Re: Records of International Police
Commission

Dear Sir:

Germany - J. I. Meach

Reference is made to your letter dated August 10, 1945, in the entitled matter, instructing this office to ascertain what disposition is planned regarding the records of the International Police Commission which have been discovered in Berlin.

Prior to the receipt of reference letter, these records had already been examined by Special Agent JOHN I. CONDON of this office. These records were examined with the assistance of PAUL SPIELHAGEN, who resides at Bismarck Str. 1, Berlin-Wannsee. SPIELHAGEN has been associated with the International Police Commission for the past four years and prior thereto was a criminal inspector of the Criminal Police in Berlin.

These records are maintained at the headquarters of the International Criminal Police Commission, am Kleinen Wannsee 16, Berlin-Wannsee. They are presently maintained in a small garage, inasmuch as the main building of the Commission is presently being used as billets for American troops. According to SPIELHAGEN, the headquarters of the International Criminal Police Commission was moved to Berlin from Vienna in April, 1941.

Formerly the criminal police of thirty-six different countries were members of the International Criminal Police Commission. The Commission served as a clearance house for international criminals. Accordingly when a criminal was wanted in a certain country, the criminal police of that country forwarded identifying information to the Commission in an effort to effect the criminal's apprehension. Upon furnishing a name to the Commission to be placed on a wanted list, the contributing agency was supposed to furnish a description of the wanted individual, together with his fingerprints and picture. Upon the receipt of this information a number was designated for the wanted person and a summary of the identifying material was printed and circulated to all countries that were members of the International Criminal Police Commission.

EX - 32

RECORDED & INDEXED 74-1 sub 2061

According to SPIELHAGEN there are approximately 17,000 different persons listed in these indices, who are wanted in various countries. The greater part of this list, however, includes neither photographs nor fingerprints of the individuals who are wanted. There are only approximately 2000 alleged criminals who are positively identified by means of fingerprints and photographs. SPIELHAGEN related that most countries would send in the name of a criminal who was wanted without furnishing either fingerprints or photographs and usually only furnishing a very sparse personal description. Examination of various cards in the indices substantiated this statement. Many of these cards indicate merely the name of the criminal and the agency desiring his apprehension.

SPIELHAGEN pointed out that since the outbreak of War in 1939 the compilation of criminal records has been retarded. He estimated that since 1941 only about 200 wanted notices had been received from all countries. Of this number approximately 100 had been distributed to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It was noted, from an examination of some of these cards, that wanted notices had been forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, after the entry of the United States into the war.

The fingerprint cards that are available are of a smaller size than the standard Bureau fingerprint card. It is also noted that according to SPIELHAGEN, the Henry system of fingerprint classification was not used. SPIELHAGEN further related that practically all the information contained in the records of the International Police Commission had been furnished the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the form of wanted circulars.

SPIELHAGEN appeared very cooperative and, according to L. DE NEUFVILLE of OSS Berlin, is completely trustworthy. He appeared well-informed on police matters and interested in police records and identification systems. He is very familiar with the various records of the International Criminal Police Commission and has been responsible for placing these records in the proper order.

SPIELHAGEN furnished a copy of a pamphlet entitled, "Die Internationale Kriminalpolizeiliche Kommission und Ihr Werk". This pamphlet, written in German, explains the functions of the Commission and appears to have been published in 1943. He also furnished a pamphlet in English entitled, "The International Criminal Police", dated at Vienna, October 15, 1940.

In addition SPIELHAGEN furnished a number of photostats pertaining to the Commission and its work. All this material is being forwarded to the Bureau for examination.

With regard to the disposition of these records, Special Agent GANDON consulted Col. R. W. CHAMBERLIN, Deputy Director of Public Safety Division, USGCC, who is responsible for the ultimate disposition of these records. According to Col. CHAMBERLIN, it is his present plan to maintain these records at the present site, pending the proposed establishment of a Central Identification Bureau for Germany. In the event that such a Bureau is established, these records will probably be made available to such a Bureau. Col. CHAMBERLIN emphasized, however, that the records would not be destroyed in the event that such a Bureau were not established. If the Federal Bureau of Investigation should be interested in these records, Col. CHAMBERLIN stated that the records would be available to the Bureau. It is his personal opinion, however, that

Director, FBI
1 September 1945
Re: Records of International Police Commission

these records are not very valuable and that the Bureau, in all probability, would not be interested in having them forwarded to Washington. Before any disposition of these records is made, Col. CHAMBERLIN has assured this office that we would be advised.

It is the personal opinion of Special Agent CONDON that these records could prove of little value to the Bureau, and that it would be impractical to attempt to ship them to Washington. It is requested that if the Bureau desires any specific information concerning these records, that such information be furnished this office.

No further action in this matter is contemplated at the present time.

Very truly yours,

Frederick Ayer Jr

A newspaper release dated August 2, 1945 appearing in "The New York Daily PM" referred to the finding of records of the International Police Commission by United States Army authorities in Berlin. A letter was directed to the Bureau's Office in Germany for information concerning these records. The reply is attached.

The files apparently are most incomplete because in most instances neither photographs nor fingerprints are included. As a matter of fact according to Special Agent John I. Condon who examined these files, there are only approximately 2,000 alleged criminals who are positively identified by means of fingerprints and photographs. As indicated, the Deputy Director of Public Safety Division, USGCC, is responsible for the ultimate disposition of these records. He has indicated that his present plan is to maintain these records in their present location pending the proposed establishment of a Central Identification Bureau for Germany. He added that when such a bureau is established, these records would probably be available to the Bureau. In any event the records will be preserved from destruction.

Formerly the criminal police of thirty-six different countries were members of the International Criminal Police Commission. The Commission served as a clearance house for international criminals. Accordingly when a criminal was wanted in a certain country, the criminal police of that country forwarded identifying information to the Commission in an effort to effect the criminal's apprehension. Upon furnishing a name to the Commission to be placed on a wanted list, the contributing agency was supposed to furnish a description of the wanted individual, together with his fingerprints and picture. Upon the receipt of this information a number was designated for the wanted person and a summary of the identifying material was printed and circulated to all countries that were members of the International Criminal Police Commission. The headquarters of the International Criminal Police Commission were in Vienna, Austria until April, 1941 when they were moved to Berlin.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that this material be referred to the Identification Division and the Training and Inspection Division for examination. Special Agent Condon, who examined the records in Germany, has expressed the belief that these records would be of little value to the Bureau, and that in his opinion it would be impractical to ship them to Washington, D. C. He suggests, however, that if any further information is desired concerning them a request be directed to the Berlin Office.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

The Executive Conference, consisting of Messrs. Tolson E. A. Tamm, Ladd, Nichols, Glavin, Hendon, Rosen, Morgan, Long and Tracy on October 9, 1945, considered the matter of the International Police Commission.

The Director will recall the International Police Commission was moved from Vienna to Berlin in 1941, at which time the Executive Conference recommended to the Director no further communication be had with the organization. This recommendation was approved.

Special Agent John I. Condon, presently in Berlin, has examined the records of the International Police Commission now in custody of the United States Army authorities. He advised there are approximately 2,000 alleged criminals who are positively identified by fingerprints and photographs, that however, the files for the most part are incomplete in that neither photographs or fingerprints are included. Thirty-six countries were members of the International Police Commission and the Commission served as a clearing house for international criminals. Special Agent Condon advised the Army is responsible for the ultimate disposition of the records stating that when a Central Identification Bureau for Germany is established the International Police Commission records would probably be made available to the Bureau.

The Executive Conference was unanimously of the opinion that the records would serve no useful purpose to the Bureau, and if you agree Special Agent Condon will be so advised.

Respectfully,
For the Conference

Reference is made to the Executive Conference memorandum to the Director dated October 10, 1945, which reported the action of the conference on the records of the International Police Commission. It will be recalled that these records were discovered in Berlin and that our Agents there advised us that they might be available at a later date to the Bureau if the Bureau desired to receive them. The conference decided that the records would serve no useful purpose for the Bureau and suggested that Special Agent Condon, who was in charge of our office in Germany, be so advised.

Since our Agents had already been recalled from Germany when this action was taken, it was not possible to wire Condon.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is believed that no further action in this matter is necessary unless further inquiry is received from Army authorities, at which time they can be advised of the Bureau's position in the matter.

There is attached a copy of a memorandum prepared by Mr. Burnett of the State Department to Mr. Neal, also of the State Department, dated December 3, 1945, which has as its enclosure a proposed draft to be released by the State Department as a part of the manual of International Organizations. As can be noted, the State Department desires certain information from the Bureau concerning the International Criminal Police Commission so that the attached draft may be completed within the near future. In making this material available to the writer, Mr. Neal asked that it be referred to the appropriate Bureau officials and that if possible, the desired information supplied.

If you concur, it is suggested that this memorandum, with its attachments, be referred to Division 4, Crime Records Section, so that the State Department's inquiries may be complied with. The Liaison Section should be supplied with such information as might be available, together with the attached original proposed draft for return to the State Department.

