He said

she was attending South Philadelphia High School for Girls and did occasional singing to supplement the family income.

According to [REDACTED] she studied music in Philadelphia until about 1924, when she won a competition at Lewis and Clark Stadium in New York and began more frequent concerts. He explained that she had considerable difficulty in winning recognition and her concerts were irregular and infrequent.

[REDACTED] during these years, from about 1918 to the early 1930's. Further, he said her appointee's [REDACTED] and he said he has never had cause to question the appointee's associates. As a young girl, she was very steady, not given to snap judgments, and has always been of very stable disposition. He added she has never expressed herself to any degree on political matters, inasmuch as she is not primarily interested in politics. In his estimation, Miss ANDERSON'S beliefs fall well within the framework of the major political party system and he said she believes an artist can do her people more good if the artist remains in the artistic field. He said she has done this herself and very much disapproves of the political activities of PAUL ROBESON. [REDACTED] said Miss ANDERSON knows Mr. ROBESON as a professional colleague but there has never been any personal friendship between them. According to [REDACTED], Miss ANDERSON has known and admired [REDACTED] another professional colleague.

[REDACTED] added that the appointee is a patriotic American who can be relied upon to act with good judgment in any capacity she may undertake. He feels she is richly endowed with humility, depth of character, generosity, and kindness.

NY 77-23894

He said she is extremely well fitted to occupy a position requiring discretion, tact, and trustworthiness. [REDACTED] advised that he has seen her only infrequently since [REDACTED] b7D [REDACTED] related that during the years [REDACTED] Miss ANDERSON, her professional contacts were limited. For this reason, and due to the passage of time, he could suggest no one who would be acquainted with her early career.

[REDACTED] She studied and toured in Europe until about 1934, when SOL HUOK offered the appointee a guaranteed contract. Miss ANDERSON tried to get [REDACTED] to match the guarantee but he said he could not at that time and she subsequently returned to America under SOL HUOK'S management and has remained under his management to the present. [REDACTED] noted that Miss ANDERSON'S career began when she won a competition at Lewisohn Stadium in New York and shortly thereafter began singing [REDACTED] added that Miss ANDERSON originally came from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. [REDACTED] stated he recalls one WILLIAM KING who was accompanist for the appointee for a brief period but he has not heard of KING for a number of years and knows nothing about him. He stated he has no reason to question Mr. KING in any way. [REDACTED] also stated that the appointee has surrounded herself with professional managers at Hurok Attractions and he has never had reason to question her associates there.

[redacted], stated she first met Miss ANDERSON about twenty-five years ago and has seen her socially several times since that time. Both [redacted] stated that they have never heard of the appointee being connected with any political movement and they stated they know her to be truly American and one of the finest persons they know. They stated they have never heard of any association Miss ANDERSON has had with PAUL ROBESON and they stated Miss ANDERSON is a person of the finest patriotism, character, reputation, and integrity. They believe she is a person whom the whole world would approve of in any position and they unreservedly recommended her for a position of responsibility, trust, or confidence.

1926 to 1929, [REDACTED]. He stated the appointee had not furthered her career to the extent that she desired in the late 1920's and he advised her to go to Europe. He noted that SOL HUOK became aware of the appointee in Europe, in about 1934, brought her to America, and has been her manager since. He stated Miss ANDERSON was refused the right to sing at Constitution Hall, Washington, D.C., in the late 1930's, and in its place, Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT, wife of the former President, planned an open-air concert for Miss ANDERSON. He stated this concert won the appointee national acclaim. [REDACTED] continued that he has had no business contact with the appointee for five or six years but he had close contact with her through her present manager in prior years. To his knowledge, the appointee never had any association with PAUL ROBESON and he stated he knows her to be a person of excellent patriotism, character, reputation, and loyalty. Further, he stated Miss ANDERSON conveys deep sincerity and has won the admiration and respect of the world. Miss ANDERSON comports herself with dignity and can adapt herself to any situation. He stated the appointee is highly suitable for any government position requiring the utmost in loyalty, discretion, and judgment.

