [redacted] did not observe any aggressive or improper handling, treatment or techniques used by anyone on any of the detainees inconsistent with FBI or Department of Justice (DOJ) policy guidelines. As you may be aware, I was in GTMO and I did observe aggressive interrogation practices and as a Behavioral Analysis Advisor on interrogation techniques was aware of extreme interrogation techniques that were planned and implemented against certain detainees.
These events were summarized in memos and an EC written by myself and my colleagues between Oct. and May of 2002.
I have been discussing these events with GC Valerie Caproni.

[redacted] ISN [redacted] an Afghan male, was interviewed at Guantanamo Bay Naval Station, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. Also present during the interview was NCIS Special Agent [redacted] [redacted] and contract linguist [redacted] who provided the Pashtu language translation. [redacted] provided the following information: (S) b1

b6 -1,3,4
b7C -1,3,4
b7D -1
b7F -1

[redacted] complained of being mistreated by US forces while in detention in Bagram and during his transit to Camp Delta. [redacted] pointed to marks on his wrists that he claimed were caused by the shackles. Additionally, [redacted] claimed that he was upset by having to wear a hood while in transit and that guards did not respond to a pain in his ear. Further, [redacted] alleged that the guards beat him. While in transit, [redacted] informed the translator of his ills and was told that a doctor would see him later.

b6 -4
b7F -1

According to [redacted] he is innocent of any offense. US forces came to his house while he was having a meal with guests. US and Afghan military personnel entered his home and started searching. US forces showed [redacted] a picture of his brother that they had found in his house and asked who it was. [redacted] admitted that it was his brother, and further stated that his brother was out of town. [redacted] was told that weapons had been found in his house, but [redacted] countered that they were actually found at his brother's house. [redacted] was extremely upset that he was detained in front of the female members of his family and stated that he was innocent of any crime.

b6 -4
b7F -1

[redacted] later modified his story regarding the weapons and admitted that only two weapons were found at this house. One of these weapons was a Kalashnikov and the other was a British weapon that did not work. During this later recant, [redacted] stated that the two weapons were used for bird hunting. [redacted] further stated that any additional weapons may be the property of his brother, and that if there were any weapons, they had been acquired from a Mujahideen eight-to-ten years ago that was acquainted with his brother. Another theory suggested by [redacted] was that the weapons may belong a village leader, and reiterated that his brother would know the provenance of the weapons.

Investigation on 7/19/03 at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba

File # 265A-MM-C99102 Date dictated 7/19/03

by SA [redacted] b6 -1 b7C -1 SECRET

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On multiple occasions, [redacted] asked that his accuser be presented to him. According to [redacted] an enemy of his family had promulgated an unsubstantiated rumor that [redacted] had weapons. However, the basis for this allegation was an argument that [redacted]s brother [redacted] (phonetic) had with [redacted] (phonetic). [redacted] and [redacted] had a long-standing disagreement over money. Further, [redacted] was in the Afghan Army and used his relationship with US forces to convince the US that [redacted] had weapons at his house. [redacted] insisted that he had been wrongly accused and implicated with the weapons.

b6 -4,5,6
b7F -1

[redacted] described an added dimension to the conflict between his brother and "enemies of his family." According to [redacted] a member of one tribe was killed, so someone from the offending tribe killed a member of the opposing group. This occurred approximately eight years ago and was a factor in the animosity held against [redacted]'s family. [redacted] stated, "This man ([redacted]) is the cause."

b6 -4,5
b7C -4,5
b7F -1

On multiple occasions, [redacted] asked for proof that he had committed some offense. [redacted] opined that if he were a fighter, he would have killed [redacted] and then himself. [redacted] insisted that he was a simple farmer and that it was only the false allegations of [redacted] that had drawn the attention of the US onto [redacted]. [redacted] suggested that his brother would straighten out the situation, but that US forces would not let him communicate with his brother. As an additional mark of his innocence, [redacted] opined that there was no reason to arrest him and asked, "Why me and not my brothers?" who were also present at the meal. [redacted] explained that his brother [redacted] had traveled to speak with a district official named [redacted] about a road that was to built near [redacted]s family compound, and that this was why his brother was unavailable to corroborate his story.

b6 -4,5,6
b7F -1

[redacted] insisted that he knew nothing of the weapons found by US forces in his family's compound. Further, [redacted] directed US forces to interview the people of his village. [redacted] insisted that the people of the village would support his story and corroborate that he knew nothing of the weapons and was just a simple farmer. [redacted] stated that only "commanders have weapons, little people don't," and that he was a simple, uneducated farmer. [redacted] claimed to be unable to read or write Pashtu. The only formal education he had was through religious training. [redacted] did admit to knowing a few words of Dari, but no other languages.

b6 -4
b7F -1

[redacted] stated that his family farmed a plot together and grew vegetables, specifically onions and pomegranates. [redacted] stated that his hands were smooth and did not reflect hard manual labor because the "doctors gave him something to soften them." To explain how his hands could heal from the rigors of farm work, [redacted] stated that, "My hands just got better" and "If you cut me it will heal in four months."

b6 -4

b6 -4,6
b7F -1

[redacted]'s family had maintained the farm since moving to [redacted] Village from Jalalabad approximately four years ago. Only [redacted]'s brother [redacted] remained in Jalalabad. [redacted] described that pomegranates were planted in the fall, but later changed this to planting in the spring and harvest in the fall. [redacted] had no idea of how large this year's crop of pomegranates would be. [redacted] claimed that last year, his family harvested 50 man (phonetic) of pomegranates. [redacted]'s family also has goats and cows. [redacted]'s family also grows onions in one section and grain in another section of land. The entire family works the land and all of the family members live within a compound together, but in separate houses. The individual families eat by themselves, but share a guesthouse for guests. Further, [redacted] stated that two of his brothers do not get along, but that the others are close.