Re: International Criminal Police Commission

I With reference to your inquiry concerning the contribution made to the International Criminal Police Commission by the United States Government, please be advised that no data is available indicating that actual payment was made.

II With reference to your inquiry as to (a) what the annual budget of the Commission was, typically, for about 5-10 years, or for any year for which figures are available, (b) what the basis of allocation was for members' quotas, and (c) what members' assessments were during several typical years, please be advised that there is no available information in our possession concerning this matter.

III With reference to the titles of any publications issued by the Commission, you may be interested to know that a publication entitled "International Criminal Police" has been described as the only official organ of the International Criminal Police Commission. The Commission has also issued a special publication in English entitled "International Public Safety." Another special publication in German has been issued by the Commission entitled "Erkennungsgesichtserkennung und gefälschter Banknoten und anderer Werte."

IV With reference to the present status of the Commission, available information indicates that the records of the Commission were discovered in Berlin during the past year. It will be recalled that the International Criminal Police Commission was moved from Vienna to Berlin in 1941.

Dear Sir and Colleague,

I take the liberty of writing to you a matter which may interest you professionally. I have had the pleasure of meeting you in summer 1943, on the occasion of King Peter's visit to the "E.P.W." I accompanied then King Peter as Under-Secretary of the Yugoslav Ministry of Home Affairs.

I consider that the moment has come to RENEW the existence of THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL POLICE COMMISSION which organisation, as you are no doubt aware, had its headquarters in Vienna. I do not know whether you have read at the time my report at the X. meetings of "I.C.P.C." in connection with the seat of the organisation/X. Session, report No. 22./-. I considered that it was not opportune to have the headquarters of such important organisation situated in the offices of a local police, as in Vienna. I asked for the emendement of the statute so that our headquarters should be transferred, together with the broadcasting station, to GENEVE to be in CLOSE CONTACT WITH THE "LEAGUE OF NATIONS. The matter was not decided upon until the outbreak of the war. Opinions were divided: western countries with the Balkans were in favour of my proposal; while should remain in China.

Germany, Italy, Austria/Hungary/Hungary insisted that the organisation

I consider it necessary that this question should be raised again as soon as possible and a new decision passed in the course of this year. This time old mistakes should be avoided and the new reorganised International Criminal Police should be attached to "~~THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATION~~" - in New York. This will be the only way of enabling such an international organization to function properly and to direct the work of all police organisations the world.

I understand from my friend Mr. Ronald ~~HOWE~~, Deputy Commissioner of Scotland Yard, that you have already taken certain steps in this direction. I should like to tell you that I am very glad that you have done so and, as a member of the International Criminal Police Commission, I congratulate you.

I should also like to tell you that I have had recently a letter from the Secretary General of "~~The International Academy of Criminologists~~", Dr. Benigno ~~di TULLIO~~, professor of Rome University /Piazza Cavour, 25 - ROMA/, who succeeded professor Enrico FERRI, suggesting a meeting between a few Criminologists as soon as possible. At this meeting we could restart the extinct Commission which had its first Congress in Rome 1938. It was decided then that the second Congress should be held in San Francisco. Dr. di Tullio still thinks that the Congress should be held as suggested.

The two organisations should work jointly which was our intention when the second organisation was created.

In the meantime I am contemplating with a number of other Criminologists /di Tullio too/ to start a journal to be called "CRIMINAL ARCHIVE". I have already taken steps to interest a number of publishers in the world. If this idea is materialised we should be able to bring in touch world's Criminologists. I hope that YOU would see your way of enabling me to follow the development of Criminology in your part of the World. I have already secured the consent of a number of leading Criminologists to form an honorary editorial committee and I venture to hope that you would also do us the honour to join this committee, provided of course I succeed to start the paper.

I'm the hope of hearing from you soon.

Sincerely yours,

The attached letter concerning the International Criminal Police Division was addressed to the Director from Vladeta Milicevic, who describes himself as former Yugoslav Minister, apparently to London. He refers to a meeting with the Director in 1943 on the occasion of the visit of King Peter of Yugoslavia to the FBI. He states that at that time he was Under-Secretary of the Yugoslav Minister of Home Affairs.

In this letter Milicevic reviews some of the history of the International Criminal Police Division and speaks of his efforts prior to the war to have the headquarters moved from Vienna to Geneva. He indicates that at the present time he feels that the organization should be attached to the United Nations Organization in New York City. He speaks of conferring with Mr. Ronald Howe, Deputy Commissioner of Scotland Yard, whom he quotes as saying that the Director has already taken certain steps "in this direction." Milicevic also reveals a plan that he has to start a journal to be called "Criminal Archive" and he indicates that he is attempting to interest a number of leading criminologists in this idea. He asks that the Director consent to joining an honorary editorial committee for this new journal.

You will recall that the International Criminal Police Commission was one with which the Bureau had some correspondence prior to the war. It was an organization over which the Bureau had little or no control and it was recently learned that during the war the records of the Commission were moved from Vienna to Berlin. These records were located there in 1945, were examined by an Agent of this Bureau, and found to be most incomplete. I believe that prior to acknowledging the attached communication we should inquire from our office in London as to the identity of this individual, his contacts with Scotland Yard and find out just who his associates are.

Reference is made to my memorandum to you dated March 22, 1946, captioned as above. You will recall that a wire was attached to this memorandum addressed to our office in London with a request that that office furnish information concerning Vladeta Milicevic who recently wrote the Director concerning the International Criminal Police Commission.

A wire has now been received from our London Office indicating that Milicevic is actually a member of this Police Commission but that he had misquoted Deputy Commissioner Howe of Scotland Yard in his letter to the Director. According to Agent Cimperman, Milicevic has no authority for his plan as outlined which envisages the attachment of the National Criminal Police Commission to the United Nations Organization. Cimperman added that Milicevic is apparently attempting to create a job for himself.

Under the circumstances, I believe that an evasive acknowledgment should be sent him in response to his letter to the Director.

ACTION:

Attached is a brief letter of acknowledgment for Miss Gandy's signature indicating that the Director is absent from the city and that the matter will be referred to him upon his return.

RE: INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL
POLICE COMMISSION

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau cable dated March 23, 1946, and my reply dated March 25, 1946, concerning Viadeta Milicevic, former Yugoslavian Minister now in London, and who is presently campaigning to have the International Criminal Police Commission attached to UNO in New York.

In addition to the information contained in my reply of March 25, 1946, this is to advise that Ronald Howe, Deputy Commissioner of New Scotland Yard, stated that the International Criminal Police Commission has been in existence for the past thirty years or more. This commission, according to Howe, is represented by high police officials of practically every police department in all the countries on the Continent. The commission has been meeting yearly and was principally inaugurated for the purpose of having direct liaison with each other in order to stimulate investigations and, generally, to make certain that matters in which the police departments of one country are interested and which have some connection with individuals in other countries, will be investigated by the police in that country without the usual or customary delay, and also that they might not possibly be ignored entirely.

Mr. Howe also stated that since all official matters are handled directly by the various members of the commission, no large staff is required and since it is composed of high ranking officials, replies to inquiries and requests for investigations are certain to be handled. He also stated that the commission plans on holding a meeting on June 3, 1946, in Brussels, Belgium, and has assured in the event the Bureau would like to become a member of this commission he will be only too glad to forward to the Bureau the necessary invitations.

I would appreciate being advised whether the Bureau is interested in this proposal and, if so, further arrangements will be made with Mr. Howe for an invitation.

You are also aware that there is considerable recent correspondence regarding the International Criminal Police Commission which Lieutenant Colonel F. E. Louwage is attempting to re-organize. You will recall that on July 10, 1938, Congress appropriated a sum not to exceed $1500.00, annually to accept and maintain membership in the International Criminal Police Commission. This amount is still in the Bureau's appropriations. Mr. Cimperman was advised that because of the ideological confusion existing in the world the Bureau would not participate in this organization at this time. A letter has been sent to Mr. Telford in Paris requesting him to contact Louwage and to discreetly learn more of the operation of this organization.

ACTION:

It is suggested that no further action be taken on this matter pending receipt of information from Mr. Horton Telford, who was requested to contact Lieutenant Colonel Louwage and discreetly learn more of the operation of the International Criminal Police Commission.

Dear Mr Hoover,

I had great pleasure in receiving your letter of April 5th 1946 which reach me only to-day. As I wrote to you before, I summoned a session of the International Commission of Criminal Police, in Brussels, on June 3rd 1946. The invitations were sent through the diplomatic representatives of Belgium and I suppose that by this time your department must have received communication of it.

November 7
D.

I attach a high importance to your presence at this meeting, owing to the paramount matters which will be discussed on this occasion. I send you herewith a copy of the provisional Order of the Day and also a project of modifications of the statutes. By reading them you will realise that these matters are of great interest for the cooperation of the body of Criminal Police all over the world, for, as mentioned to me by several chiefs of police of various countries, international crime wave is still growing higher.

