[REDACTED]

(A characterization of the SDS appears in the Appendix to this report.)

Subsequently, under the leadership of National Organizer LOUIS T. BYERS, NYA promoted a "four-point program" to counter radical student and "black power" movements and also to assert the positive values of "western destiny", as promulgated in FRANCIS PARKER YOCKEY's book, "Imperium." "Imperium" is a philosophical tract extolling the virtues of a Northern European civilization and warning against its adulteration by Jews, Negroes, Orientals and other "culture distorters", according to "The Washington Post", a daily newspaper published at Washington, D.C., in an article in the December 22, 1969, issue, Page A3, entitled "NYA: Alive and Well."

The December, 1970 (Number 14), issue of "Action", internal news organ of the Washington-based NYA, reported the reorganization of the NYA and its new operational structure in a lead article entitled "Reorganization: New NYA Emerges." The article states by way of background that the expenses of the ambitious NYA program over a period of nearly two years since its initial formation had "inevitably" exceeded income, and the organization had become indebted to the amount of more than $40,000. It was further stated that during the period of financial crisis, the situation was aggravated by two burglaries of the NYA National Office in which "several thousand dollars worth of office equipment, film, postage stamps, and mail-handling machinery" were stolen. The article said that with bankruptcy looming, a new corporation free of debts was formed and new offices in a more secure building were established.

The "Washington Observer Newsletter", which is published semi-monthly at 5630 Borwick, South Gate, California, carried an article in its issue of April 1, 1971 (Number 116), entitled "Convolutated Concentric". This article alleges a continuing campaign to obliterate Liberty Lobby and states that LOUIS T. BYERS had sworn to destroy that organization. The article implies that BYERS was acting in league with MURRAY CHOTINER, former adviser to President RICHARD M. NIXON, whom "Washington Observer Newsletter" asserts, was the "main operator" in a "divide and conquer" strata directed against conservative elements.

The above article states that Civil Action Number 1286-70 is a suit brought by Liberty Lobby, Incorporated, in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia against American Lobby, Incorporated; LEO DONALD PHILLIPS; LEE DODSON; HAROLD SHIFFLET ; and MICHAEL D. JAFFE for the unlawful appropriation of Liberty Lobby's mailing list. According to this article, "In a deposition filed in this lawsuit, Louis T. Byers has admitted that he stole the mailing lists of Liberty Lobby, and The American Mercury/Washington Observer Newsletter , and sold them to Leo Donald Phillips, and to 'The Thunderbolt'".

WFO 157-2278

("The Thunderbolt" is the publication of the National States Rights Party, which is characterized in the Appendix to this report.)

The "Washington Observer Newsletter" article, "Convoluted Concentric", is quoted in part as follows:

"In 1969, LOUIS T. BYERS became responsible for the operation of the National Youth Alliance (NYA), which had been formed in 1968, from a nucleus of youthful supporters of GEORGE WALLACE to combat the dope, narcotics, militant liberalism, and anarchy dominant on the campuses of colleges throughout the country. Considering this a worthy purpose, WO (Washington Observer) permitted the NYA to use its mailing list, for a one-time mailing in an effort to promote financial support. Contrary to explicit and direct instructions, BYERS copied this mailing list before using it for NYA, and has since then been actively instigating its use by others."

The above article relates that BYERS had alleged the NYA office at Dupont Circle was broken into and robbed. It adds however, that the former field director of the NYA, MICHAEL D. RUSSELL, who had worked under BYERS for at least a year, "says that he is sure that the 'robbery' was staged by BYERS in order to make some financial files, which documented BYERS' mishandling of contributions, disappear."

Investigation on June 8, 1971, at the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, Washington, D.C., confirmed that case number 1286-70 on the Civil Action Docket is an action brought by Liberty Lobby, Incorporated, against American Lobby, Incorporated; LEO DONALD PHILLIPS; LEE DODSON; HAROLD SHIFFLET; and MICHAEL D. JAFFE on April 28, 1970, seeking damages for conversion and other tortious acts and for an injury. The case is presently pending before Judge BRYANT.

Investigation on June 8, 1971, at the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, Washington, D.C., confirmed that case number 475-71 on the Civil Action Docket is an action brought by LOUIS T. BYERS for libel damages in the amount of $175,000 filed March 5, 1971, against C.B. BAKER; WILLIS A. CARTO; Liberty Lobby, Inc.; PATRICK TIFER; and FOSTER MORRISON.

[REDACTED]

The investigation at the United States District Court on June 8, 1971, disclosed that on May 26, 1971, an order by Judge WADDY granting the motion of defendant FOSTER MORRISON for a summary judgement was entered in the record of civil action number 475-71.

B. National Offices

"The Washington Post" of December 22, 1970, in an article by PAUL W. VALENTINE on pages B1 and B5 entitled

WFO 157-2278

"Rightists Open New Offices," stated that the NYA had opened new offices in Georgetown at 1656 Wisconsin Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. The article indicated that the NYA had first opened offices near Dupont Circle in Washington but outgrew available space there.