[redacted] stated that he has been associated with Miss ANDERSON for 12 years through this office. He added that she is truly a "great lady" and he trusts her implicitly. [redacted] stated that in show business one has the opportunity to meet famous people without their aura of publicity and Miss ANDERSON is a great person, both professionally and personally, with or without attendant publicity. [redacted] noted that SOL HUOK has managed the appointee for the greater part of her American career and brought her to America from Europe, in December, 1935. He stated he is not acquainted with the earlier, relatively unknown phases of Miss ANDERSON's career and has no knowledge of WILLIAM KING, her accompanist during her early days. [redacted] stated the appointee is worthy of any position requiring unquestioned patriotism, character, and reputation.

Concerning SOL HUOK, the following information is noted:

The New York "Herald Tribune", dated March 18, 1956, reflected that S. HUOK, American impresario, and VLADIMIR STEPANOV, head of the Foreign Department of the Ministry of Culture, announced at a joint press rally in Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, on March 17, 1956, that Hurok Artists, Inc. will handle future American visits of Soviet artists.

b7C
Records of the Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, as reviewed on November 30, 1956, by SA [REDACTED] revealed that S.M. HUOK (Producer), was, on October 28, 1941, a sponsor of the Russian War Relief, Inc. These records further reflect that HUOK was listed as a guest to be seated on the platform at a rally held under the auspices of Russian War Relief at Madison Square Garden, New York City, on June 22, 1942. The report of the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House of Representatives, 78th Congress, 2nd Session, pages 364 - 365, reflected the following:

M. S. H. H. H.

"Communist Party, under whatever name it has operated, has maintained front organizations and conducted enterprises for the sole purpose of carrying on propaganda on behalf of the Soviet Union. Some of the more important of these fronts and enterprises have been Russian War Relief."

These records further reflected that S. HUOK was on the mailing list of the American Council on Soviet Relations (ACSR), New York City, February 17, 1941. The ACSR has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States, pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A pamphlet entitled, "Investigation on Un-American Propaganda Activities in the United States, Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House of Representatives, 78th Congress, MARTIN DIES, Texas, Chairman", reflects on page 1202 that S. HUOK was a sponsor of a Congress of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, Inc., 232 Madison Avenue, New York City.

[REDACTED] advised that Mr. HUROK signed Miss ANDERSON in June, 1935, and first presented her in December, 1935. He stated she has been under Mr. HUROK's management since that time and had previously been singing in Europe. He stated that previous to her European experience, she had been [REDACTED] In [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] estimation, Miss ANDERSON is the greatest lady that this office knows and is probably the greatest person, from a personal standpoint, of the artists managed by this office. He stated her patriotism, background, demeanor, and integrity are unquestioned and he recommends her highly for a responsible or trust-worthy position.

b7D
[REDACTED] stated that she has known Miss ANDERSON for the entire time she has been managed by Mr. HUROK, or approximately 22 years. She noted that the appointee had previously been traveling in Europe, and under contract [REDACTED]. She stated that the earliest days of the appointee's career were [REDACTED] and that WILLIAM KING was her accompanist during the earliest days of her career. She has no knowledge concerning Mr. KING and stated the appointee has known PAUL ROBESON only as a professional colleague. She stated Mr. ROBESON and Miss ANDERSON have never been close friends and that Miss ANDERSON has nothing in common with Mr. ROBESON's point of view. According to [REDACTED] she has never had any reason to doubt Miss ANDERSON in any way and she considers her to be a patriotic, reliable, kind, trustworthy, and very discreet person. She recommends the appointee highly for any work requiring discretion or good judgment. She added that Miss ANDERSON's [REDACTED] currently in California.