EX-13

So I should be very ~~pleased~~ indeed if you get, as soon as possible, a cable from you announcing your arrival in Brussels, for this purpose. If unfortunately it would be impossible for you to attend this meeting, you could perhaps delegate, as representative for you and the U.S.A., one of your direct assistants or if not possible one of the members who are now in Europe.

Thanking you for the collaboration you will certainly attest for the struggle against international criminals, as you did during Reference is made to the communication received from Lieutenant Colonel F. E. Louwage, Inspector General of the Belgian Security of State, Permanent Recorder of the International Commission of Chiefs of Police, in which the Colonel mentions the convention called for that organization on June 3, 1946, at Brussels, Belgium. You inquired as to whether we have received an official invitation to attend that convention.

There is no record of receipt of an official invitation by the Bureau as yet. Legal Attache John A. Cimperman by letter dated April 12, 1946, advised of a conversation he had with Ronald Howe, Deputy Commissioner of New Scotland Yard, concerning the I. C. C. P. Commissioner Howe spoke very highly of the organization, referred to the meeting on June 3, 1946, and stated that in the event the Bureau would like to become a member of the commission he would be only too glad to forward to the Bureau the necessary invitation. Mr. Cimperman asked if the Bureau were interested in this proposal.

It will be recalled that the Bureau replied to a previous communication from Colonel Louwage in a letter from you dated April 5, 1946. He inquired at that time as to your views with regard to participation in the I. C. C. P. It was suggested that Attache Horton R. Telford in Paris, France, interview Colonel Louwage for further information concerning the organization. Telford has advised that he has arranged to discuss this organization in Brussels with Colonel Louwage on May 6, 1946. We have delayed answering Cimperman's request until receipt of a report from Telford on his interview.

Recommendation:

It is recommended that the reply to the latest communication from Colonel Louwage be delayed until we learn more about him from Agent Telford.

Dear Colonel Lowage:

I wish to express my appreciation to you for your letter of April 27, 1948, and for your thoughtfulness in furnishing me the copy of the provisional Order of the Day with the project for modification of the statutes to be taken up at the forthcoming convention of the International Commission of Criminal Police at Brussels on June 3rd next.

I regret to advise you that we have not as yet received an invitation through diplomatic channels to attend this convention, and that in view of the short period remaining I will be unable to attend or to designate a representative to be present. I am interested in the activities and the future of the organization, however, and would appreciate receipt of word from you as to the discussions which occur at the convention and the decisions which are reached.

I assume that you have received a visit from Attorney Horton H. Telford of the American Embassy in Paris prior to this time. I am awaiting with interest Mr. Telford's comments on his conversation with you.

Assuring you of my desire that the Federal Bureau of Investigation participate in international discussions for the improvement of criminal police work, such as will undoubtedly occur at the forthcoming convention, I remain

BACKGROUND:

Lieutenant Colonel F. E. Louwage, Inspector General of the State Security Police of Belgium, has apparently been the moving spirit behind efforts to reorganize and revitalize the International Criminal Police Commission which was dormant during the war. He has written you on several occasions and you will recall that in his last letter he mentioned the fact that a convention of the ICPC had been called for Brussels, Belgium for June 3, 1946. He indicated that invitations were being sent to various countries via diplomatic channels and he expressed the opinion that the Bureau had probably received one of these invitations. However, so far as is known this invitation was never received by the Bureau.

You instructed that in view of the brief time remaining prior to June 3 we should advise Colonel Louwage that there was not sufficient time to designate and dispatch a representative of this Bureau to the convention. Deputy Commissioner Howe of New Scotland Yard, London told Legal Attache Cimperman that he intended to attend the convention and stated that he would be glad to see to it that the Bureau received an invitation if we so desired. Agent Cimperman was likewise instructed to inform Commissioner Howe that in view of the brief time remaining the Bureau found it not possible to arrange for a representative to attend.

At the same time Attache Horton R. Telford at Paris, France, was instructed to confer with Colonel Louwage for further details concerning the ICPC. Telford interviewed Colonel Louwage in Brussels, Belgium on May 6, 1946.

DETAILS:

A letter has just been received from Telford outlining his discussion with Colonel Louwage pointing out that he as permanent Recorder of the ICPC had called the convention for June 3, and had extended invitations to former members of the Commission. Italy, Spain, the Balkan Countries, the Baltic States and Russia were not invited, however. A number of the countries invited had accepted invitations as of May 6, and it was expected that most of the remaining countries would also participate. Colonel Louwage indicated that he intended to nominate to the convention as the new president Mr. Welhaven, Norwegian Chief of Police. The latter is the only vice president of the old ICPC who is still connected with police work. With regard to Russia he explained that this country had never been a member of the Commission and that she had been refused membership in 1937. As for the other countries named above who were not invited, he explained that he did not feel that they were sufficiently well organized or independent enough to participate at this time.

Memorandum for the Director

Colonel Louwage again expressed his desire that the Bureau participate adding that he felt the complete success of the Commission would depend largely on Bureau participation. He added that if someone from the Bureau attended he would propose that that representative be elected one of the vice presidents of the Commission.

A cable has been received on this date from Agent Telford in Paris to the effect that the French delegate to the ICPC Convention had approached Colonel Ahalt, G-2 Chief in Paris, inquiring as to whether the Bureau would participate in the coming convention. He expressed a desire to consult with Agent Telford but Telford refrained from entering into this until he had heard from the Bureau. The French delegate is quoted as saying that he was extremely anxious that the Bureau take part adding that if a Bureau representative attended he would nominate this representative as the next president of the ICPC.

RECOMMENDATION:

We have already advised Colonel Louwage and London that we do not intend to participate in this convention. I believe that many of the countries participating are still in a very confused state and that the situation with regard to police work is far from crystalized. In my opinion we should abide by our previous decision because if the Bureau representative would attend it is apparent from what we have heard so far that he would quickly be placed in a prominent position in the organization whose representatives we are not familiar with and whose ideologies and backgrounds in some cases will certainly be questionable. One of the prime factors behind the anxiety to have the Bureau participate in addition to using its prestige to raise the organization's standing is probably to secure the $1500 annual contribution which would be necessary. Also while I believe Colonel Louwage is sincere in his efforts to promote the organization he very probably is also interested in establishing a permanent position for himself.

ACTION:

A cable is attached which, if approved, should be forwarded to Agent Telford in Paris instructing him to advise the French Police that we are unable to participate in the coming convention.

The real reason is that FBI has never been invited & I can't see why we equivocate. They should be told that definitely.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : THE DIRECTOR

FROM : D. M. LADD

SUBJECT: INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION OF CRIMINAL POLICE

DATE: May 6, 1946

Reference is made to my memorandum to you in this matter dated May 3, 1946, and to your inquiry as to the delay in connection with the invitation for the Bureau to attend the June 3 Convention of the International Commission of Chiefs of Police in Brussels, Belgium.

In explanation, it is pointed out that the first indication we had that the date of the convention for the reorganization of the International Commission of Chiefs of Police had been set for June 3, 1946, was contained in a cable from Legal Attache John A. Cimperman, dated April 23, 1946. Prior to that time we had only a letter from Colonel F. E. Louwage, which was dated March 14, 1946, and which was received in the Bureau on March 26th last. In this letter Colonel Louwage stated only that he had been appointed by the Belgian Minister of Justice to continue his task as delegate for Belgium in the "International Commission of Criminal Police," "which has to be reorganized." He said he was taking it upon himself to propose a meeting of the delegates of those countries in a position to appoint representatives. He asked for your remarks and suggestions concerning this reorganization.

In answer, you wrote Colonel Louwage by letter dated April 5, 1946, expressing pleasure on his appointment and telling him that we were unable to make any concrete remarks or suggestions at this time and asking for more details. At the same time we wrote Special Agent Horton Telford in Paris and asked him to interview Colonel Louwage for more information concerning his plans for the I.C.C.P. This necessitates Agent Telford traveling to Brussels, Belgium, to interview the Colonel. By cable dated May 2, 1946, Agent Telford stated that he had arranged an interview with Colonel Louwage in Brussels for May 6, 1946, which is today's date, and he promised that he would furnish the results of this interview upon his return to Paris on May 8th next.

Meanwhile, as stated above, we received a cable on April 23, 1946, from London indicating that the I.C.C.P. planned a convention in Brussels on June 3rd. Agent Cimperman followed this up with a letter which was received in the Bureau on April 29, 1946. In his letter Agent Cimperman advised that he had talked to Deputy Commissioner Ronald Howe of New Scotland Yard, who told him about the convention and the date of it and stated that he would secure an invitation for the Bureau to attend in the event you were interested.

We were holding off a reply to Agent Cimperman pending receipt of the details of Agent Telford's interview with Colonel Louwage.