The December, 1970, issue of "Action", supra, disclosed in a front page article that the NYA had obtained new offices at 1656 Wisconsin Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. A picture of the building in which the new NYA space is located was printed with the article. In the January, 1971, (Number 15), issue of "Action," it was reported that the address of the NYA National Office had been changed from 1656 Wisconsin Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., to 1656 33rd Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., due to the preference of postal authorities on the basis of the location of the NYA building.

The above mentioned story by PAUL W. VALENTINE in "The Washington Post" of December 22, 1970, revealed that the new NYA location included a "Western Destiny" bookstore with about three hundred titles which was soon to be expanded to five hundred different works. The article stated that a part of the bookstore's inventory had come from the defunct NSMPF bookstore in Arlington, Virginia. The bookstore was said to carry "a broad selection of philosophical and political tracts, anthropological treatises on white or Aryan superiority, and assorted books alleging a Zionist conspiracy to undermine Western civilization, and other publications." "Imperium," by FRANCIS PARKER YOCKEY, reportedly is the store's best seller.

The December, 1970, issue of "Action," supra, disclosed that the new NYA organization had obtained a book sales subsidiary under the general management of the new National Organizer, ROBERT A. LLOYD.

On January 15, 1971, the following organizations and individuals had mail boxes at 1656 Wisconsin Avenue, N.W. (now 1656 33rd Street, N.W.), Washington, D.C:

National Youth Alliance
Western Destiny Books

b7c

C. National Leadership

1. Directors

b7d

2. National Officers and Staff

The December, 1970, issue of "Action," supra, reported that a new staff had been recruited for NYA, and in an article entitled "New National Office Personnel," CHARLES H. MC GUIRE of Brooklyn, New York, was identified as NYA National Office Manager and ROBERT A. LLOYD of Richmond, Virginia as new National Organizer of NYA, replacing LOUIS T. BYERS. The article announced that BYERS had moved up to the position of NYA President and would "be concerned primarily with long-range planning and fund raising."

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

"Action" (Number 16), dated March, 1971, in an article entitled "Two More National Office Staffers," announced that Dr. WILLIAM PIERCE had become NYA's Editor-in-Chief and that EARL THOMAS had taken charge of the NYA mail-order department. PIERCE was said to be a former research scientist and university professor at Oregon State University where he taught physics courses. THOMAS was said to be a native of Philadelphia (Pennsylvania) and to have attended Temple University.

According to the above article in the March, 1971, issue of "Action," PIERCE wrote for several right-wing publications prior to being recruited by NYA. The article stated that PIERCE had usually written under pen names to avoid implying any connection between the publications for which he wrote. The article states, "Now that he will be devoting all his efforts to NYA, however, he is abandoning his latest nom de plume, 'LUTH WILLIAMS,' and will be writing and editing under his own name."

[REDACTED]

"The Washington Post" article of December 22, 1970, supra, attributes the following statement to LOUIS T. EYERS:

"Working with a 25,400 member mailing list for financial support, NYA has rapidly increased its administrative workload in the last year and will at least double its present staff of four in the next few months.

Concerning the NYA Advisory Board, an article appearing in the November 15, 1970, issue of "The Washington Post" at page D1, contains the following:

"NYA's advisory board is filled with Liberty Lobby friends whose efforts in conservative causes are frequently cited and praised by the lobby.

"Board members include retired Admiral JOHN G. CROMMELIN, sharp critic of what he calls the 'Jewish-Communist conspiracy'; AUSTIN J. APP, specialist in Nazi Germany apologetics, who contends the estimate of six million Jews exterminated by Nazis in World War II is vastly exaggerated; retired Marine Lieutenant General PEDRO DEL VALLE, who praised MUSSOLINI's 'sagacious leadership' in the invasion of Ethiopia in the 1930's, and REVILO P. OLIVER, University of Illinois classics professor who says America's once-noble 'Indo-European or Aryan' civilization is now 'covered with alien slime.'"

With respect to the NYA Student Council, it is noted that JAMES ROBERT DUNCAN, Vice President of the NYA Chapter, St. John's University, New York City, is reported in "The Downtowner," student publication of St. John's University, Downtown Campus, Brooklyn, New York, issue of September 23, 1970

at page three, to have admitted membership in the "National Socialist Party." According to this report, DUNCAN "advocated National Socialism (Nazism) 'because we are in a time of crisis'" and "explained that if the National Socialists were in power, America would 'win in Vietnam,' and 'clean up the traitors at home.'"

The June, 1970 (Number 12) issue of "Action" identified CHARLES MUNCASTER as a student at the University of Auburn, in Alabama, and "NYA Alabama Chairman." "Action" stated that MUNCASTER had challenged the draft, since "his father forbade him to register for service under United Nations when he was eighteen, and at 21 he reaffirmed his father's patriotic beliefs."

"Action" issue of July-August, 1970, (Number 13), reported that MUNCASTER had been found guilty of "draft evasion" and had appealed the decision. "Action" also reported that MUNCASTER's father, ROBERT G. MUNCASTER, had received a sentence of three years in prison upon conviction of the charge of interfering with draft laws.