b6 -4,5
b7F -1

[redacted] returned to the theme that certain elements in the village were happy to see him arrested by US forces and said, "My enemies are very happy I was captured. They stab people in the back." Again, [redacted] amended this statement later by saying that he didn't personally have enemies, but that his brother did due to the altercation between his brother and [redacted] [redacted] explained that his brother had a fight approximately ten days prior to his capture by US forces and implied that this was somehow linked to the bad blood between his brother and [redacted].

b6 -4,5
b7F -1

Further, it was possible that the weapons belonged to [redacted] (phonetic) a well-known commander. [redacted] admitted that if the weapons found in the compound had been new, he would be guilty. However, the weapons really belonged to his brother. [redacted] could not have returned the weapons to anyone because once they were given a weapon, they were responsible to the commander who provided it.

b6 -4
b7F -1

[redacted] denied being a member of the Taliban or Al Qaeda. Additionally, [redacted] had heard of the HIG, but heard it for the first time approximately four months ago and did not know anything about the organization. Further, [redacted] stated that the Taliban did not bring peace. Only since the US arrival has Afghanistan been peaceful.

[redacted] reiterated that the weapons had been provided eight-to-ten years ago. Further, [redacted] claimed that he told US forces where to find five boxes of ammunition. [redacted]'s family brought the ammunition from Jalalabad when they moved to the farm four years ago. Once again, [redacted] insisted that the ammunition was not his, but belonged to his brother. [redacted] stated that there were no rocket-propelled grenades found on the premises. Further, the recoilless rifle found by US forces did not work and was rusted. [redacted] opined that it is probably "over a hundred years old," but later modified this by saying that it was from his "grandfather's time." [redacted] maintained that he knew nothing of any additional weapons that may have been found on his compound.

I was situated in the observation booth in between two interview rooms, observing an interview which included at least one FBI SA, and possibly a colleague of his from one of the other agencies with invesitgative personnel assigned there at the time. The booth was quite crowded because there were several individuals present who were observing an "interview" in the room on the other side of the booth. In that room, the detainee was seated in a chair and was secured in the same method as I'd seen for all of the other detainees, shackled at his feet so that he could not leave the room. However, there wasn't much talking going on, because the lights had been turned off and a strobe light was flickering on and off, and loud rock music was being played. I estimate that this went on for 30 to 60 minutes. I was told by quite a few FBI personnel that tactics such as this were quite common there at the time. This was the only such event that I observed directly.

Re: Group e-mail message from Steven C. McCraw received by me on Friday, July 09, 2004.

As a member of the National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime (NCAVC) in the Critical Incident Response Group (CIRG), I was assigned to a tour at GTMO from July 2 - 24, 2003. While there, I provided interview/interrogation advice to FBI SAs who were involved in ongoing interactions with detainees. I directly observed 14 interviews with 12 detainees. During one of these interviews (I am not sure which one at this time), I observed treatment of another detainee by a different interview team which included tactics that, while not overly aggressive, were clearly not consistent with Bureau interview policy/guidelines. To my knowledge, there were no FBI personnel involved in that interview. I do not recall at this time the identities or agency affiliations of those who were involved in that interview.

Starting next Monday, July 12, 2004, I will be in travel status in San Diego, California, and Anchorage, Alaska. I will be away for two full weeks, returning to my office on Monday, July 26. My direct telephone number is: [redacted] b2 -1

Title: COUNTERTERRORISM DIVISION, GTMO
INSPECTION SPECIAL INQUIRY

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED EXCEPT WHERE SHOWN OTHERWISE

Synopsis: Response to request for information in e-mail dated 07/09/2004 regarding treatment of detainees at GTMO.

Details: From May 12, 2003 to June 26, 2003, Special Agent (SA) [redacted] FBI Denver, served a TDY at GTMO. On one occasion during the final two weeks of this TDY, SA [redacted] observed two other unknown individuals from an unknown other government agency conducting an interview with a detainee utilizing techniques that were not consistent with FBI interview policy/guidelines. SA [redacted] FBI Seattle, was also present and witnessed this same incident.

b6 -1 b7C -1

The interviewing techniques that were observed by SA [redacted] involved the two unknown interviewers from an unknown other government agency sitting a detainee down on the floor in the center of an interview room, while rap type music was being played at a very high volume using a portable Radio/CD player, and while the interviewers smoked cigars and blew the smoke from these cigars towards the face of the detainee, and continuously laughed at the detainee. These interview techniques were seen by SA [redacted] and SA [redacted] through one-way glass in an adjacent room to the interview room and were observed for a few minutes prior to SA [redacted] and SA [redacted] vacating the area due to their interview session with another detainee being completed. SA [redacted] did not observe any direct physical contact between the interviewers and the detainee in this incident.

b7C -1

One of the unknown individuals involved in this incident from an unknown other government agency was a white male, approximately 5'8" to 5'10" in height, medium build, red hair. The other individual involved in this incident from an unknown other government agency was a white male, approximately 5'11" to 6'1" in height, large build, brown hair, glasses.