Colonel Louwage's latest letter, dated April 24, 1946, was received in the Bureau on May 2, 1946. He states therein that, ^{as I wrote you before,} I, ^{was,} summoned a session of the International Commission of Criminal Police, in Brussels, on June 3, 1946. The invitations were sent to the diplomatic representatives of Belgium, and I suppose that by this time your department must have received communication of it. There is no record of receipt in the Bureau of a letter from

By reference from your office, I have received the letter addressed to you under date of May 15, 1946, by Acting Secretary of State Dean Acheson, transmitting a note from the Belgian Ambassador dated May 3, 1946, in which this Government is invited to an international conference in Brussels on June 3, 1946, for the purpose of reconstituting the International Criminal Police Commission.

I am returning herewith Mr. Acheson's letter and a proposed reply to him, for your signature, in which it is suggested that it would be undesirable for the Government of the United States to be represented at a meeting of this kind at this time.

I make this suggestion because first of all the police departments in the majority of the Continental countries have not yet been reestablished on an efficient or practical basis. In addition, I have learned through confidential police channels that invitations have not been extended to a number of countries who will, undoubtedly, protest on the basis that their participation was not invited. In the light of these circumstances, and the complicated international picture generally, I believe it would be unwise for the Government of the United States to be represented at this meeting.

EX-26

Honorable James T. Byrne,
Secretary of State,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Secretary:

I have received your letter of May 13, 1946, over the signature of Jean Johnson, Acting Secretary, with which there was transmitted a copy of a note from the Belgian Ambassador inviting this Government to participate in an international conference in Brussels on June 3, 1946, for the purpose of reconstituting the International Criminal Police Commission.

It is my studied recommendation that no representative of the Government of the United States be designated to attend this meeting. It would appear that as a result of the war the majority of the European Police Departments have not yet been sufficiently reestablished or activated to permit the undertaking of efficient police programs. In addition, I am further informed that the selection of Governments to attend this conference has been made upon a rather arbitrary basis and undoubtedly there will be protests on the part of a number of Governments because they were not invited to participate.

I do not believe that any affirmative progress will be made by such a conference at this time. In addition, I believe that the criticisms arising from the selection of countries will more than offset any possible benefit that would accrue from such a meeting. For these reasons, I believe it would be unadvisable for a representative of the Government of the United States to attend this conference.

Sincerely,

(Signed) Tom C. Clark

At the above time Mr. P. M. Burnett of the State Department called regarding the Conference of the above Commission which is to be held in Brussels on June 3, 1946. The Commission had asked the United States to send a representative to the Conference, and the State Department by memorandum to the Attorney General submitted several days ago formally advised the Attorney General of the Conference. The State Department advised that they had wired Brussels to determine whether this Commission was identical with the original Commission which was moved to Berlin by the Germans in 1939. Mr. Burnett said that information had been received that this present Commission is the same as the pre-war Commission. He also stated that the Bureau's representative in Paris, Mr. Telford, had discussed this Conference recently in Brussels and undoubtedly would advise the Bureau.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. D. M. LADD

For record purposes, it may be noted that on May 27th I returned the call of Mr. Burnett of the State Department and he advised that with reference to the International Criminal Police Commission the State Department was forwarding a note to the Ambassador of Belgium advising him that the State Department regretted that it would not be possible for the Government of the United States to designate a delegate to attend this meeting. He inquired whether the Bureau had any desires as to the wording of the letter and I told him that it should be so worded that the Government would not actually or by inference commit itself to pay the $1500.00 membership to the Police Commission.

Reference is made to your cablegram dated May 16 last in this matter.

No formal invitation was received by the Bureau to attend the convention in Brussels on June 3 next of this organization prior to May 18, 1946. At that time we were advised by the State Department that an inquiry had been made through formal diplomatic channels as to whether the Bureau would attend the convention. This may or may not be the formal invitation which Colonel Louwage referred to. In view of the long delay in receipt of the invitation, it will not be possible for the Bureau to make available anyone to represent the Bureau at the convention.

You may advise Colonel Louwage therefore that the position of the Bureau as outlined in our letter to him of May 7 cannot be altered.

Re: Lt. Colonel F. E. Louwage,
International Criminal Police
Commission.

Dear Sir:-

In compliance with Bureau instructions, the writer conferred with Lt. Col. F. E. Louwage at Brussels on May 8th regarding his plans for the re-organization of the International Criminal Police Commission.

Lt. Col. Louwage advised that he had, as permanent Recorder of the Commission, extended invitations to the June 3rd conference at Brussels to former members of the Commission. Italy, Spain, the Balkan Countries, the Baltic States and Russia have not been invited. The following countries thus far have accepted the invitation and will send delegates:

Scotland Yard - Delegate, Mr. Howe, Assistant Commissioner of Police, Director, Criminal Investigation Division.

Switzerland - Colonel Muller, Chief of Police, Basel, Switzerland.

Norway - Mr. Telhaven, Chief of Police at Oslo.

Holland - Mr. de Balecourt, Director General, Holland Police. Will be accompanied by two assistants.

Belgium - Lt. Colonel F. E. Louwage, Inspector General, State Security Police; Mr. Leemans, Commissioner General of Criminal Police; and Mr. Franssens, Chief Commissioner of Criminal Police at Brussels.

Sweden - Dr. Soderman, Chief of College of Criminal Police at Stockholm.

France - Mr. Ducloux, Director, Criminal Police Service of the Surete Nationale.

Denmark - Mr. K. Bergtrup-Hansen, Chief of State Police, Copenhagen, and Mr. F.C.U. de Magius, Director of State Police, Copenhagen.

Portugal - Captain Agostino Lourenco, Director of International Police and State Defence at Lisbon.

Re: Lt. Col. F. E. Louwage

5-10-46

Czechoslovakia - Mr. Frantisek Vyhnanovsky, Chief, Public Safety
Section, Prague.

Lt. Col. Louwage pointed out that the invitations were delayed in being sent out and he has not as yet received replies from the following countries but anticipates that at least half of them will reply favorably and send delegates: Turkey, Ireland, Chile, China, Egypt, Ecuador, Greece, Yugoslavia, Luxembourg and Poland.

Lt. Col. Louwage proposes to nominate to the conference as the new President the only Vice-President who is still connected with police work, namely, Mr. Melhaven, Norwegian Chief of Police. With regard to Russia, this country has never been a member of the Commission. In 1937 they requested membership which was declined by the Commission. However, should a delegate at the Brussels meeting propose that Russia be invited such a proposal would, of course, have to be considered and voted on. He does not feel that Italy, occupied countries, the Balkans and Baltic States are sufficiently well organized and independent enough to participate in the Commission at this time. With respect to Germany and Austria, he feels that no attempt should be made through the military authorities of the four occupying powers to participate in the Commission and that eventually the Commission should consider dealing directly with the local German and Austrian Police.

With regard to the constitution, Lt. Col. Louwage has proposed certain modifications to the present statutes, copies of which are enclosed herewith. The Commission, of course, will entertain any other statutory changes proposed by any of the members.

Lt. Col. Louwage is most anxious that the Bureau actively participate in the Commission, feeling that the complete success of the Commission will depend largely on Bureau participation. He is convinced that the other American nations, including Canada, will become members provided the United States takes part. If the Bureau decides to send a representative to the conference, Lt. Col. Louwage indicated his intention to propose the Bureau representative as one of the Vice-Presidents of the Commission.

At the coming session of the Commission, new officers will be elected, headquarters established and the Commission will proceed to function on the same basis as before the war. Lt. Col. Louwage pointed out that the Commission functioned very effectively heretofore and was instrumental in facilitating the apprehension of innumerable international criminals. Thus far Lt. Col. Louwage has been successful in finding some of the records of the Commission in Germany and has now in his possession at Brussels the files of some 4,000 criminals. He believes that through the cooperation of the member nations the central depository can be built up as it was before the war through the re-submission of information furnished the Commission at its headquarters.

Director, FBI

Re: Lt. Col. F. E. Louwage

5-10-48

Lt. Col. Louwage emphasized the importance of re-organizing the Commission as soon as possible so that it can begin functioning again without further delay. He feels that with the increased facilities of communication now available to criminals the work of the Commission in the dissemination of information will be more and more essential.

Lt. Col. Louwage made special mention of the importance of keeping the Commission completely divorced from political matters. He anticipates no difficulty in this regard. The primary function of the Commission is to disseminate information regarding common law crimes, and will not accept or distribute information on political refugees, exiles, etc.

If the Bureau decides to participate in the coming conference at Brussels on June 3rd, any proposals or modifications of statutes, etc. should be submitted to Lt. Col. Louwage as soon as possible in order that they might be translated and included on the agenda.

The writer was very well received by Lt. Col. Louwage and he spoke in the highest terms of the Director and the FBI.

There is enclosed herewith a copy of a circular listing hotels and restaurants available to delegates in Brussels, as well as information regarding the exchange of information on criminal police matters between the national bureaus and the international bureau, which have not previously been sent to the Bureau.

In the event the Bureau decides to participate in the Commission, it is suggested that this office be notified by cablegram in order that Lt. Col. Louwage might be so advised as soon as possible.