The May, 1970, (Number 11), issue of "Action" reported the appointment of E.H. "SCOTT" WINCHESTER, JR., as Southern California Chairman for the NYA.

D. Membership

"The Washington Post" article of December 22, 1970, supra, states on page B5 that LOUIS T. BYERS claimed 8,000 members for the NYA, "with a large portion of them organized into 62 campus chapters, ranging from the University of Chicago and New York University to Kent State University in Ohio." According to the article, NYA allegedly works with "a 25,400 member mailing list for financial support."

E. Publications and Propaganda

The December, 1970, issue of "Action," supra, reports a "New Publication Program" begun by the NYA. According to "Action," both NYA's tabloid newspaper, "Attack!", and the NYA newsletter, "Action," were to be published on a regular, monthly basis, thus providing NYA members, supporters and subscribers a new issue of either "Attack!" or "Action" every two weeks.

According to the January, 1971, issue of "Action," supra, NYA had commissioned a half hour sound-and-color filming of Professor REVILO P. OLIVER delivering his lecture, "After 50 Years." "Action" reported that when the film was finished, NYA did not have the money to pay for it, and the filmmaker repossessed NYA's only print of the film. "Action" stated that arrangements had been made to use the film once again for showings to NYA groups and potential NYA supporters.

The Western Destiny Bookstore is distributor for the type of books and other printed material described above. "The Washington Post" reported on December 22, 1970, that the bookstore carried 300 titles, including part of the inventory of the defunct NSWPT bookstore, and expected to increase its stock to 500 different works soon.

Lieutenant A. V. CONOVER, United States Park Police, 1100 Ohio Drive, S.W., Washington, D.C., advised on January 29, 1971, that the NYA, 1656 Wisconsin Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., had filed a notice of proposed demonstration plans between January 30, 1971, and February 20, 1971, at the White House and in Lafayette Park, H Street, N.W., between 15th and 17th Streets, N.W., Washington, D.C. The purpose of the demonstration was stated to be to "Tell the President to 'Win the War Now'; 'Bring our Prisoners of War Back - Now'; Protest Against Handling of Simas Kudirka Defection Case; Religious Freedom for Shelton College."

According to the above source, the "U. S. Patriots' Victory March Committee", National Press Building, Washington, D.C., and "Shelton College Students Protesting for Religious Freedom" were to be invited to participate in the NYA demonstration. The demonstration was to include picketing in front of the White House, possibly speeches of no more than fifteen minutes each by individuals affiliated with the sponsoring or participat organizations, and the display of picket signs and, possibly, a banner. The maximum number of participants was estimated at not more than one hundred.

The individual sponsors of the proposed NYA demonstration were identified as RICHARD MEYER, 1702 19th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.; ROBERT O'CONNOR, 1811 19th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.; and IRENE JAMES, Post Office Box 4316, Washington, D.C. The sponsoring organization, NYA, was described as a "Political youth movement", and its principal national officer was identified as LOUIS T. BYERS, President.

According to the April, 1971, issue (Number 17) of "Action", the NYA National Office sent LOUIS BYERS to Miami (Florida) in March to confer with local NYA members and supporters. "Action" states that BYERS' trip is being followed up with an intensive organizing campaign in the Miami area by ROBERT LLOYD. It was further indicated in "Action" that BYERS was then in Cleveland (Ohio) to lay the groundwork for an organizing effort there by LLOYD, "funds permitting".

"Action", March, 1971, issue, supra, revealed that LLOYD spoke to an audience of about 1,200 people on the evening of January 27 (1971) at Western Maryland College (Westminster, Maryland). According to this source, LLOYD talked to students for about two hours on NYA philosophy and policies.

The April, 1971, issue of "Action", supra, carries photographs which reportedly show LLOYD on the campuses of Georgetown University and George Washington University, Washington, D.C., distributing NYA literature.

According to "Action", issue of May, 1971, (Number 18), NYA National Organizer ROBERT LLOYD spent four days in Miami and three days in Cleveland recently, exploring organizational possibilities in both cities. LLOYD reportedly will evaluate local NYA strength in those areas on the basis of conferences with local activists and will lay plans for future developments.

"Action", issue of May, 1971, supra, also reported that a number of NYA members had participated in Reverend CARL MC INTIRE's "March for Victory" in Washington, D.C., on May 8, 1971. The "Action" article stated that although NYA disagreed strongly with MC INTIRE on a number of issues, "NYA nevertheless used the opportunity to express its strong opposition to the Nixon regime's persecution of Lt. WILLIAM CALLEY and to treason by the Washington government in general."

The "Action" article last mentioned above reported that in a demonstration at the Capitol in Washington on May 5, 1971, an NYA member, HAMILTON BARRETT, intervened to halt an attack by demonstrators upon a bystander carrying a South Vietnamese flag. It was stated that BARRETT fractured a bone in his right hand in felling one of the attackers.