Based on SA [redacted]'s acquaintances and familiarity (S) with the [redacted] Navy b1 Criminal Intelligence Agency (NCIS) interviewers, and FBI interviews in GTMO during this time frame, it is believed with reasonable certainty that the two individuals involved in this incident were not [redacted] NCIS, or FBI interviewers. It is (S) believed that these two interviewers may have been from either the Defense Humint Services, the Defense Intelligence Agency, or contracted in some fashion through the US Army.

b1

SA [redacted] did not previously report this incident as it is not known by SA [redacted] what interviewing guidelines/policy that other government agencies may or may not be required to adhere to.

This is written in response to your inquiry concerning interview techniques used on Guantanamo detainees which were not consistent with Bureau interview policy/guidelines.

I was TDY in Guantanamo from February 10 to March 27, 2003. While there, I heard through the usual rumor mill (other agents, military counterparts) about a technique used by military interrogators which was not allowed to be used by Agents. The technique was to leave a detainee shackled in an interrogation room for an extended period of time, twelve hours or more, and either turn the air conditioner to its lowest possible temperature or off. Supposedly, the detainees were not removed from the rooms even to relieve themselves. This was only used for the difficult detainees who would not cooperate.

One day, while in one of the interrogation buildings, I was in one of the observation rooms which looked into two interrogation rooms. I was in this room because the detainee I was interviewing was in one of the interrogation room observed from this room. Laying on the floor of the other interrogation room was a detainee. I believe this detainee was subject to the above mentioned extended stay in the interrogation room.

The detainee did not appear distressed. The detainee may possibly have been asleep. He was dressed in the normal detainee jumpsuit. His leg shackles were attached to the I-bolt in the center of the interrogation room floor as per SOP. I do not recall if the detainee was or was not wearing handcuffs. I do not recall observing any furniture in the room on which the detainee could sit. The detainee did not appear to have soiled himself and I did not observe any fluid on the floor around the detainee.

I do not know how long the detainee was in the room prior to my viewing him or how long he remained there after I saw him. I do not know what the temperature of the interrogation room was or if the air conditioning was on or off. I do not know who was responsible for this detainee's interrogation. I do not know who the detainee was nor would I recognize him as I do not recall seeing his face.

I do not remember if anyone was with me when I observed this or if there was someone, who that individual was. I do not remember who I was interviewing the day this occurred. I do not remember at what point during my TDY this occurred or what day it was. This likely occurred in the morning as this was when most of my interrogations took place.

Following a detainee interview exact date unknown, while leaving the interview building at Camp Delta at approximately 8:30 p.m. or later, I heard and observed in the hallway loud music and flashes of light. I walked from the hallway into the open door of a monitoring room to see what was going on. From the monitoring room, I looked inside the adjacent interview room. At that time I saw another detainee sitting on the floor of the interview room with an Israeli flag draped around him, loud music being played and a strobe light flashing. I left the monitoring room immediately after seeing this activity. I did not see any other persons inside the interview room with the Israeli flag draped detainee, but suspect that this was a practice used by the DOD DHS since the only other persons inside the hallway near this particular interview room were dressed in green military fatigues, similar to the ones worn by DOD DHS and the DOD MP Uniformed Reservists. At no time did I observe any physical assaults take place of this detainee nor any others while assigned to GTMO.

I understood prior to deployment to GTMO, that such techniques were not allowed, nor approved by FBI policy. While at GTMO no such techniques were never conducted to my knowledge by any of the CITF personnel assigned at GTMO.

Approximately one or two days later, DHS tactics were discussed at a weekly held CITF staff meeting. Many of the CITF investigators discussed how some of the DHS tactics had been counterproductive in building rapport with detainees who were being interviewed by CITF members. Acting FBI SSA [redacted] advised that no CITF personnel including FBI agents were to take part in any such interviews or interrogations which fell outside the FBI's policy of interviewing detainees. ASSA [redacted] also advised us that if we became aware of any similar instances where agressive DHS tactics had been observed to notify him, provide details, and he would make these instances known to appropriate GTMO DOD and DOJ officials. It should be noted that while at GTMO, ASSA [redacted] acted in an exemplary manner and represented the FBI as a consumate professional. This summary details the only incident I have to report regarding observing a non-FBI approved tactic being used on a detainee at GTMO.

No further interview necessary. Loud music and strobe light would be within the notion of "environment down" that is an approved technique for DoD. The Israeli flag, though obnoxious, doesn't seem to change the basic technique into one that would be unlawfully abusive.

At no time did I observe any physical assaults take place of this detainee nor any others while assigned to GTMO.

I understood prior to deployment to GTMO, that such techniques were not allowed, nor approved by FBI policy. While at GTMO no such techniques were never conducted to my knowledge by any of the CITF personnel assigned at GTMO.

Approximately one or two days later, DHS tactics were discussed at a weekly held CITF staff meeting. Many of the CITF investigators discussed how some of the DHS tactics had been counterproductive in building rapport with detainees who were being interviewed by CITF members. Acting FBI SSA [redacted] advised that no CITF personnel including FBI agents were to take part in any such interviews or interrogations which fell outside the FBI's policy of interviewing detainees. ASSA [redacted] also advised us that if we became aware of any similar instances where agressive DHS tactics had been observed to notify him, provide details, and he would make these instances known to appropriate GTMO DOD and DOJ officials. It should be noted that while at GTMO, ASSA [redacted] acted in an exemplary manner and represented the FBI as a consumate professional. This summary details the only incident I have to report regarding observing a non-FBI approved tactic being used on a detainee at GTMO. b6 -1 b7C -1

While at GTMO I observed some non-FBI policy treatment which was conducted by non-Bureau and non-CITF personnel being used on one detainee. I did not observe any physical mistreatment of any detainee.