for the appointee is now dead. He was aware that WILLIAM KING was Miss ANDERSON's accompanist in the beginning of her career but he stated he has no information about KING. He added, however, that he has never had reason to doubt KING in any way. [REDACTED] stated he and Miss ANDERSON have worked together closely for 18 years. She was born in Philadelphia, attended high school there, and came to New York, where she won a prize in a competition at Lewisohn Stadium. A few years thereafter she went to Europe for study and Mr. HUOK subsequently became her manager. He noted that she lives at Marianna Farm, Danbury, Connecticut, but also has an apartment at 1200 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, which is also the business address of her husband, ORPHEUS FISHER, an architect. [REDACTED] continued that the appointee is acquainted with PAUL ROBESON but their differences in politics make their contacts very infrequent and superficial. He explained that Miss ANDERSON has never been involved in politics and is primarily interested in her music and in her Connecticut farm. He stated she does not approve of Mr. ROBESON's political activities or affiliation. He continued that the appointee's character, reputation, and patriotism are above reproach and she enjoys very great stature and respect. He stated her conduct on her recent goodwill tour in Asia was exemplary and her statements were non-political, which is typical of her attitude. [REDACTED] recommended Miss ANDERSON.

[REDACTED] advised that the appointee's family consists of her husband, ORPHEUS FISHER, her mother, ANNIE ANDERSON, and her two sisters, ALYSE ANDERSON and ETHEL ANDERSON DePRIEST, the latter three of which live in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

b7c
b7D

[REDACTED] American National Theatre and Academy, (ANTA), 1545 Broadway, New York, New York, stated that his knowledge of Miss ANDERSON

is purely professional but he has found her to be a person of the finest character, patriotism, and reputation. He stated she is a great person, who is charming, intelligent and dignified. He noted that ANTA has a charter from Congress in the performing arts field as an agency

Department of State for arranging tours of selected artists, which tours are subsidized to the extent that the expenses are not earned. Miss ANDERSON went on such a goodwill tour under contract to ANTA and under the auspices of the Department of State. He stated this tour covered the Far East and South East Asia and extended from September 19, 1957, to November 30, 1957. Her husband,

b7D
[redacted], accompanied her and [redacted] stated the tour was a resounding success. He stated that proof of Miss ANDERSON's patriotism and good judgment is shown in her statements during the tour in which she handled herself with dignity and restraint. He feels that her patriotism and character are of the highest and he recommended her without reservation. He noted that he had [redacted] and he could suggest no one else in this organization who would know her well.

[redacted] See It Now staff, Columbia Broadcasting System, 485 Madison Avenue, New York, New York, on May 27, 1958, advised SA [redacted] that in connection with the above show, [redacted] the appointee, her husband [redacted] on a goodwill tour of the Far East and South East Asia, sponsored by ANTA and Department of State, from approximately September to December, 1957. He stated he was closely associated with Miss ANDERSON and her husband during this period and has met them on occasions since. He was not professionally acquainted with the appointee but during the above association he found her to be an intelligent, articulate, and diplomatic individual who ably and favorably represented her country. He mentioned that she has excellent personal habits and always has complete control of her faculties. Nothing has ever come to his attention that would cause him to question the character, reputation, associations or loyalty of either Miss ANDERSON or her husband and he highly recommends her for a government position requiring tact, discretion, confidence, and undoubted patriotism.

[REDACTED] advised that Miss ANDERSON and her husband, ORPHEUS FISHER, an architect, have lived at this address for approximately the past year. He stated their home is a farm in Connecticut, but when the appointee is in New York she lives here. He estimated she spends approximately one third of her time here. He stated the FISHERS have been [REDACTED] and are well regarded by their neighbors. Their conduct is above reproach, according to [REDACTED] and he has had no reason to doubt their loyalty or character. He stated he would recognize PAUL ROBESON from newspaper publicity and he has never known ROBESON to visit Miss ANDERSON'S apartment. He considers her to be a devout person who is devoted to this country and he recommends her.