B. Regional Activities

1. Dallas - Fort Worth, Texas

The March, 1971, issue of "Action", supra, in a front page article entitled "NYA Spirit Showed at U of Texas", states that NYA activist ANDY ANDERSON had burned a Viet Cong flag on the Arlington campus of the University of Texas in a counter-demonstration to a rally in protest of the invasion of Laos sponsored by the American Civil Liberties Union. The article stated that the incident aroused so much interest that ANDERSON and his fellow NYA'ers in Arlington were able to collect eighty dollars for 1,000 copies of "Attack!", which were distributed at Arlington and two other campuses in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

ANDY ANDERSON was also featured on the front page of the April, 1971, issue of "Action", supra, which reported ANDERSON's activities in downtown Dallas and at Carswell Air Force Base in protest of the verdict finding Lieutenant WILLIAM CALLEY guilty in the My Lai massacre. ED KESSINGER is identified in "Action" as another Dallas NYA'er who joined ANDERSON's protest.

The May, 1971, issue of "Action", supra, noted that NYA activist ANDY ANDERSON had discussed the NYA's Vietnam position on the "Open Line" radio program over station KBUY, Dallas-Fort Worth, on April 26, 1971.

An article appearing in the "Detroit Free Press", a daily morning newspaper published at Detroit, Michigan, on January 8, 1971, disclosed that a "national neo-Nazi" organization had been instrumental in stirring up white student militancy at Detroit area high schools. This article indicated that Statecraft a confederation of white supremists, anti-Semites and anti-communists based in Washington, D.C., and its student organizing arm, the NYA, were both headed by PATRICK TIFER of Warren, Michigan.

The September 25, 1970, issue of "The Torch", Volume XLV, Number 3, a student publication of St. John's University, Jamaica, New York, reported on page one that the Student Council had voted unanimously on the previous Saturday to withdraw from the NYA the power to organize on the St. John's campus which had been granted on June 18 (1970). It was indicated that the St. John's University NYA had as its stated aims "to educate the students through discussion groups and lecture series regarding the dangers of Communism and Zionism to perpetuate the ideals and ideas of Americanism; and to provide the community with a means of action through the voice of the St. John's University National Youth Alliance". It was stated that an Ad Hoc Committee formed to investigate the NYA had reported that NYA had violated its stated aims. The committee concluded that "Derogatory remarks concerning Jews and Blacks do not serve to educate students concerning the dangers of Communism and Zionism." STEVE LYNCH and JAMES DUNCAN were identified in the article as President and Vice President, respectively, of the St. John's University NYA. The article stated that LYNCH had denied NYA was affiliated officially with the "American Nazi Party or the American (National) Socialist White Peoples' Party". DUNCAN was reported to have stated following the Student Council verdict that the NYA would go "underground".

"The Downtowner", a student publication of St. John's University Downtown Campus, Brooklyn, New York, on September 23, 1970, reported interviews with LYNCH and DUNCAN. According to the article, entitled "NYA Leaders Claim 'No Justice for Nationalists'", DUNCAN advocated "National Socialism" and admitted membership in the "National Socialist Party". According to the article, DUNCAN stated that the NYA would work with the National Socialists but was not a "front" for the "National Socialist (American Nazi) Party".

The events regarding the St. John's University NYA appeared in an article in the December, 1970, issue of "Action", supra. "Action" stated that the NYA could claim "a bare 80 members" among the 12,000 students at St. John's University. According to the report in "Action", "Our chapter leaders at St. John's report that they intend to redouble their organizing efforts as an answer to the liberals".

4. Miscellaneous

"The Washington Post" article of December 22, 1970, cited previously herein under the caption "Membership", states that NYA claims "62 campus chapters, ranging from the University of Chicago and New York University to Kent State University in Ohio."

It is noted that the July-August, 1970, issue of "Action", supra, purports to give "The REAL Kent State Story" in a front page article. "Action identifies ELIZABETH KEIM as an NYA correspondent who witnessed conditions at Kent State University at the time of student protests in May, 1970, which resulted in the slaying of four Kent State students by National Guardsmen, and reports her observations.

As noted above under the caption "National Activities" NYA reportedly is conducting organizing activities at Cleveland, Ohio, and Miami, Florida.

V. CONNECTIONS WITH OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. United Hard Hats of America

The July-August, 1970, issue of "Action", supra, in an article entitled "Confrontation", states that NYA had joined with the United Hard Hats of America in their march on Cleveland (Ohio) on August First. The article reported that the march had provoked an attack "by approximately fifty hard core Communists". "Action" disclosed that LOUIS T. BYERS was the main speaker at the rally and "condemned not only the Leftist agitation against the Vietnamese war, but also the 'insane no-win policy' of the Nixon administration".

C. Liberty Lobby

An article in the November 15, 1970, issue of "The Washington Post", page D1, entitled "Liberty Lobby Does All Right By Itself", states that Liberty Lobby maintains ties with NYA. The article alleges that the then current issue of the NYA newspaper, "Attack!", was financed by Liberty Lobby's WILLIS A. CARTO, according to LOUIS T. BYERS. BYERS is quoted as stating that CARTO "personally read and approved all the articles". "The Washington Post" article states that Liberty Lobby employees assisted NYA during its formative months and NYA used the Liberty Lobby's mailing list. It further noted that "NYA's advisory board is filled with Liberty Lobby friends whose efforts in conservative causes are frequently cited and praised by the lobby".