Mr. [redacted]
I have been assigned to GTMO since October 2003 on a one year TDY.
I have observed interview techniques not consistent with Bureau interview policy, but in compliance with Department of Defense, DOD policy. I have not taken part in any interview where these techniques were allowed, but have only observed.

The details of these interviews consist of, short shackling to the floor, cold temperatures, loud music, strobe lights and left in interrogation room for long periods of time. Again, this was consistent with DOD policy not FBI policy.

For information of Inspection Division, I will be off GTMO from 7/13 until 8/10th. GTMO can contact me if necessary.

Thank You,

I just returned from annual leave and read the below requested reply e-mail.

I was TDY to GTMO from 9/25/03 - 11/11/03.

The only matter which may be relevant that I observed was:

b7C -1

(Date Unknown, possibly Oct/Nov timeframe) SA [redacted] and myself were at Camp Delta, in the (Gold Trailer, I believe) Interview/Interrogation trailer. We heard loud music coming from the right far rear of one of the interview/interrogation rooms and proceeded to enter the observation booth in between rooms. The lights were off in the Interview/Interrogation room but there was a strobe light on with loud music inside and a clothed detainee sitting on the floor, no one else was in the room. An unknown white male in civilian clothing entered the observation room we were in, and told us we should not be there. SA [redacted] and myself exited the room.

Does this constitute aggressive treatment and warrant a follow-up interview by you ? If not, should I complete a negative reply EC stating I did not observe any other unusual/aggressive treatment?

In response to the request for information regarding treatment of detainees at GTMO:

I served a TDY at GTMO from early June to mid July 2003. On one occassion I witnessed interview techniques that I believe were not consistent with FBI interview policy or guidelines. Sometime in mid to late June I viewed an interrogation through one way glass being conducted in an adjacent interview room. I witnessed a detainee seated in the middle of the floor while loud rap or heavy metal music was being played from a portable CD player. Two interrogators were standing above the detainee and continuously laughing and blowing cigar smoke in the detainee's face. While the identities of the interrogators is unknown, I believe that they were associated with Defense Humint Services or contracted by the US Army.

A more detailed EC will be sent regarding this incident.

b6 -1 b7C -1 Synopsis: Response of Acting SSRA [redacted] regarding GTMO interrogations b6 -1 b7C -1 Details: SA [redacted] was TDY to GTMO beginning March 28, 2003 for 45 days and participated in interrogations, almost exclusively with U.S. Army CID officer [redacted] b6 -3 b7C -3 b1 [redacted] At the outset, SA [redacted] and other Bureau personnel arriving at GTMO were instructed in a closed-door orientation to abide by Bureau policy and guidelines in conducting interrogations, with the exception that detainees were not to be given Miranda warnings. Bureau personnel were clearly told that the FBI did not condone or participate in, some military interrogation techniques. This reference was made specifically to interrogation techniques of military intelligence officers, not to other military members of the Criminal Investigative Task Force. SA [redacted] did not witness any abusive treatment of detainees during interrogations or otherwise.

Occasionally, during interview sessions, detainees complained of inappropriate behavior by military personnel. Such complaints were incorporated into interview FD-302s per instructions of Bureau management. An example of such a report can be found in 315N-MM-C99102-AA40, serial 15, in which a detainee alleged a female guard removed her blouse and, while pressing her body against a shackled and restrained detainee from behind, handled his genitalia and wiped menstrual blood on his head and face as a form of punishment for lack of cooperation. The detainee stated this person [redacted] Internment Serial Number (ISN) [redacted] an Egyptian male, was interviewed at Camp Delta, United States Naval Base Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, by Special Agents [redacted] of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and [redacted] of the United States Army Criminal Investigations Division. Contract linguist [redacted] interpreted between Arabic and English. The following occurred during the course of the two-hour interview:

b7F -1

The first fifteen minutes of the interview occurred in English. [redacted] said he learned what English he knows at the University of Cairo, Egypt. He appeared to have approximately a 2 level command of English on a 5 scale. He smiled frequently and made some attempts at humor. [redacted] said he had been interviewed by a man this morning. The interviewer would not say what agency he represented. After small talk, [redacted] requested the interview continue in Arabic.

b6 -4
b7F -1

[redacted] became serious and said he learned after coming to Camp Delta that the Egyptian government has accused him of being part of a 1995 plot to assassinate President Mubarek. They also say he is part of an organization called Al Wa'ad. He then said he wanted to describe what the Egyptian government is like. He said in 1981, a law was passed in Egypt which says he can be tried in Egypt without any rights and without a lawyer, and that the death penalty can be imposed on him. This law places civilians under military law. He believes people should be tried by civilian courts, not military courts. He also said the Egyptian government conducts operations such as bombings and blames them on Islamic groups to justify their actions against such groups. This happened under past administrations in Egypt also.

b6 -4
b7F -1

[redacted] said the accusations of the Egyptian government against him, such as his alleged part in the assassination plot, are not true. He reasoned that, if these things were true, he would have been arrested by Egyptian authorities while he was in Egypt. After all, he said, it was not as if the allegation were that he had robbed a bank, it was a plot to kill the President of Egypt. Yet he was able to fly out of Cairo using a valid passport in his true name. It was only after he traveled to Afghanistan and was arrested that the allegations were made. He believes he is one of many who were arrested as a response to the September 11, 2001 attacks in order to show that the United States was doing something about the attacks.