RE: INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL POLICE
COMMISSION

Dear Sir:

I refer to Bureau cablegram of May 16, 1946, informing me that since the Bureau has not yet received an official invitation to attend the convention of the Commission at Brussels on June 3rd it cannot designate a representative and would not accept an invitation at this late date.

Lt. Col. LOUWAGE informed me as to the cause of the delay in issuing the invitations via diplomatic channels. He sent the invitations in good time to the Belgian Foreign Office, but due to the cabinet crisis about that time, they were overlooked, and he discovered some weeks later that they had not gone forward. However, he stated that they were subsequently sent and would be received momentarily.

On May 22, 1946, I consulted with Monsieur DESVAUX, Director of the Judicial Police (criminal matters) at Paris. I was exceedingly well received. He reviewed briefly the work and functions of the Commission, and stated that he considered it of utmost importance that the Bureau participate and take a leading role in its activities. Although he has not yet received an official invitation to attend the June 3rd meeting at Brussels, he will nevertheless participate and does not consider the receipt of a formal invitation via diplomatic channels as important.

Handwritten: 100-3394-1-2061-230

EX - 68
M. DESVAUX will propose Paris as the next headquarters for three reasons: 1. Its central location. 2. Superior communication facilities. 3. As a central gravitating point of international criminals. If his proposal is accepted, he will exert every effort to furnish satisfactory quarters, and establish the necessary communications, etc. in order that the Commission can function in an efficient, orderly, speedy fashion. He emphasized the importance of keeping the functions of the Commission entirely free from political considerations, and since the exchange of information concerns only common-law crimes, he envisages no reason whatsoever why it should ever be used for political purposes by any of the members.

Monsieur DESVAUX made no reference to his intention of proposing a Bureau representative as president of the newly organized Commission, as he had previously indicated to Colonel ~~W~~HALT. He did, however, strongly recommend that the Bureau participate in spite of not having received a formal invitation.

In conclusion, Monsieur DEVAUX agreed to keep me informed of further developments and will report to me in full on the results of the June 3rd meeting in Brussels. He also invited me to visit their facilities, such as their laboratory, fingerprint files, etc., which I intend to do within the near future.

Chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigations,
WASHINGTON (U.S.A.)

Dear Mr Hoover,

In a letter you sent, last May, to Mr LOUWAGE, Inspecteur Général, you did faintly express your regret to fail in due time to answer the invitation you received to attend the session of the Criminal Police International Committee, which took place on 3rd June 1946 at Brussels.

In his letter of the third inst., Mr LOUWAGE, elected President of this organization, informed you of your appointment as the Vice-President of same. The Criminal Police International Committee having in future its headquarters at Paris, I have been myself appointed to the post of Secretary General.

In this capacity, I am pleased to forward to you, through Mr HORTON ROCKWOOD TELFORD, attaché of the United-States Embassy in Paris, and according to his request, the minutes of the meetings of the Committee, on 3rd, 4th and 5th June 1946.

I hope you will take an interest in this communication, and I shall be delighted to receive any documents or suggestions you would kindly send me, for the benefit of our endeavour to cooperate all over the world in common action against criminality.

Believe me, dear Mr Hoover, yours very sincerely.

OF CRIMINAL POLICE

Brussels, 20th June 1946

Presidency.

235, rue de la Loi

To the Delegates of the International Commission of Criminal Police.

SUBJECT: International Review of Criminal Police.

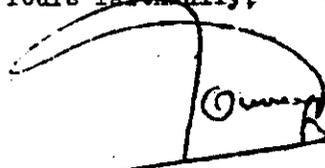

Dear Sirs,

I beg to send you herewith a list of Delegates and Personalities who, at the session of June 4th 1946, were appointed as Members of the Redaction Board of our "International Review of Criminal Police".

You will understand that it is of great interest, for the publication of our "International Review" that there should be a great number of collaborators, chosen among the technicians of the Criminal Police and the experts of the Scientific Police and anxious to see their work and the result of their researches and experience, published in a paper of world-wide diffusion.

I, therefore, insist that the name, profession and address of specified persons willing to collaborate to the publication of the "International Review of Criminal Police", should be made known, as soon as possible to M. DUCLOUX, General Secretary of the International Commission of Criminal Police, 11, rue des Saussaies, in Paris.

Yours faithfully,

F.E. LOUWAGE,
President of the I.C.C.P.,

[TRANSLATION]

TC No. 25631

C O P Y

The "International Criminal Police Commission" was created in 1923. Its headquarters was established in Vienna and the Presidency conferred upon the late Chancellor of Austria, Dr. Schrober.

During the war, the German Authorities ordered the transfer of the headquarters to Berlin.

During the period of hostilities, the activities of the International Criminal Police Commission became almost non-existent. At present they are null.

This international organization had as its aim:

- 1) Insuring and developing the fullest mutual assistance among all criminal investigation departments, within the framework of the laws governing the various States;
- 2) Assuring the creation and development of all institutions capable of contributing effectively toward the repression of common law crime.

There is no need of setting forth at length the services rendered by the International Criminal Police Commission, before the war, in the fight against international criminals. The direct interchange of information among the Chiefs of the national Central Offices, on the one hand, and between those Offices and the International Office of Documentation in Criminal Matters of the Commission, on the other hand, have made the cooperation of that international organization absolutely indispensable to any State which is anxious to suppress international common law crime; that is to say, the violations provided for by the conventions regulating the extradition of malefactors, excluding all violations of a political, racial or religious character.

Several members of the International Criminal Police Commission have emphasized the dangers resulting, since the cessation of hostilities, from the moving about of international criminals, who under cover of the influx of refugees or the immigration of persons coming from States the borders of which are not yet fixed or have been changed, are infiltrating into their countries without the police authorities, in view of the present immobilization of the machinery of the International Criminal Police Commission, having the means of receiving exact information concerning such international criminals. The latter have, more and more, a tendency to transport their criminal activities, successively, into different States, the hospitality of which they abuse; such criminals bring into those countries new criminal methods, which are rendered more formidable by the psychic tendencies acquired during the war. If this situation is not remedied, it is likely to endanger public safety.

Dear Mr. Ducloux:

Pursuant to the request of Mr. F. E. Louwage, President of the International Commission of Criminal Police, I wish to advise that I will be pleased to submit articles from time to time on scientific crime detection for publication in the "International Review." If you will let me know at your convenience the date you desire the first article and, if possible, the topic in which you are particularly interested concerning scientific crime detection in the United States, I will be happy to cooperate with you in any manner possible. The questionnaire concerning the diffusion of the "International Review of Criminal Police" has been executed and is enclosed.

With best wishes and kind regards,

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. NICHOLS

The Bureau has received several mimeographed forms from Mr. F. E. Louwage, President of the International Commission of Criminal Police at Brussels, Belgium, reflecting the names of the various newly-elected Vice-Presidents, among which is included the name of Mr. Hoover. He also advised the intention of the ICCP to publish the "International Review of Criminal Police" and requested the names of any collaborators chosen among the technicians of the Criminal Police and the experts of the Scientific Police who would be able to furnish articles reflecting their individual research to be published in this "International Review." It is felt that this will be an excellent opportunity for the Director to publish from time to time an article dealing with a particular aspect of scientific crime detection. Therefore, an acknowledgment has been made to Mr. Louwage's form letter of June 20 and a letter has been prepared to Mr. L. Ducloux, General Secretary of the International Commission of Criminal Police in Paris, advising that the Director will be pleased to submit articles from time to time for the "International Review" as desired.

Another questionnaire has been received from the Secretary General of the ICCP wanting to know whether the FBI will be interested in receiving the French or English edition of the "Review" and the number of copies. This is a form letter and the Secretary would possibly prefer to have it filled out, therefore, the information desired has been typed on the form and it is being enclosed with the letter to the Secretary. A photostat of the executed copy of this questionnaire has been made for our files.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : MR. TOLSON

DATE: 6/20/46

FROM : H. H. CLEGG

SUBJECT:

Concerning the attached notification to the Director relative to his election to the position of Vice-President of the International Commission of Criminal Police, I have reviewed the file in this matter and the following appears to be the disadvantages involved in affiliation with this group:

1. It would require an annual appropriation of at least $1,500 which although already in the appropriation phraseology it does represent an exorbitant fee when compared with any benefits derived.
2. Controversy and confusion will likely exist for a number of years as to the participating nations considered eligible.
3. I know of no record of accomplishment which would be favorable to the United States or to the FBI in particular.
4. The organization would serve to unite a block of police organizations perhaps in a cooperative effort that might eventually be diverted into undesirable channels particularly if Russia should gain domination of the whole European continent.
5. The Director would likely be unable personally to attend each annual meeting.
6. Any world police organization which the Director does not head would place him in a subordinate position on a comparative basis as far as title is concerned which would be ridiculous when considering police organizations of any country in the world.