b7D

b7C
b7D [REDACTED] of the above address, [REDACTED] stated that she has known Miss ANDERSON socially for twenty years and as a neighbor for the past year or so. She also knows SOL HUOK, whom she stated has closely guided Miss ANDERSON'S career since 1934. She stated she is acquainted with WILLIAM KING who was the appointee's first accompanist in about 1923. He has not been accompanist with Miss ANDERSON since the late 1920's. She stated she does not know KING well but has never had reason to question his patriotism or character. In her opinion, Miss ANDERSON is extremely devoted to her career as a contralto singer and is most anxious to use her talent to further the best interests of this country. She stated there is no question as to the appointee's associations or patriotism and she is positive that Miss ANDERSON has had no social contacts with PAUL ROBESON. She stated they have nothing in common except their music. She highly recommends the appointee.

b7D [REDACTED], of the above address, a housewife, stated she has known Miss ANDERSON and her husband as neighbors for about the past year. She occasionally visits in the FISHER apartment and has had the opportunity to discuss political ideology with Miss ANDERSON. She stated that the latter expressed a strong loyalty to this country and is anxious to use her talent to further the foreign policies important to this country. She stated the character, conduct, reputation, and associates of the appointee and her husband are above reproach and she has never known PAUL ROBESON to be associated with Miss ANDERSON. She recommends the appointee as an extremely loyal American, a very devout person, and one who would be well qualified for a position of trust.

b7D [REDACTED], of the above address, [REDACTED], advised she has known the appointee as a neighbor and social acquaintance for the past year and has closely followed her career for the past thirty years. She stated WILLIAM KING, the appointee's accompanist during the early days of her career, is presently the organist at St. Luke's Church in New York City. She stated she has no reason to question KING and has never known Miss ANDERSON to be associated with PAUL ROBESON except to have possibly appeared on the same program with him. She characterized Miss ANDERSON and her husband as loyal citizens of good character, reputation, and associates and recommends Miss ANDERSON without hesitation.

b7D [REDACTED], of the above address, a housewife, stated she has known Miss ANDERSON for the past ten years and highly recommends her in every respect. She stated the appointee's patriotism, character, demeanor, and associates are above reproach.

On May 9 and 13, 1958, SA [REDACTED] caused the records of the New York City Police Department to be checked by [REDACTED], Bureau of Criminal Identification; Acting [REDACTED], Information Unit; [REDACTED], Old Record Room (all of the above are of the New York City Police Department); [REDACTED], Fingerprint Bureau, Magistrate's Court, City of New York. No record was located concerning the appointee or her husband as named above.

Miscellaneous

b7D

[REDACTED] New York, on May 27, 1958, advised SA [REDACTED] that he has known the appointee on a social basis as well as a [REDACTED] basis from ten to fifteen years, but stated he is not intimately associated with her. He stated Miss ANDERSON has good traits, is very tactful, and very dignified, and makes a good impression. He stated Miss ANDERSON and PAUL ROBESON have nothing in common except their music and he doubts very much if there has been any association between them. He stated he would recommend the appointee without hesitation in regard to character, patriotism, and suitability for a position of trust.

[REDACTED] New York, on May 27, 1958, advised SA [REDACTED] she has known Miss ANDERSON for the past twenty-five years and considers her one of her best friends. She characterized the appointee as a great human being as well as an artist of international stature. In addition, she stated Miss ANDERSON has a deeply rooted belief in freedom and democracy, is a deeply religious person, and is incapable of resentment or anger. [REDACTED] stated she has never heard any personal criticism of the.

appointee and Miss ANDERSON is humorous, outgoing, warm, and of unquestioned patriotism and integrity. She stated further that Miss ANDERSON furthered good relations in all the countries she visited on her recent g ill tour and her warmth, affection, and generosity were obvious to all. In her estimation the appointee is always gracious and responsive to the simplest people as well as to world-famous individuals and she feels the appointee is an excellent choice for a government position requiring tact, responsibility, and trust or confidence. She stated Miss ANDERSON knew PAUL ROBESON several years ago but has had no contact with him for many years. She explained that Miss ANDERSON feels that ROBESON'S way of thinking is no way of accomplishing good and she was never a friend of him. Further, Miss ANDERSON feels badly about ROBESON'S political activity and has felt that her job as an artist is to sing and not to be affiliated with any organization. [REDACTED] added that she never knew WILLIAM KING and has never had reason to doubt any of the appointee's associates.