[redacted] said he has found all the interrogators to be liars. He does not trust any of them. He gave an example of the behavior of Americans. A detainee returned from an interrogation with blood on his face and head. He said a female interrogator, after not getting cooperation from him, called four guards into the room. While the guards held him, she removed her blouse, embraced the detainee from behind and put her hand on his genitals. The interrogator was on her menstrual period and she wiped blood from her body on his face and head. He said he asked one guard, "Why do you hate me?" The guard responded, "If I could, I would kill you."

b6 -4
b7F -1

[redacted] complained no one has told him what he is accused of doing. He is ready to be tried if there is evidence against him. He offered that there are three possible outcomes for him:

1. He will face a military tribunal
2. He will be returned to Egypt, where he will face life imprisonment and torture
3. He will be released to a country where he can claim political asylum

He said he understands the impact of the September 11 attacks. But he complained about the treatment he has received during his arrest, transport, and detention. He said the prisons in Egypt are better than here. But he declined to say how he knew the difference. He denied ever telling previous interrogators that he had been tortured before by Egyptian authorities.

b6 -4
b7F -1

According to [redacted], before he was arrested, he believed in the humane treatment of prisoners in the United States. For this reason, when he was first interrogated, he cooperated with interrogators. But he found his assumptions about treatment in the U.S. system to be incorrect. He believes the United States extends no rights to Arabs. He doubts anyone who interviews him will be honest with him. He believes the U.S. intelligence agencies override decisions of the U.S. military and that Jewish people control the American media.

The interviewers explained to [redacted] that he was detained during a time of war and that he falls under a military system of justice. This is why he is not being afforded the same rights as people who face civil tribunals. [redacted] asked what would be done with him. He was told he will either be tried or released. He said he believes he will be returned to Egypt. He was told the United States is not following the dictates of the Egyptian government, that the possibility of political asylum was mentioned in his file, and that his fate was not certain. The interviewers are trying to determine who is linked to the Taliban and to Al Qaeda.

b6 -4
b7D -1
b7F -1

b6 -4
b7C -4
b7F -1

[redacted] said he knows how both the CIA and the FBI operate. He knows how they do things, and how they try to obtain information. He would not say how he knows these things.

He then asked, if the intention is to turn him back to Egypt, why not just turn him over now? He was told there are too many unanswered questions to let him go immediately. He said he believes from the interviewers' point of view, he is either associated with the Taliban and Al Qaeda, or he was just caught in the net, so why not get as much intelligence from him as possible. As soon as the interrogators get all they can from him, they will hand him over to Egypt "on a plate".

This conversation was followed by a discussion of how trust could be developed between SA [redacted] who would be at Camp Delta long enough to have repeated meetings, and [redacted]. An offer was made to hold more frequent interviews. In this way, perhaps some trust could be developed and [redacted] would feel comfortable opening up and providing his complete history, which could help him complete the process at Guantanamo Bay. [redacted] seemed willing to address this proposal. He then asked what time it was and asked if he could say his prayers. The interview was ended with the understanding that another interview would occur in two weeks, at which time this proposal could be discussed again.

Mr. [redacted]

I worked at GTMO from June through August of 2002. During that time period I observed one incident in an interrogation room which was contrary to Bureau interview policy / guidelines. I observed a detainee in a darkened interrogation room shackled to the bolt on the floor in a kneeling position. The room was completely dark and there was a flashing strobe light placed in front of the detainee and a stereo was playing loud music in the room. I observed a male interrogator outside the room during the time frame that I observed this activity. The interrogator was wearing a BDU uniform with no unit patches or name tags on the uniform so I have no idea what agency he worked for; however, I never observed any FBI personel involved in this interrogation that I described.

Mr. [redacted]

I'm responding via e-mail because I was aware of a practice of interrogating detainees which I did not feel was appropriate. During my short TDY at GTMO in July 2002, I took part in some discussions about a practice which had been utilized in which the detainee would be placed in the interview room approximately 6-8 hours prior to the scheduled interview. The air conditioning in the room would be turned down to as low as 55 degrees. It was common practice to have the detainees restricted from movement with handcuffs, legcuffs, and a chain bolted to the floor, which would prevent them from moving around the room, which in this case would prevent them from adjusting the air conditioning temperature.

My interview team did not participate in this practice, but I vaguely recall seeing detainees in rooms by themselves in conditions which I believed included uncomfortably cold environments. There were occasions when our interview team would show up for an interview and the temperature in the room was uncomfortably cold. However, the detainee was rarely in the room for any length of time before the interview and we would immediately turn the air conditioning temperature to a comfortable level. I brought the topic up to the Marine Corps JAG assigned to us and they actually began to discourage this practice, not necessarily because of my efforts, but others that agreed with my veiws as well.

Mr. [redacted].. I am trying to err on the side of caution here, so these incidents may or may not fall within the parameters you are using. I have been repeatedly assured that, although some of the techniques utilized by some of the non-FBI interrogators here are well outside what would generally be considered standard procedure for a CONUS FBI interview, all of the techniques used have been approved by the SecDef. However I personally feel about these techniques, I have been assured that DOD had permission. I further do not believe anything akin to the activities at Abu Ghareb in Iraq have taken place here.