Some possible advantages would include the following:

1. It would give the FBI recognition as being the representative of the United States in this world ~~police~~ police organization.
2. If the FBI doesn't participate as a member there is a possibility that the Secret Service, the Treasury Enforcement Agency or New York City Police might be selected to represent the United States.
3. If this organization should be brought within the scope of supervision by the United Nations, membership at this time would place the Bureau in an advantageous position.
4. There would develop some cooperative relationships with perhaps a minimum of practical value to be expected.

HHC:PJ

RECORDED COPY FILED IN 66-2154-1213

5. The Bureau would be in a position to help formulate standards such as uniformity in size of fingerprint cards which might be of some advantage to the Bureau.

CONCLUSION: 1. I don't think it is worth $1,500 or even $15 as far as any practical value accruing to the Bureau is concerned.

2. If there is any American police agency to be affiliated with the group obviously it should be the FBI.

RECOMMENDATION: That the Director accept the position of Vice-President and the Bureau be a participating member of the organization.

EXECUTIVES CONFERENCE CONSIDERATION: After discussion of the above advantages and disadvantages, Mr. E. A. Tamm and Mr. Harbo recommended unfavorably as to the Bureau's participation in this organization feeling that the principal reason for the invitation was in order to get the $1500 membership fee which is assessed.

Messrs. Tolson, Glavin, Tracy, Hendon, McGuire, Ladd, Rosen and Clegg recommended favorably feeling it would be to the Bureau's advantage to be the American representative on this group rather than have some other organization selected.

Respectfully,
FOR THE CONFERENCE

The Legal Attache in Paris has forwarded a communication addressed to the Director from the Secretary General for the Criminal Police International Committee, M. Ducloux. This Committee is apparently the Executive Committee for the International Criminal Police Commission. M. Ducloux referred to the letter from the Director to Inspector General Louwage, Permanent Reporter of the ICPC, in which the latter was advised that due to the failure to receive an invitation in time, it would not be possible for a representative of the Bureau to attend the ICPC Convention which took place on June 3, 1946, at Brussels.

The Secretary General refers to a communication addressed to the Director by Mr. Louwage on June 3, advising of the Director's appointment as Vice President of the ICPC. That communication has already been answered by the Director accepting the appointment as Vice President. M. Ducloux forwarded a complete set of the minutes of the Brussels Convention which were in French and have been translated. This translation is attached. The Secretary General states that he would be delighted to receive any documents or suggestions which the Director would care to send.

REVIEW OF MINUTES OF ICPC CONVENTION

A. Delegates

A list of the representatives of the various countries is set forth, it being noted that the following countries had representatives at the Convention:

|---------------|----------------|
| BELGIUM | LUXEMBOURG |
| CHILE | NORWAY |
| DENMARK | PORTUGAL |
| EGYPT | SWEDEN |

There is a footnote to this list to the effect that the United States of America, Irak, and Ireland, were unable to attend and were excused.

A review of the Bureau files has been made for references to the representatives from the various countries who attended. There follows a summary of the information we have on those upon whom a record was located;

DVH:KK 397
59 AUG 29 1946

213

B. Election of Officers

The Temporary Chairman of the Convention was M. Nelhøven of Norway, Vice President of the ICPC.

Director General Louwage of Belgium was unanimously elected President of the ICPC during the Convention.

M. Ducloux (France) was elected unanimously as Chief Secretary and Messrs. Soderman (Sweden), Howe, (Great Britain), and Müller (Switzerland) were elected unanimously to the Office of General Reporters.

C. Finances

With regard to the Bureau's assessment, since it has been decided that the Bureau is to become a regular member of this organization, it should be noted that Mr. Louvage in a letter to the Bureau dated July 9, 1946, referred to the matter of dues. He said that he was aware that the Bureau might find the rate too high for a State of considerable population and for this reason he pointed out that during the Convention he suggested the amount assessed against countries of large populations such as the U.S.A. and the U.S.S.R. be left to the discretion of those governments. He added that if the United States should decide that its contribution should equal that of a State with 60,000,000 inhabitants, the General Secretary would be only too glad to receive it.

According to the New York Times for August 1, 1946, the Swiss Franc is pegged at 23.40 cents. If we figure the Bureau's assessment at 2.50 Swiss Francs per 25,000 inhabitants with a ceiling of 60,000,000 inhabitants, the Bureau's annual assessment would amount to $11,040.00. It will be recalled that in 1938 the Bureau secured Congressional Authority to join the International Criminal Police Commission and pay an annual assessment of $1500. The files indicated, however, that this assessment was never paid because of the unsettled conditions in Europe and the impending war. It is also understood that this sum of $1500 is still included annually in the Bureau's budget but that the money has been returned each time.

D. Official Languages

COMMENT:

The Bureau had no advance notice that the name of the Director would actually be proposed at the Convention for the office of one of the Vice Presidents. However, in preliminary correspondence Mr. Louage at one time indicated that if the Bureau was represented at the Convention he would nominate the Director Vice President. On another occasion the French Delegate, Ducloux, indicated to our Attache in Paris that he would support the Director for the office of President. It is difficult to see how the Director could be legally elected to an office in an organization in which the Bureau is not a member. The minutes, however, show no discussion of this point, and it may well be that, as indicated in previous memoranda, this organization is extremely anxious to include the Bureau within its membership for prestige purposes.

A review of the names of representatives from the various countries who were present at the Convention results in the conclusion that some of the most able professional police officials in Europe were present. It must be pointed out, however, that in countries like Yugoslavia, dominated by Tito, and consequently by Russia, and Poland likewise dominated by Russia, there is no distinction between the political and criminal police organizations. There is also an indication in the letter from Mr. Louage dated July 9, 1946, that Russia may become a member in the not too distant future. It requires a considerable stretch of the imagination to picture Russia or any of its Balkan satellites cooperating with the Bureau in extraditing a criminal located in those countries but wanted in the United States.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that this memorandum be referred to the Inspection and Training Division since that Division has been following closely the re-organization of the ICPC.

ACTION:

Attached are suggested communications replying to President Louwage and Secretary General Ducloux of the ICPC. There is also attached a communication to the Bureau's representative in Paris, Horton R. Telford, enclosing two copies of the translation of the minutes of the ICPC Convention which he requested.

Dear Mr Vice-President,

It is with some amazement that I received to-day the letter of our Minister of Foreign Affairs of which a translation is enclosed. I am astonished to hear that the U.S.A. authorities consider that, owing to the desorganisation of the majority of the criminal police forces in Europe, the International Commission of Criminal Police would not be able to present practical results.

In order to point out that the American authorities received such distorted information which cannot have been given through you, owing to your capacities and understanding of international criminal police cooperation, I wish to give more extended information, which if duly brought before your authorities, will change their opinion on the efficiency of the re-instated commission.

Yourself wrote to me of the interest you will take in this problem and all the Members of our International Organisation understood that you intend to cooperate with us in the future.

The following States were represented at the session in Brussels (3rd, 4th and 5th June 1946):

Belgium, Chile, Denmark, Egypt, France, Great-Britain, Greece, Holland, Iran, Luxembourg, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Sweden, Switzerland, Czechoslovakia, Turkey, and Yugoslavia. Eire was absent at this session but offered apologies.

Other States belonging to the Commission could not send a representative owing to the present circumstances and the small delay in which the Session was called up.

You will notice that 18 States were represented and among them one of South-America, one of Asia and one of Africa. Our organisation is not limited to Europe, but it aims to be a world organism.

According to rumours which reached us, other countries, - and among them, very important ones - intend to join the Commission and plans are prepared to receive them. Within a few months, Italy, Austria and others from Europe and the other Continents, will apply for their admission.

But with the cooperation of the countries already participating, practical measures have been taken for the collaboration of the International Bureau in Paris, for the immediate acting of the National central Bureau, for the practical means of provisional arrest by demand of extradition, for the publication of a scientific and technical police Journal (International Review of Criminal Police) which will diffuse or spread descriptions, informations and special dates for the reconstitution of the list of international criminals, for the common research of new methods of identification and criminal investigation, for the world-wide research of international criminals for all common law offenses, etc.

With the help of all the States belonging to our Commission and, in a few months, with the adhesion of more and more countries to our body, the Commission will arise to a real efficient and respected organisation, the members of which were proud, on my proposal, to elect you unanimously as their Vice-President. It was our intention not only to give a perceptible token of honour to the great country to which you belong, but personal homage to your ability, your intelligence and your professional knowledge.

The Members and especially myself would be very disappointed indeed, if you were not convinced that our International Commission is really in a position to render in the near future the most important services in the struggle against the international criminals. They would fail to understand why the most representative member of Criminal Police of the New Continent refrains from collaborating with the representatives of Criminal Police of the other Continents in this great task for human welfare.