[REDACTED]

New York, [REDACTED], advised SA [REDACTED] on May 27, 1958, that he has been on a joint program with the appointee a few times but has had little association with her. He considers her to be a gracious lady concerning whom he has never heard any unfavorable information. He stated he has had no reason to question her patriotism, integrity, or character and he has no reason to think that her associates have ever been other than loyal Americans. He stated he recalls one WILLIAM KING, who was a piano accompanist. He stated that he has never recalled him playing for the appointee. He stated he has not heard of KING for years. He stated he is insufficiently acquainted with Miss ANDERSON to enable him to comment in detail but has no reason to think that she would not be qualified for a government position.

On May 28, 1958, SA [REDACTED] caused the records of the Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, to be checked by [REDACTED]. No record was located concerning the appointee, as named in the title of this report, or for ORPHEUS HODGE FISHER.

Records of the Board of Elections, Borough of Manhattan, as checked on May 28, 1958, reflected no information concerning the appointee or her husband, at 1200 5th Avenue, New York, New York, for the years 1950 through 1957.

A number of confidential informants, who are familiar with certain phases of Communist Party activities in the New York area, were contacted during May, 1958. They can supply no information concerning appointee, as named in the title of this report, or concerning ORPHEUS HODGE FISHER.

An article entitled "How It's Done" in the February 27, 1942 edition of "P.M.", a former New York daily newspaper, reflects that the Dies Committee lists the Marian Anderson Citizens Committee as a Communist front group. The article went on to say that this Committee was formed in the Spring of 1939 after the Daughters of the American Revolution had denied Miss ANDERSON the right to appear in Constitution Hall in Washington. It related that the Committee sponsored her appearance at the Lincoln Memorial there.

An article on page 3, column 3, of the September 17, 1941 "Daily Worker" identified Miss MARIAN ANDERSON as Co-Chairman of the Citizens Emergency Conference for Inter-Racial Unity. This article also states that "A widely representative executive committee of the conference includes..... Dr. Max Yergan, Council on African Affairs."

The "Daily Worker" of April 22, 1947, described MAX YERGAN as Executive Director of the Council on African Affairs.

Information concerning the Council on African Affairs has been set out above.

The "Daily Worker" is a former East Coast Communist daily newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

b2, b7D
New York [redacted] who is not available for recontact in January, 1946, made available a letter on the stationery of the American Committee for Spanish Freedom. On the rear of this letterhead stationery appears a list of sponsors of the organization and this list contains the name "Marian Anderson" not further identified.

The American Committee for Spanish Freedom has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

New York [redacted] advised in January, 1946, that the Council on African Affairs held a mass meeting on January 7, 1946, at the Abyssinian Baptist Church, 138th Street, near Seventh Avenue, New York City. Two to three thousand people were present and one of the speakers was Miss MARION ANDERSON. - New York [redacted] continued that Miss ANDERSON said the audience, as members of her race, should stand by the Council on African Affairs and support it with contributions of money and foodstuff. The informant also said PAUL ROBESON sang 3 numbers and asked the audience for complete support of the Council.

b2
New York [redacted] was recontacted on May 28, 1958, and could furnish no additional information concerning the above meeting or Miss ANDERSON.