1) [redacted]
Situation: I was told on or about Thursday, 22 April 2004 by a member of DOD's North Africa-Europe (NAE) team that [redacted] whom he debriefs, had provided the following: Sometime in the second or third week of February of 2004, [redacted] was taken to reservation. ([redacted] was on both FBI and NAE hold.) He did not recognize the interviewers and when he told them he didn't want to speak to anyone unless they were introduced by his regular interrogators, he was yelled at for 25 mintues. [redacted] was short-shackled, the room temperature was significantly lowered, strobe lights were used, and possibly loud music. There were two male interrogators; one stood behind him and the other in front. They yelled at him and told him he was never leaving here. The interrogator tried to get [redacted] to identify photos. After the initial 25 minutes of yelling, [redacted] was left alone in the room in this condition for approximately 12 hours. At one point, the interrogator came back in the afternoon to make sure he was still there. During the 12 hours, [redacted] was not permitted to eat, pray, or use the bathroom. One of the interrogators was described as old/late 50's, grey and black hair, mustache with no beard, short, skinny, and wore a blue shirt.
My actions: I verbally informed my GTMO SSA when I received the information. I later informed the GTMO On-Scene Commander via e-mail on 05/05/2004.
Note: It is my understanding all of these techniques were, at that time, permitted per DOD. We believe the interviewers may have been with CTC based upon the physical description and the fact that [redacted] was taken to an interview room without appearing on the schedule... I believe they are the only entity here that can do that.

b6 -4
b7C -4

2) [redacted]
Situation: I observed the following in early April of 2004: [redacted] was being debriefed for several hours (appoximately 15 hours) by NAE. Throughout the session, [redacted] periodically threw up in a trash can. At the time, I was told he had an ulcer and that the stress was irritating it. I was later advised he had a stomach virus. I was told he had been given a shot of Motrin (or something like that) by the medical staff.

b6 -3,4
b7C -3,4

My actions: Due in part to the fact that LTC [redacted] was present and did not object to the situation, and that I never heard [redacted] ask to be returned to his cell or request medical assistance, I took no action. I subsequently reported this to the GTMO On-Scene Commander via e-mail on 05/05/2004.

3) [redacted]

b6 -4
b7C -4

Situation: I briefly observed the following in early April of 2004: Attempts were being made by NAE to debrief [redacted] [redacted] refused to speak or interact with the interrogators in any way. I believe [redacted] was kept in an interrogation room for approximately 15 hours, short-shackled, with strobe lights and possibly music.

My actions: Because it was my understanding that, at that time, all of these techniques were permitted per DOD, I did not report this.

Around November 20 or November 21, 2001, [redacted] and his comrades were trying to get out of Kondoz. [redacted] and others jumped in the beds of trucks. The trucks drove for a while, then came to a river, where they were forced to get out of the trucks. Their plan was to surrender to United Nations forces. At about 0100 to 0200, more trucks appeared. [redacted] was going to get into one of these trucks but his friend, [redacted] ISN: [redacted] had failed to put his shoes on. He waited for [redacted] and while waiting, the trucks they were going to get in to, drove off. Some planes flew overhead. Since it was dark he could not see the markings on the planes. The planes used some type of bomb or incendiary device and proceeded to blow up the trucks that [redacted] was initially going to get into. [redacted] saw many people die or get severely injured.

[redacted] and another friend, [redacted] (ISN: [redacted], started walking. They could hear gunfire in the distance. They also heard helicopters. The men walked back towards the river and observed women crying. The women were locals whose homes had been destroyed by the planes. [redacted] estimated that eight to nine trucks were destroyed. They were full of people trying to surrender. He believes that between 300 and 400 people were killed when the trucks blew up. Had his friend, [redacted] been ready, with his shoes on, [redacted] and [redacted] would have died on one of the trucks.

[redacted] saw Taliban and Afghanis driving by in different vehicles. He jumped in a Pakistani truck in an attempt to get away from the area. The Northern Alliance soldiers took their jackets, money, and shoes. The Northern Alliance soldiers were not in any type of uniform. They did not have guns at this time. They looked like civilians.

[redacted] and his group were forced to walk through a valley, between two high hills. He could see people on the hills with guns and camcorders. They were videotaping the group of walkers. [redacted] was searched again and his hands were tied behind his back.

[redacted] and [redacted] got into one truck, and [redacted] got into another truck full of Afghanis.

The trucks drove for a while and stopped at an unknown location. [redacted] saw one big, tall, caucasian, American looking man who was wearing blue jeans. The man was taking pictures of the trucks and the occupants. The man then left and [redacted] did not see him again. The trucks started up again and drove off. At night, they arrived at Mazar-e-Sharif. [redacted] saw lines of people holding guns. The truck that [redacted] was in backed up to a large container and the occupants of the bed of the truck were forced into the container.

[redacted] described the container as being red in color, looking like a shipping container. It was about the size of 6 detainee cells at Camp Delta, but wider. It had no windows and only small holes near the top for ventilation. The container was made of metal. [redacted] estimated that at least 100 men were forced into the container. The container was then closed. People inside began to scream and bang on the outside of the container, but no one opened it. [redacted] blacked out due to lack of air while it was still dark outside. He came to when it was light and noticed that it appeared there were new holes in the outside wall of the container. He noticed that the metal was pushed inward, towards the people inside the container, as if something had punctured the container from the outside. He said he had a grazing type wound on his right elbow which he thought may have been from a bullet. [redacted] thought the punctures in the metal container may have come from gunfire. He does not believe that the puncture holes were present prior to his blacking out.

[redacted] noticed the man next to him was dead. He saw green foam coming from the man's mouth. [redacted] had not eaten or drank anything for two days. He was still not given anything to eat or drink. The men in the container took cloths and rubbed them against the ceiling of the container to get the condensation that had accumulated there. They rung the cloths out so they could drink the water.

[redacted] believes he was in the container for approximately 24 hours. He estimated that only about 20 people survived the ordeal.