DIVISION OF INVESTIGATION

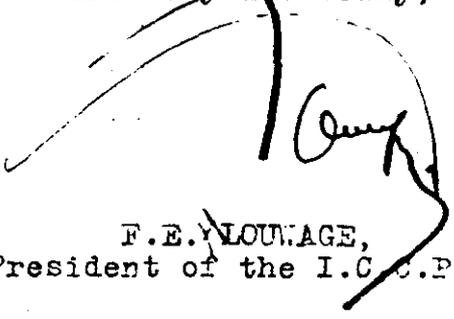

I am personally persuaded that, knowing your ideals, you are intensively decided to cooperate actively and to help us with every mean in your power.

There is one point I like to make clear to you: it is the annual financial contribution.

A resolution was passed to fix the first contribution, in order to enable the reconstruction of the Commission, the International Bureau and its depending branches. You will find enclosed a copy of this resolution. I am quite aware that you will find the rate too high for a State of considerable population, and for this reason I pointed out, at the Session, that the amounts are especially fixed for the countries of lower population which have, nearly on the same scale, the benefit of the Commission and its organisation; also that the financial contribution of States of high population, for instance U.S.A. and U.R.R.S. is rather symbolic and that the amount may be left to the discretion of their Government. Therefore, I personally suggest that if your contribution equals that of a State with a population, for instance, of 60 millions inhabitants, the General Secretary will only be too glad to receive it. But I must add immediately that the financial contribution is of minor interest to us: the major fact is your active cooperation to our Commission.

Hoping that you will be so kind as to give your approval along the above-mentioned lines, I send you my kindest regards, hoping to be able to see you soon, if possible in Europe.

Yours very devotedly,

TRANSLATION

Brussels, 8th July 1946

Mr Inspector General,

Referring to my letter of 13th June last, I beg to let you know that the Belgian Embassy in Washington has just forwarded to me the answer, of the Government of the United States of America, to the invitation addressed to that country to send a representative to the Conference of the International Commission of Criminal Police.

According to this answer, the American authorities considered that most of the Criminal Polices in Europe which have been disorganised through the war, have not yet resumed such an activity as would enable an International Conference in this province, to give practical results.

Yours faithfully,

The Director,

Dear Mr. President:

I have delayed answering your letter of July 9, 1946, until I had an opportunity to review a translation of the minutes of the recent International Conference of the International Criminal Police Commission held in Brussels. These minutes were forwarded to me by your new Secretary General, M. Ducloux. It is apparent that under your able direction much was accomplished at this Conference, and you seem well on the way towards operating in a normal fashion. As I have already advised you, I appreciate very much the action of the Conference in selecting me as Vice President.

As for your discussion in your last letter concerning the plans and the future of your esteemed organization, you will recall that we in the United States have been extremely interested in it for some time past. In 1937, we sent an official observer to the Annual Convention, who reported favorably concerning it. However, no definite steps were taken towards active participation because of the war clouds which had begun to gather over Europe. My reason for not having a representative at your latest Convention, as I previously advised you, was simply failure to receive an invitation in time to plan for such representation.

Your suggestion as to the appropriate annual assessment to be paid by the United States is being given further study, and I intend to write you concerning it in the near future. I appreciate the consideration you have shown in the premises. As you are aware, I am intensely interested in furthering international criminal police cooperation, and I sincerely believe your organization is on the right track. Such international coverage becomes daily more vitally necessary with improvement in transportation and communication facilities which make movement of criminals on an international scale so much easier. Your operational plans seem adequately to envisage such coverage.

I am writing your Secretary General, M. Ducloux, acknowledging receipt of the minutes and thanking him for his thoughtfulness.

With best wishes and kind regards,

Sincerely yours,
J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Monsieur Ducloux:

I have delayed answering your communication of June 25 last pending a review of the translation of the minutes of the International Conference of the International Criminal Police Commission, which you forwarded at that time. I appreciate very much your prompt action in forwarding these minutes, and I found them extremely interesting. As I have told President Louwage, I believe you accomplished a great deal at the Conference and are well under way to operating in a normal manner. The plans of the organization seem fundamentally sound.

As I have already indicated, we intend to furnish articles from time to time for inclusion in the ICPC publication, the "International Review." I would appreciate very much receiving from you occasionally word of your accomplishments and plans.

With best wishes and kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Communication
I was very pleased to read your communication of August 8 last, informing me that you will contribute to the International Criminal Police Review, the first number of which will be forwarded to you at an early date.

In my opinion, it would be most desirable to publish one or several articles on the general organization of the Criminal Police Services in the United States. I am quite sure that such a topic would be a question of great interest to all the members of the Commission.

I should be more particularly interested in the following points :

- standard organization of the Criminal Police in towns and in the different States ;
- organization of the Federal Criminal Police, and its relations with the police Services of the States ;
- technical means placed at the disposal of these Services ;
- relations of the Criminal Police Services with the judiciary and administrative authorities ;
- recruiting, training and hierarchy of the staff .

In case you should be willing to submit articles on these topics, I would also appreciate very much receiving from you a diagram of the general organization together with some photographs to illustrate the text, (views, for instance, of the general aspect of the Criminal Police Services).

I also thank you for your communication of August 13 last. I am very pleased to see you take a great interest in our Commission, and I shall not fail to let you know our main accomplishments and plans.

Believe me, dear Mr. Hoover, yours faithfully.

Dear Vice - President ,

During its meetings of June last, in Brussels, the International Criminal Police Commission has studied the financial problems concerning our organization. On this subject, it carried a motion, the text of which was enclosed in the documents I forwarded to you before.

I remind you that, as far as the Nations with more than 50 million inhabitants are concerned, the yearly subscription was, as a rule, reckoned on a basis of 2.50 Swiss francs for 25,000 inhabitants. Moreover, it was decided that, to make the reorganization of the International Board easier, the subscription should be owed from January 1st 1945.

The members of the Commission have also stated that it would be most desirable that the subscriptions of the member-Nations should be deposited, in Swiss francs, in a bank of Switzerland.

In accordance with the decision taken, I beg to let you know that a banking-account n° 31.899 has been opened in the Crédit Lyonnais, Geneva, (Switzerland).

Following the motion carried in financial matters, the yearly subscription of the United States, reckoned on a basis of 120 million inhabitants, amounts to 12,000 Swiss francs, and the sum to be normally paid in by the United States, to share in the expenses entailed to run the I.C.P.C., should on principle amount to 24,000 Swiss francs for the period from January 1st 1945 to December 31st 1946.

In full agreement with President Louwage and considering the exceptional importance of the population of the United States of America, it is understood that you have free scope to appreciate to what extent your Government will contribute to the I.C.P.C. budget.

I should be very grateful to you for letting me know the sum total you think fit to fix, and also for approaching the Treasury of the American Government, so that the said sum may be paid in, in Swiss francs, to the account n° 31.899, Crédit Lyonnais, in Geneva, (Switzerland).

Believe me, dear Vice- President, yours faithfully,

L. DUCLOUX

Cher Vice-Président,

Lors de ses travaux, la Commission Internationale réunie à Bruxelles en juin dernier, a envisagé la question financière de notre organisme, et a adopté, à ce sujet, une motion dont vous avez dû trouver le texte dans les documents que je vous ai fait parvenir précédemment.

Je vous rappelle qu'en ce qui concerne les pays ayant plus de 50 millions d'habitants, la cotisation annuelle était, en principe, fixée à 2 frs.50 suisses par fraction de 25.000 habitants et que pour permettre la réinstallation du Bureau International, la cotisation serait due à compter du 1er Janvier 1945.

Les membres de la Commission ont, en outre, exprimé le désir que les cotisations des pays adhérents soient déposées en Francs Suisses dans une banque de ce pays.

Conformément à cette décision, j'ai l'honneur de vous faire connaître qu'un compte en banque N° 31.899 a été ouvert au Crédit Lyonnais à Genève (Suisse).

En application de la résolution adoptée, la cotisation annuelle des Etats-Unis, calculée sur la base de 120 millions d'habitants, s'élève à 12.000 francs suisses, et la somme qui devrait normalement être versée par les Etats-Unis, pour participer aux frais de fonctionnement de la C.I.P.C., se monterait, en principe, à 24.000 frs. suisses pour la période du 1er Janvier 1945 au 31 Décembre 1946.

En plein accord avec le Président LOUWAGE et en raison de l'importance exceptionnelle de la population des Etats-Unis d'Amérique, je ne puis que vous laisser toute latitude pour apprécier dans quelle mesure votre Gouvernement pourra apporter sa contribution au budget de la C.I.P.C.

Je vous serais très reconnaissant de vouloir bien me faire connaître le chiffre que vous aurez cru devoir retenir et d'entreprendre toutes démarches auprès de l'Administration des Finances du Gouvernement Américain pour faire verser en Francs Suisses la somme ainsi fixée, au compte N° 31.899 ouvert au Crédit Lyonnais à Genève (Suisse).

Je vous prie de croire, Cher Vice-Président, à mes sentiments très amicaux.

INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL POLICE COMMISSION

BACKGROUND:

In accordance with a request from Mr. Tolson there is being set out below a summary of information on the International Criminal Police Commission and the present status of the Bureau's relations with that organization.