"The Washington Post" article of May 16, 1971, supra, states that CARTO, "founder and treasurer of Liberty Lobby, a large, successful, conservative legislative pressure group working out of Washington", is a central organizer and supporter of the NYA. According to this article, Liberty Lobby employees have given clerical assistance to the NYA, served as officers of the NYA corporation and rented it portions of the Liberty Lobby mailing lists. The article states that NYA postage had been paid with Liberty Lobby checks and that "CARTO set up a paper organization called the Council on Dangerous Drugs in 1969 to raise money primarily for NYA".

The above mentioned article in the May 16, 1971, issue of "The Washington Post" quotes LOUIS T. BYERS as follows:

"When NYA was being formed," BYERS said, "CARTO told me Liberty Lobby was a temporary institution which would eventually be 'undercut' by NYA and fade out of existence. 'Undercut' was the word he used."

"Several disillusioned Liberty Lobby employees have since quit, said BYERS, 'because through CARTO's association with me and NYA, they saw their little to break."

"BYERS and CARTO, for that matter, have split up, too. Their breakup comes at the end of the tangled if brief history of NYA."

NYA "Strategy", as enunciated by the NYA President, includes building an organizational framework of young people to launch an American mass movement, which will utilize the flexibility, vigor, and natural idealism of youth, as well as their disaffection for "the existing corrupt establishment"; and exploiting issues raised by "Marxist opponents", namely, the threat of Black Power, the degeneracy of the "drug culture", the disruptions of the SDS and other anarchist groups, and the wasting of American "blood and treasure in suicidal or fratricidal foreign wars".

The "Goals and Objectives of the National Socialist White People's Party", supra, states that if America is to survive as a nation, the catastrophic system of irresponsible misgovernment, incompetent leadership, and self-serving party politics which rules today must be ended. It states further that America must never again be led into a fratricidal war, like the last two World Wars, for the sake of alien, minority interests, and that we must rid ourselves of the suicidal, anti-white insanity which has determined America's attitude toward the other nations of the world for so long.

According to the "Goals and Objectives of the National Socialist White People's Party", supra "We must turn our people from their present path of materialism, cynicism, and egoism and inspire them with a new faith based on racial idealism." It states that only in this way can the alienation and isolation of individuals which exists today be replaced with a sense of racial communion. "We must have an America," this NSWPP tract declares, "without swarming Black filth in our streets and schools, on our buses and in our places of work". It further states that every tendency toward degeneracy or subversion, every threat to racial integrity, every form of organized crime or vice, every element which threatens public terror or chaos must be utterly destroyed.

Finally, "Tactical Priorities" for the NYA are outlined by NYA President, LOUIS T. BYERS, as the establishment of a headquarters, staff, and regular publication schedules, followed by organizing, recruitment of new members, and the development of "a field program of rallies, speeches, demonstrations, instruction in martial arts, the mass distribution of propaganda, et cetera."

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY,
Also Known As The American Nazi Party,
American Nazis, The World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists, The George Lincoln Rockwell Party

On May 29, 1968, a source advised that the American Nazi Party - World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS) was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1956. It was based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement, as espoused by the German Nazi Party, which was headed by Adolf Hitler. The ANP - WUFENS supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews, and Communists, through speeches, published literature, demonstrations, and publicity-seeking devices for the purpose of seeking a legitimate dominant political party within the United States and in foreign countries.

"The Richmond News Leader" issue dated April 4, 1963, published daily at Richmond, Virginia, stated that this organization is chartered in the State of Virginia as "The George Lincoln Rockwell Party" and that the Virginia Assembly prohibits the use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia-chartered organization. As of January 1, 1967, the official name of this organization was changed to "National Socialist White People's Party," according to Commander Rockwell.

On August 25, 1967, George Lincoln Rockwell was assassinated in Arlington, Virginia, near the ANP Headquarters Building. The August 28, 1967, issue of the "Northern Virginia Sun," a daily newspaper published at Arlington, Virginia, stated that Matthias Koehl, Jr., took command of the Party after Rockwell's assassination.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY (NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont," a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party, to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt," self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP), reported that rank-and-file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party," with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that the NSRP is composed of past members of Klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

The following editions of "The Thunderbolt" advised of the indicated changes of address:

Issue	New Address

On August 4, 1965, a source advised that Edward R. Fields, the Information Director of the NSRP and Editor of "The Thunderbolt," is the individual who actually controls the NSRP.

Issue Number 126, dated June, 1970, of "The Thunderbolt" lists Dr. Edward R. Fields as the National Director of the NSRP as well as Editor of "The Thunderbolt."

"The Thunderbolt" continues to publish articles attacking Negroes and persons of the Jewish faith.