When the contained was finally opened, [redacted] noticed the people who opened the container wore the same type of civilian clothes he had seen earlier on the Northern Alliance soldiers. [redacted] was put into the container at Mazar-e-Sharif and when it was opened they were at Sabergaan jail. The container had been moved while he was in it.
A doctor treated his arm with iodine after his release.

[redacted] could not say why he was put into the container. He thought it might have been because he looked more like an Afghani than a Pakistani. [redacted] did not see what happened to the deceased, but later heard that the captures had gone through their pockets and taken money and personal items. The dead were put into a big hole and buried. He also heard that some of the men who were too weak to get out of the container on their own were put into the hole also.

The U.S. soldiers arrived at Sabergaan jail about one month after [redacted] was released from the container. [redacted]'s initial capture and placement into the container were the three worst days of his life.

Positive response (per our conversation on 07/12/2004)

I was TDY at GTMO from 07/16/2003 - 09/02/2003 and again from 10/28/2003 - 11/18/2003. During the period of 07/16 - 09/02/2003, on one occasion I witnessed a detainee in an interview room who was subjected to loud music and strobe lights. I witnessed this while walking past the room on my way to another interview. I do not recall the exact date or the time this occurred. There were no FBI personnel in the room with the loud music and strobe lights.

I was deployed to GTMO on the following dates listed: 02/13/03 to 03/18/03, 07/17/03 to 09/02/03, 05/31/04 to 07/02/04, in order to conduct interviews of financial operatives of Al-Qaeda and the Taliban. I did not witness any aggressive behavior or interview techniques being used on GTMO detainees that is not consistent with Bureau policy. However, during the second deployment, 07/17/03 to 09/02/03, I observed a detainee being exposed to loud music and a strobe light during an interrogation. I do not recall the date that this took place, the detainee's name, or who was interrogating the detainee. I saw what was going on at approximately 10:00am and I believe the detainee was referred to as the poison man due to his knowledge of chemical & biological weapons.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED EXCEPT WHERE SHOWN OTHERWISE

I was TDY at GTMO 12/02/2002-01/16/2003 and did not personally observe any mistreatment of detainees. I would be very surprised if anything similar to Abu Ghraib occurred at Camp Delta prior to or during my TDY at GTMO. I truly do not believe that any abusive activity would have occurred in the presence of bureau personnel.

(S) [redacted] b1

(S) [redacted] That information was provided specifically in my FD-302 dated 12/09/2002 regarding interview of [redacted] and it was not alleged that FBI personnel were involved. [redacted]s allegations regarding harsh treatment are included in the last paragraph of the FD-302. [redacted]s alleged treatment is not nearly as aggressive as the techniques alleged to have been used at Abu Ghraib, but [redacted]s allegations are the only allegations of physical mistreatment which I became aware of while at GTMO. Additional information may be obtained from Language Specialist (LS) [redacted] the only Uighur translator during my TDY. As the only Uighur translator, LS [redacted] had regular contact with all of the approximately thirty Uighur detainees. LS [redacted] left employment at GTMO in January of 2003. b6 -4 b7C -4 b7D -1 b7F -1 b6 -1 b7C -1

The Uighurs are moderate Muslims who occupied East Turkestan, which was taken over by the Chinese and renamed the Xinjiang province of China. The Uighurs were offered land in Afghanistan in order to gather personnel opposing Chinese oppression. They were often inspired by Radio Free Asia, which LS [redacted] was formerly a broadcaster for. The Uighurs considered themselves to be fighting for democracy, and they idolized the United States. Although the Uighurs are Muslim their agenda did not appear to include Islamic radicalism. They claimed to have no political connection to Islamic terrorists or the Taliban. However, their camp in Afghanistan was bombed, and they fled to Pakistan. The Uighurs were captured by the Pakistanis, with half being tranferred to US custody, and half being remanded directly to Chinese officials. It was alleged that the Uighurs who were transferred directly to the Chinese were immediately executed. At the time of my TDY, US Officials were considering whether to return the Uighurs to the Chinese, possibly to gain support for anticipated US action in the Middle East. The Uighur detainees at GTMO were convinced that they would be immediately executed if they were returned to China. b6 -1 b7C -1

(S) [redacted]

b1 [redacted] Another FD-302, dated 12/06/2002, regarding my interview of [redacted] included that

(S) information in the paragraph at the top of page 2. I know this has nothing to do with physical abuse at GTMO, but it helps put the Uighurs' situation in perspective.

The Uighur story is fascinating, and is the only thing I was aware of that had to do with harsh treatment of detainees. Not exactly a "smoking gun" regarding abuse of GTMO detainees. However, if the Uighurs' allegations are true, [redacted] (S)

There was a camp at GTMO that was dismantled prior to my TDY, and, I believe, prior to the construction of Camp Delta. I believe it was called Camp X-Ray. If any abuse occurred at GTMO, it would most likely have occurred there, and most likely did not involve bureau personnel.

That's all I can provide on this subject. Attached is a copy of my EC indicating that I did not personally observe aggressive treatment of GTMO detainees. Also attached are FD-302s regarding my interviews of two Uighurs [redacted] and [redacted]

I was assigned to GTMO from July 17, 2003 - August 7, 2003. I'm a member of CIRG's Behavioral Analysis Unit and our function was to observe interviews of detainees and provide interview strategies as needed. During my tenure there, I never personally witnessed agressive treatment, interrogations or interview techniques on GTMO detainees. I did hear loud music being played and people yelling loudly from behind closed doors of interview rooms but I could not say they were yelling at detainees. I also observed strobe lights in interview rooms on a number of occasions but never observed those being used on detainees.