See p 3 Robeson Doc.
An article entitled "ROBESON, ANDERSON Pack 'Aid to Africa' Meeting", on page 40, columns 1 and 2, of the January 12, 1946 edition of "The Peoples Voice", a New York newspaper, reflects that MARIAN ANDERSON and PAUL ROBESON addressed a meeting sponsored by the Council on African Affairs at the Abyssinian Baptist Church on the previous Monday night. This article stated that MAX YERGAN, founder and executive director of the Council, addressed the meeting. The article went on to say that "Miss MARIAN ANDERSON received a standing ovation that lasted for several minutes before she was allowed to speak. After declaring that she wanted to go to Africa in the near future, she said she knew the audience would 'give until there was no more to give for the suffering South Africans'"... "PAUL ROBESON was the climax speaker and he had the audience hanging on his every word."

The Honorable
The Secretary of State
Washington 25, D. C.

My dear Mr. Secretary:

In accordance with the request of Mr. Roderic L. O'Connor, in his letter dated April 30, 1958, an investigation has been conducted by this Bureau of Marian Anderson, also known as Mrs. Orpheus Hodge Fisher. The results of this investigation are contained in the enclosed summary memorandum.

It is noted Miss Anderson reportedly resided abroad from 1929 to 1935. Inasmuch as this Bureau has no facilities for conducting investigations overseas, the enclosed summary memorandum contains only the results of the inquiries conducted in the United States.

The investigation of Miss Anderson covered inquiries as to her character, loyalty, general standing and ability, but no inquiries were made as to the sources of her income.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Honorable Sherman Adams
The Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Adams:

By letter dated April 30, 1958, Mr. Roderic L. O'Connor of the Department of State requested an investigation of Marian Anderson, also known as Mrs. Orpheus Hodge Fisher. Mr. O'Connor advised it is proposed to recommend to the President that Miss Anderson be appointed to a top-level position in the Department of State.

The results of this investigation are reflected in the enclosed summary memorandum, a copy of which is being furnished to the Secretary of State.

It is noted Miss Anderson reportedly resided abroad from 1929 to 1935. Inasmuch as this Bureau has no facilities for conducting investigations overseas, the enclosed summary memorandum contains only the results of the inquiries conducted in the United States.

The investigation of Miss Anderson covered inquiries as to her character, loyalty, general standing and ability, but no inquiries were made as to the sources of her income.

meeting to be held on November 20, 1947. The American Council for a Democratic Greece has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The June 5, 1945, issue of the "Norwalk Hour," a newspaper in Norwalk, Connecticut, contained an article reflecting that an organizational meeting of the Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions was held on June 4, 1945. The article stated, in part, that a telegram of greeting from Marjori Anderson, the noted singer, was read. The Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions was cited as a communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities in its report dated April 1, 1951.

A confidential informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in 1945 that the name Marian Anderson, RFD 1, Danbury, Connecticut, was on the mailing list of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated, which was utilized in sending out the publication entitled the "Southern Patriot." This informant pointed out that many persons carried on this mailing list had not subscribed to the paper of their own accord. A confidential informant* who has furnished reliable information in the past and who has some knowledge of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated, and the Southern Conference for Human Welfare, advised that the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated, was originally an adjunct of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare prior to its demise in 1948. This informant stated the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated, continued as a separate and independent organization, stressing the fact that it was nonpolitical in nature. Continuing, this informant stated it has devoted its efforts primarily to race relations, campaigning against discrimination and segregation and, further, that the principal leaders of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated, were the same as those of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare. In conclusion, this informant advised that the Communist Party was interested in infiltrating and controlling the Southern Conference for Human Welfare, but it has given little indication of interest in the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated.

Marian Anderson

The Southern Conference for Human Welfare has been cited by the Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, as a communist-front organization "which seeks to attract ~~and~~ liberals on the basis of its seeming interest in the problems of the South," although its "professed interest in southern welfare is simply an expedient for larger aims serving the Soviet Union and its subservient Communist Party in the United States."

The Communist Party, USA, has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Southern Patriot" was cited as an organ of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, in its report dated June 12, 1945.