WFO 157-2278

REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT

A source advised that the Revolutionary Youth Movement II (RYMII) faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held a national conference at Atlanta, Georgia, from November 26 to 30, 1969. At this conference it was decided to form a new organization to be known as Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), characterized as a mass anti-imperialist youth organization, said organization being proposed as separate and distinct in form and content from SDS. The "Principles of Unity" adopted by the conference included a struggle against white supremacy and male supremacy; fights against imperialism, anticommunism, fascism and oppression of youth; and support of the right of self-determination of all "oppressed nations," also support of the right of all "oppressed and exploited" peoples "to armed self-defense." It was agreed that RYM would not be a Marxist-Leninist organization; however, source said this was decided in order to indicate an organization broad enough in form to be acceptable to everyone. A temporary National Steering Committee (NSC) made up of eight females and two males was elected to govern RYM until national officers could be elected during the Spring of 1970.

RYM publications have listed the RYM National Office (NO) at Post Office Box 5421 and Post Office Box 77012 C, both Atlanta, Georgia, and a second source has advised that the NO has no office space but would probably be considered as located at Apartment 27, 1067 Alta Avenue, Northeast, Atlanta.

Second source advised that women dominated the founding conference and have continued to dominate NSC meetings to the point that "women's liberation" has apparently become the RYM's principal issue - also that RYM's poor financial condition has resulted in its failure to publish a paper. During early 1970, RYM has decided to cater to the working class rather than youth, since the potential for social revolution lies in workers.

A third source has stated that it was decided at the March, 1970, NSC meeting that RYM women had decided the organization will be molded into a "working class, Marxist-Leninist, revolutionary, anti-imperialist, problack nationalist, people's women's liberation organization."

The SDS is characterized separately in the Appendix.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Students for a Democratic Society, commonly known as SDS, came into existence at a founding convention held during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," Marxist-Leninist ideology of various shadings became predominant during 1968-1969 with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. SDS moved from involvement in the civil rights struggle to an anti-Vietnam war position to advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist line linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States. All major factions within SDS embrace Marxism-Leninism and identify internationally with China, Cuba and North Vietnam as countries leading the worldwide struggles against the United States. However, the Soviet Union was regarded as imperialist and with the Communist Party, United States of America, "revisionist" in nature.

SDS operated under a national constitution which called for an annual National Convention (NC) and quarterly National Council meetings wherein programs were initiated and debated. Three national officers were elected annually, with a National Interim Committee to run the organization. Regional offices and college chapters elected delegates to the national meetings but each functioned independently on local matters. Its official publication "Fire" (formerly "New Left Notes") last appeared in December, 1969.

Internal factionalism of serious proportions developed during 1968 - 1969 and the following three factions evolved as a result of a split at the June, 1969, NC: Weatherman, Worker Student Alliance (WSA), and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The effect of the split on SDS chapters throughout the country was divisive. Some aligned with one or the other of the three major factions. Others, unable to identify with any faction, disassociated with SDS completely and changed names.

The SDS national office in recent years was located at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. It was closed in February, 1970.

The Weatherman and RYM groups no longer consider themselves associated with SDS, and the WSA group refers to itself as the true SDS.

Weatherman, WSA and RYM are characterized separately.

APPENDIX

WFO 157-2278

WEATHERMAN

Initially called the "Action Faction," Weatherman came into being immediately before the June, 1969, Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) National Convention (NC). At this NC Weatherman won all three national officer positions and a majority of the National Interim Committee as well. Subsequently, they took over the SDS National Office (NO) in Chicago, and controlled its funds, paper and national records. Although internal struggle existed until late 1969, Weatherman for all major purposes controlled SDS nationally from June, 1969, until its NO closed in February, 1970. At this time it no longer considered itself part of SDS.

The term Weatherman emerged from an ideological paper prepared by its leaders entitled "You Don't Need a Weatherman to Know Which Way the Wind Blows" ("New Left Notes" June 18, 1969). This statement outlined the basic stance of Weatherman: Marxist-Leninist in content but with strong advocacy that action not theory would bring about revolution in the United States. This posture was complemented with an international identification to the Cuban revolution and Castro's statement that the duty of a revolutionary is to make revolution.

During October, 1969, Weatherman riots in Chicago resulted in more than 200 arrests for mob action and related charges. A program of armed struggle was finalized during a December, 1969, "War Council" wherein terrorist tactics and political assassination were contemplated. The basic strength of Weatherman was then revealed to be some 300 - 350 nationally and geographically apportioned to the Midwest, New York, and some Northwest.

As its rhetoric of violence escalated, Weatherman leaders increasingly discussed the necessity of an underground operation wherein more than 90 percent of the organization would be submerged; "affinity groups" of three - five members would function independently. In February, 1970, Weatherman leaders announced a program of "strategic sabotage" with police and military installations as primary targets.

In February, 1970, Weatherman abandoned the SDS NO, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, and throughout the country entered an underground status.

The SDS is characterized separately in the Appendix.