There were many comments made by investigators during my tenure at GTMO that every time the FBI established a rapport with a detainee, the military would step in and the detainee would stop being cooperative. There were also accusations that the Military would present themselves as FBI Agents to detainees and harrass them but that was never personally observed by me.

Synopsis: Response to request from FBIHQ regarding treatment of detainees at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba (GTMO).

Administrative: This EC is in response to email from AD Steven C. McCraw, Inspection Division, dated July 9, 2004, requesting responses from employees who served assignments at GTMO. The email requested that employees who observed aggressive treatment immediately email Unit Chief [redacted] and that those who did not observe such treatment should submit an EC stating such. Details: Respondent's official Bureau name and title is S. [redacted] Special Agent (pending transfer to Legat Rabat as ALAT, effective August 15, 2004). Tenure of assignment at GTMO was March 3, 2003 through April 15, 2003. b6 -1 b7C -1

I observed no aggressive treatment or interrogations of GTMO detainees. I did not use nor did I observe the use of interview techniques which were not consistent with Bureau interview policy/guidelines.

On two or three occasions, during regularly scheduled interviews, detainees advised me that they had been subjected to loud music to keep them awake and had been shown pornographic photos in an effort to upset them. I have no knowledge that these activities were done by FBI employees and was under the impression that these were techniques used by Department of Defense (DOD) contract interviewers. This was common knowledge among FBI employees and it was a topic as I recall that was discussed at staff meetings because it was sometimes detrimental to our efforts of attempting to establish rapport with detainees. I also recall that translators (who worked with both FBI and DOD interviewers) also confirmed the allegations of the detainees regarding sleep deprivation.

No detainees or translators advised me of any physical mistreatment of detainees by any interrogators, guards, or any other employees, civilian or military, at GTMO.

Inspector [redacted] - I just returned to the office today after being gone for two weeks, so that is why this response is a week late. My official Bu name is [redacted] Special Agent, and tenure of assignment at GTMO of 3/4/03 to 4/19/03. I observed no aggressive treatment, interrogations, or interview techniques on GTMO detainees which was not consistent with Bureau interview policy or guidelines. If I had, I would have reported such abuse immediately. If anything, the detainees were treated with professionalism, as well as extreme restraint, considering some of their actions against the guards. Most detainees I interviewed were asked by myself, or the other CITF interrogator, how they were being treated. The only complaints I recall dealt with mail not being received, dental issues not being given immediate attention, and other non-abusive issues. The senior CITF official I was teamed with would follow up on these complaints as soon as the interview/interrogation was completed. An EC will follow. Thank you [redacted] SLC, Boise RA, [redacted]

I did not observe any physically aggressive treatment of GTMO detainees but, as the email was written requesting information regarding the observation of "aggressive treatment, interrogations or interview techniques on GTMO detainees which was not consistent with Bureau interview policy/guidelines", I will include the following observations and allow the Inspection Division to determine if it falls under the desired criteria:

A detainee was led into an interview room by hooded MPs. The detainee was also hooded and the hood was removed by the MPs for the interview. This procedure was not under our direction. This happened on two occasions.

In an interview trailer, I observed an interview room with flashing lights and loud rock music coming through and under a door. I did not observe any individuals inside as the solid door was closed. I observed this only once.

An EC will follow reporting the above.

On one morning my partner from OSI went into the observation room accross the hall from our interogation room to get a chair. While in there he called me in. In one of the other interogation rooms was a detainee sitting in a chair alone in the room. The glass/2 way mirror was very warm to the touch, as if the room temp. was high in the interrogation room. The detainee appeared to be sleeping in the chair.

The next day while getting a chair in the observation room I observed what appeared to be the same detainee in the same room. The window felt very cool that morning, as if the room temp. was low. Again the detainee was alone and appeared to be sleeping in the room.

I do not know what ISN number the detainee was nor who had the detainee in the room. I did not go into the interogation room and don't know how the room felt.

After making these observations we left the observation room and subsequently conducted our interview across the hall.

I would appreciate any input you have regarding these observations.

Thanks,

Title: COUNTERTERRORISM DIVISION, GTMO,
INSPECTION SPECIAL INQUIRY
FOR SPECIAL AGENT (SA) APPLICANTS

Synopsis: Report of negative observation of aggressive treatment, interrogations or interview techniques on GTMO detainees.

Details: This EC is in response to email of July 9, 2004 from Steven C. McCraw to all individuals identified as having conducted an assignment at GTMO, Cuba since 09/11/2001.

I was on TDY assignment to GTMO, Cuba for the Military Detainee Liaison Unit (MDLU) from September 1, 2003 through November 11, 2003. During this time frame I was assigned to participate in interviews of the detainees being held at GTMO. During my assignment I did not observe any aggressive treatment or aggressive interrogation or interview techniques of detainees at GTMO.

During my assignment at GTMO I received a briefing from the military personnel assigned to operations at GTMO, that non-cooperative detainees could be placed on a list for a specific interrogation technique involving interruption of sleep pattern, called the "frequent flyer program." With this particular technique, identified detainees were moved frequently from cell block to cell block at intervals that appeared to be every hour or every two hours depending on the shifts and availability of military personnel to move the detainee. Detainees were moved along with all of their personal belongings. Due to the movement to different cells the detainees had their sleep interrupted throughout a 24 hour period. The duration of the program for particular detainees seemed to depend on the cooperativeness of the detainee. I did not participate in this program and do not know of any participation of FBI personnel in recommending detainees to this program. I did observe on the detainee movement database, some detainees were on the movement records, moving approximately every hour or every two hours. I do not recall the names of these detainees.