A confidential informant[†] who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available in January, 1946, a letter on the stationery of the American Committee for Spanish Freedom. A list of sponsors of this organization appears on this stationery and this list contains the name Marian Anderson, not further identified. The American Committee for Spanish Freedom has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Another confidential informant[†] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in January, 1946, that the Council on African Affairs held a mass meeting on January 7, 1946, in New York City and that one of the speakers was Miss Marion Anderson. This informant continued that Miss Anderson said that the audience, as members of her race, should stand by the Council on African Affairs and support it with contributions of money and food. This informant also said Paul Robeson sang and asked the audience for complete support of the council. The Council on African Affairs has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Another confidential informant^{††} who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 3, 1955, that the Council on African Affairs dissolved in June, 1955, and, at the time of dissolution, Paul Robeson was chairman of the organization.

Another confidential informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1944, that Paul Robeson's Communist Party name was John Thomas.

Associates of Miss Anderson's, who have been acquainted with her for a number of years, advised that she has had no social contacts with Paul Robeson and they have nothing in common except their music. They further advised she disapproves of his political activities.

By letter dated April 30, 1958, Mr. Roderic L. O'Connor of the Department of State requested an investigation of the above-captioned individual. Mr. O'Connor advised it is proposed to recommend to the President that Miss Anderson be appointed to a top-level position in the Department of State.

The results of this investigation are reflected in the enclosed summary memorandum, copies of which are being furnished to the Honorable Sherman Adams and the Secretary of State.

It is noted Miss Anderson reportedly resided abroad from 1929 to 1935. Inasmuch as this Bureau has no facilities for conducting investigations overseas, the enclosed summary memorandum contains only the results of the inquiries conducted in the United States.

The investigation of Miss Anderson covered inquiries as to her character, loyalty, general standing and ability, but no inquiries were made as to the sources of her income.

Summary

In response to your name check request, you are referred to a memorandum concerning Marian Anderson, also known as Mrs. Orpheus Hodge Fisher which was furnished to your agency on June 13, 1958.
(77-78164)

Subsequent to this information, FBI files reveal that in the May 30, 1960, issue of "The Washington Daily News" there was an article regarding a speech made by Premier Fidel Castro at Havana the previous evening. There was also a photograph in connection with this article showing Premier Castro talking with the singer, Marian Anderson, who was presented on a TV concert prior to Castro's speech.

(109-12-210-A 5-30-60, Washington Daily News)

Information was received at the Bureau in July, 1959, that Marian Anderson, along with a number of other prominent individuals was included on the mailing list of an organization known as Gensuikyo, American name, Japan Council for Prohibition of Atomic and Hydrogen Bombs. This organization has been described by a source as a communist infiltrated organization in Japan.

SUMMARY
Mrs. Orpheus Hodge Fisher, who you advised resides with her husband at Marianna Farm, Joe's Hill Road, Danbury, Connecticut, and is known professionally as Marian Anderson, was the subject of an applicant-type investigation conducted by the FBI during 1958. The results of that inquiry were summarized in a communication dated June 13, 1958, a copy of which is attached. (77-78164)

This Bureau received information during July, 1959, that the name of Marian Anderson, along with the names of a number of other prominent individuals, was included on the mailing list of an organization known as Gensuikyo, also known as the Japan Council for Prohibition of Atomic and Hydrogen Bombs. Gensuikyo has been described as a communist-infiltrated organization in Japan.

The May 30, 1960, issue of "The Washington Daily News" contained an article regarding a speech made by Premier Fidel Castro at Havana. A photograph accompanied the article showing Premier Castro talking with the singer, Marian Anderson, who was presented on a television concert prior to Castro's speech.

The central files of the FBI contain no additional pertinent information identifiable with captioned individuals.

The fingerprint files of the Identification Division of the FBI contain no arrest data identifiable with captioned individuals based upon background information submitted in connection with this name check request.