WFO 157-2278

WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE/PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

A source advised during August, 1969, that at the National Convention (NC) of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held in Chicago, Illinois, during June, 1969, a split arose between the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and the National Office (NO), the NO becoming known as the Weatherman faction. The PLP faction drew the largest support among those in attendance at the NC.

Source further advised that during late Summer, 1969, the PLP faction of SDS established its National Headquarters (NH) on the second floor of a loft-type building at 1738 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts. The campaign on which the PLP faction entered was to build a worker student alliance or a campus worker student alliance. Thus, they adopted the names of Worker Student Alliance (WSA) or Campus Worker Student Alliance.

A second source advised during January, 1970, that within the SDS, the WSA is a caucus of which the PLP constitutes the leadership.

A third source advised during July, 1970, that during demonstrations staged in the Boston area during the Spring and Summer of 1970 by the NH, the main theme of previous demonstrations staged by the NH shifted from protestations of the Vietnam War and other United States foreign policy matters to attacking domestic issues such as racism and unemployment and demonstrating support of the "workers' struggle."

The SDS and PLP are characterized separately in the Appendix.

YOUTH AGAINST WAR AND FASCISM

A source advised on March 29, 1965, that the Youth Against War and Fascism (YAWF), formerly known as the Anti-Fascist Youth Committee, was established by the Workers World Party (WWP) in the summer of 1962 to bring college and high school youth into the periphery of WWP activities and thereby gain recruits for the organization.

A second source advised on October 23, 1964, that a flyer distributed by the YAWF describes that organization as a militant organization of young workers and worker-students for combating war and fascism.

The first source advised on May 1, 1970, that the YAWF maintains its headquarters at 58 West 25th Street, New York City, and publishes a magazine called "The Partisan."

THE NATIONAL YOUTH ALLIANCE

The National Youth Alliance is an outgrowth of the political group called Youth For Wallace (YFW). The membership list of YFW automatically became the mailing list of the NYA. The YFW is now a defunct organization.

The National Youth Alliance claims the following objectives:

1. To oppose the use of dangerous drugs and narcotics on campuses and to run pushers off college campuses.
2. To neutralize and overcome black power.
3. To reassure law and order to the campuses. To use violent means to combat the Students for a Democratic Society if college officials do nothing.
4. To bring peace to America and oppose involvement in wars overseas.

EXTREMIST MATTER - NATIONAL YOUTH ALLIANCE

The National Youth Alliance (NYA) is an organization which was formed from a nucleus of Youth for (George C.) Wallace supporters following the 1968 presidential election to counter radical leftist and anarchist influences which were considered to be fomenting chaotic conditions on the campuses of American colleges and universities. NYA, under the leadership of its National Organizer, Louis T. Byers, promoted a "4-Point Program" which 1) opposed the use of dangerous drugs and narcotics; 2) pledged to neutralize and overcome Black Power groups; 3) opposed anarchist, Marxist and other radical groups; and 4) opposed American involvement in foreign wars, such as the "no-win" war in Vietnam and the Zionist war in the Middle East. A reorganization in the latter part of 1970, vested control of NYA in Byers as President; Robert A. Lloyd, III, Vice President; and William L. Pierce, Secretary-Treasurer. Lloyd and Pierce are former officials of the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP)

For the information of all offices, the Summer, 1971, issue of the NYA tabloid newspaper "Attack!" in an article entitled "Revolutionary Notes" printed instructions, including diagrams, for constructing "medium-sized bombs." In an accompanying editorial captioned "Why Revolution?", it was stated that it is no longer possible to cure "the System" by constitutional methods and indicated that NYA would be responsible for taking a leading position in coming revolutionary developments, which could mean "blood and chaos and battling the alien enemy from house to house in burning cities throughout our land."

The above issue of "Attack!", at Page 3, Columns 4 and 5, carried an article entitled "New Action Units Formed." This article disclosed that three new NYA Action Units had been organized in recent weeks and named the new units as follows:

On August 22, 1971, "The Washington Post", a daily newspaper published at Washington, D. C., printed an article by Paul W. Valentine on Page D1 entitled "Extremists on Both Ends Tell How to Blast the Middle". This article refers to the "Attack!" editorial, "Why Revolution?", in pointing out that NYA's advocacy of violent revolution is much less cautious than the exhortations of the "so-called Radical Left", as presented in such publications as Washington's underground newspaper, "Quicksilver Times". Valentine quotes a "Quicksilver Times" staff member to the effect that "Quicksilver" advocates "self defense" rather than "violence" and stated that "Quicksilver" had obtained advice from an attorney about possible legal liability under various federal statutes prohibiting advocacy of violence in connection with its publication of "how-to" manuals for the manufacture of explosive devices.

Attached hereto are reproductions of the [REDACTED]

'We Do Not Need to Reason'

Extremists on Both Ends Tell How to Blast the Middle

By Paul W. Valentine
Washington Post Staff Writer

The so-called Radical Right has joined the so-called Radical Left here in the latest revolutionary gambit: publishing instructions on how to blow the so-called Establishment Middle to smithereens.