DETAILS:

The International Criminal Police Commission had its beginning prior to World War I when it was felt that it was necessary to have cooperation among the law enforcement agencies in the world to curb the activity of international criminals. Various conferences were held in Buenos Aires in 1905, in Madrid in 1909 and in other European capitals. It was not until 1923 that the organization was actually founded when Dr. Scholer, a former Austrian Chancellor and President of the Viennese Police Department, brought representatives of various European police departments to Vienna to consider extradition of persons, et cetera. The Commission consisted of a President (usually the President of the Vienna Police Department), Vice President, permanent recorders, ordinary recorders, ordinary and honorary members. The expenses of the organization were borne by contributions from the various member countries. The assessment was made on the basis of one Swiss franc (about 25 cents) per 10,000 inhabitants of the country represented. In 1937 a meeting was held in London, England. The Bureau, through the State Department, received invitations from the British Ambassador and from the Austrian Minister to attend. Former Inspector V. H. Drane Lester attended and upon his return to the United States, expressed the opinion that the United States should secure a permanent place in this organization.

On July 10, 1938, Congress appropriated a sum not to exceed $1500 annually to accept and maintain a membership in the International Criminal Police Commission.

Dr. Oskar Dressler, the Secretary General of the organization, communicated with the Bureau on January 25, 1939, concerning the Bureau's contribution toward the general upkeep of the Commission and suggested that a maximum contribution of $2500 by the United States be given. After an exchange of correspondence, it was agreed that the annual contribution of the United States would be $1500.

During the summer of 1939, the Bureau received, through the State Department, a formal invitation on behalf of the German Government to participate in a conference at Berlin, Germany, to be held from August 29 to September 7 of that year. Due to world conditions, the invitation was declined.

On August 24, 1940, the Bureau received a communication from the Chief of the German Security Police which indicated that he had accepted the office of President of the International Criminal Police Commission and that headquarters had been moved from Vienna to Berlin. On September 23, 1940, Dr. Dressler, Secretary General, advised that he was about to close the Commission's accounts. On December 15, 1940, the Bureau communicated with Dr. Dressler and advised that matters beyond control made it impossible for the Bureau to assume full membership in the International Criminal Police Commission. On December 1, 1941, the Executive Conference unanimously recommended that no further communications be addressed to this organization. The sum of $1500 has continued to be included annually in the Bureau's appropriations.

During the first part of 1946, letters were received from F. E. Louwage, Inspector General of the Belgian Security of State and Permanent Recorder of the International Criminal Police Commission, indicating that he was taking the initiative in reorganizing the I.C.P.C. and was proposing a meeting to be held in Brussels, Belgium during June. The meeting was later set for June 3, however, the formal invitation for the Bureau to participate was not received until May 22, when it was too late for the Bureau to designate a representative. The meeting convened on June 3 in Brussels, Belgium with 46 delegates from 18 countries present. Mr. F. E. Louwage, Inspector General of the Belgian Security of State, was elected President of the organization, and D. Ducloux, Director, Criminal Police Service of the Surete Nationale of France, was elected General Secretary. Mr. Hoover was elected as a Vice President of the organization, and a letter dated June 3, 1946, received from President Louwage advised of the election of Mr. Hoover.

On June 26, 1946, the Executive Conference discussed the question of whether the Director should accept the position of Vice President and if the Bureau should be a participating member in the organization. The majority recommended favorably, feeling that it would be to the Bureau's advantage to be the American representative in the group rather than have some other organization selected to represent the United States. The Director concurred in this decision. On July 3, 1946, a letter was directed to Mr. Louwage in which the Director expressed his appreciation for having been elected Vice President of the I.C.P.C. and stated that it would be a pleasure to serve in this capacity. Since that time a number of letters concerning the steps being taken to make the organization effective have been received from President Louwage and the General Secretary Ducloux. On August 8, a letter was sent to Mr. Ducloux advising that the Bureau would be pleased to submit articles from time to time on scientific crime detection for publication in the "International Review" which will be a magazine distributed by the I.C.P.C. to its members.

During the convention which was held in Brussels, Belgium, the matter of finances was discussed. It was pointed out that prior to the war member countries were assessed an annual fee of one Swiss Franc per 10,000 inhabitants. The matter of assessments was referred to a subcommittee which reported back with the suggestion that a graduated scale be adopted as a basis for assessments. This works out so that a country having more than fifty million inhabitants would be required to pay 2.50 Swiss francs per 25,000 inhabitants. After some discussion this resolution was adopted. It was also decided that member countries should be required to bring themselves up to date by paying dues beginning January 1, 1945. Mr. Louwage requested that the matter of negotiating with the delegates of the countries whose governments do not desire to, or cannot pay the assessment for 1945 as anticipated, be left to the Chief Secretary. It should be noted that under this requirement the Bureau would be called upon to pay an assessment for 1945. This can hardly be done since the $1500 included in the 1945 appropriations was turned back or otherwise disposed of at the end of the 1946 fiscal year. It was likewise agreed that any country joining the Commission after January 1, 1947, should be required to pay supplementary indemnity of 3,000 Swiss francs.

With regard to the Bureau's assessment, since it has been decided that the Bureau is to become a regular member of the organization, it should be noted that Mr. Louwage in a letter to the Bureau dated July 9, 1946, referred to the matter of dues. He said that he was aware that the Bureau might find the rate too high for a State of considerable population and for this reason, during the convention he suggested the amount assessed against countries of large populations, such as the U.S.A. and the U.S.S.R., be left to the discretion of those governments. He added that if the United States should decide that its contribution should equal that of a state with sixty million inhabitants, the General Secretary would be only too glad to receive it.

In the answer to Louwage's letter of July 9, which went out from the Bureau on August 13, 1946, he was told that his suggestion as to the appropriate annual assessment to be paid by the United States was being given further study and that he would be informed concerning it in the near future.

According to the New York Times for August 1, 1946, the Swiss franc is pegged at 23.40 cents. If we figured the Bureau's assessment at 2.50 Swiss francs per 25,000 inhabitants with a ceiling of sixty million inhabitants, as suggested by Mr. Louwage, the Bureau's annual assessment would amount to $1,404. This amount is just short of the $1500 which has been included in the Bureau's appropriations since 1938.

In a letter to the Director dated August 5, 1946, Mr. Louwage stated that the Director could be of great assistance to the I.C.P.C. by intervening with the police authorities in South America in order to gain members for the I.C.P.C. from other countries of the Eastern Hemisphere. He excepted Chile, since Chile is already a member, and a representative from that country was in attendance at the convention in June. Undoubtedly, because of the Director's great prestige in Latin America, practically all of the South American countries could be induced to join the I.C.P.C. However, I do not think that any affirmative action should be taken by the Bureau at this time toward urging any South American countries to join the organization until we see how effective the organization will be. In the same regard, Mr. Louwage indicated that an international radio station is being set up in Paris in order to maintain contact with police organizations throughout the world. He stated that the Bureau would be kept advised of the progress being made in establishing this radio station and also would be asked later concerning the possibility of the station having direct contact with the Bureau.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

Since it has been indicated that the Director will act as Vice President of the I.C.P.C. and that the Bureau will participate in the organization, it is thought that arrangements should be made to make the necessary payment of assessments to the organization. As was pointed out above, the I.C.P.C. in its convention decided that participating members should bring their assessments up to date by paying for the year

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. LADD

1945. Since we are already in the 1947 fiscal year, I do not believe we would be able to go back and pay the dues for the year 1945, and I think the organization should be so advised. I do think, however, that although we are now in the 1947 fiscal year, the $1500 included in the Bureau's appropriation for that purpose could be sent to the I.C.P.C. to pay the Bureau's assessment for 1946. The payment for 1947 can be made after July 1, 1947.

Dear Mr Vice-President,

Referring to your letter of the 7th August 1946, I hear with great pleasure that you are willing to collaborate to the redaction of the "International Review of Criminal Police", official organ of the International Commission for Criminal Police.

The members of our international body will be very glad to read, from time to time, an article concerning the criminal problems in the U.S.A., especially when treated by their Vice-President.

I ask M. BUCLOUX, General Secretary of the International Commission for Criminal Police, to add your name to the list of the Members of the Redaction Board.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. NICHOLS

You will recall that in connection with the International Commission for Criminal Police the Director recently consented to being named as a Vice-President. In a previous letter the possibility of the Director writing an article for the magazine "International Review of Criminal Police" was mentioned and by letter of September 3, which is attached, you will note that F. E. Louwage again brings this up.

RECOMMENDATION: It is suggested that in the near future we prepare a suitable article for use in this publication.

Monsieur P. H. Louwage
President
International Criminal Police Commission
335, Rue de la Loi
Brussels, Belgium

Dear Mr. President:

It was indeed a pleasure to receive your communication of September 5, 1946, inviting me to prepare an article of possible interest to the members of the International Criminal Police Commission. I was very happy to do this and there is enclosed an article entitled "International Cooperation" which you may feel free to utilize for publication.

With best wishes and kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

Enclosure f
