With reference to this point pertaining to the HARRY BRIDGES Case, DONALD HISS was interviewed February 9, 1949, at his office, Room 710, Union Trust Building, 15th and H Streets, N.W., Washington, D.C., by Special agents [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. In addition to the agents and DONALD HISS, there was also present a [REDACTED] apparently Counsel to Mr. HISS.

b7C

On the occasion of this interview February 9, 1949, agents advised Mr. HISS the sole purpose of the interview was to discuss with him his connection with the HARRY BRIDGES hearing in 1937 and 1938. He thereupon stated that he had testified concerning this matter fully under oath while before the Grand Jury in New York City and he felt there was no necessity of discussing it again. He added, however, that if agents had any specific questions to ask him concerning the matter which had not been discussed before the Grand Jury in New York, he would be glad to answer them. He was then advised by agents that since his testimony before the Grand Jury in New York was not available, there was no way of knowing what he had testified to, and therefore, no specific questions could be directed to him. At this point,