The current issue of "Attack!," the newspaper of the ultra-rightwing Arlington-based National Youth Alliance carries an article entitled "Why Revolution?," accompanied by detailed instructions and diagrams on how to make a dynamite bomb out of a thermos bottle.

The newspaper promises more instructions and diagrams in future editions.

"Blood and Chaos?"

"The time has come when we must wake up and realize that the policeman on the street corner and the congressman in Washington are no longer either our guardians or our servants—they are the guardians and servants of the system," says "Attack!" in language barely distinguishable from that of many radical left journals.

"We do not need to reason with the monster," it continues. "We need to put a bullet into its brain and hammer a stake through its heart. If that means blood and chaos... then, by God, it is better that we get on with it now than later."

Until now, the radical left in Washington has been considerably ahead of the right in the business of publishing and distributing information on urban guerrilla weapons and tactics.

In two editions last October and November, the underground "Quicksilver Times" published a pair of "how-to" manuals giving elaborate instructions on the manufacture of a wide variety of explosive devices, booby traps and homemade guns.

"Manual With Love"

The manuals feature instructions about jellied flame hand grenades, steel pipe pistols, nitroglycerin formulas, automobile accelerator bombs and an altimeter switch designed to detonate explosives in an airplane at a designated altitude.

"We have crossed a bridge from the old style of underground newspapers featuring mainly commentary on local, national and international events presented in a radical perspective, to the dissemination of revolutionary how-to information," said the "Quicksilver" with publication of the first manual.

"Study it. Share it. Make copies of it," said the paper which says it has a circulation of about 20,000. "And above all, be careful. Part of learning to care for each other is to learn to care for ourselves. We send this manual with love."

"Patriot" vs. "Enemy"

The NYA newspaper, "Attack!" which says it has a circulation of 30,000 and is operated primarily by former American Nazi Party functionaries William Pierce and Robert A. Lloyd III, says it will "endeavor to provide the patriot with the same information which is already in the hands of our leftist enemies." NYA president Louis Byers estimates NYA has 4,000 members in the nation.

In describing the easily concealed thermos bottle bomb, "Attack" says, "Skillful use of this important weapon alone, by a mere handful of intelligent terrorists, can virtually cripple any major city in America—at least temporarily."

It is "no longer possible to cure the system—to bring Frankenstein's monster to heel—by constitutional methods," it says at another point.

The "Quicksilver Times" is more cautious.

No Violence

"It is still time for exhausting the last futile avenues open under the system," it says, "... but it is also time for arming individuals, collectives and organizations with preparatory self-defense information that no longer will be available when the present society changes over to fascism and state censorship rules publicity."

"Quicksilver" staff members say they consciously couched publication of the manuals in "self-defense" language and consulted with an attorney first about possible legal liability under various federal statutes prohibiting advocacy of violence.

See EXPLOSIVES, D9, Col. 1

Extremists Tell How To Blow Up Middle

EXPLOSIVES, From D1

"There's not one word that advocates violence in our paper," said "Quicksilver" staff member Terry Becker in an interview. "We're always careful to avoid that. But at the same time, everybody knows what our paper is.

Congress Proposed

"It's not illegal to disseminate information on how to blow things up," he said.

Civil liberties attorneys generally agree. So do investigators for the Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, where a proposal aimed at curbing "Quicksilver Times"-style manuals was studied last year.

"There is nothing we can do," said one Subcommittee staff member this week. The proposed legislation, introduced by the late Sen. Thomas Dodd (D-Conn.), died in Committee last year and has not been re-introduced.

Becker would not say where the "Quicksilver Times" obtained the two manuals, but the paper described one of them as a "captured enemy document." It is entitled "Underground Manual Number 3," followed by the name Nick Parados and the date 1970. The other manual is called "Improvised Munitions Handbook" with no name or date.

Specialists Silent

William Pierce, who is editor of "Attack!", would not pinpoint the origin of the thermos bottle bomb diagram and instructions but said it is "approximately the same information that is available in military field manuals . . . Many of the manuals are classified, but they are still available."

Explosives specialists in both government and private industry here were reluctant to evaluate the "Quicksilver" manuals or "Attack!" diagrams.

"If they're a little bit mixed up in their instructions, we sure don't want to set them straight," said Scott Waffle, press spokesman for the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Division of the Internal Revenue Service. "We don't want to give them a training course."

Becker says there has been a steady demand at the "Quicksilver" office for reprints of the manuals, but he would not estimate the number of such requests. "Just lots," he said.

He said his organization had printed "extras" of the manuals in anticipation of such requests.

Manual "Defensive"

Requests have come from both "movement people" and "straights," he said. "They were all very polite."

Becker defined the weapons and devices in the manuals as "defensive." Asked how that definition applied to an altimeter switch for blowing up airplanes in flight, he said, "When an airplane is being used to drop bombs on you, then whatever action you take against it is defensive."

"Quicksilver's" note accompanying its second manual concludes: "We print this document in a spirit of anticipatory self-preservation, not as an incitement to violence."

NATIONAL YOUTH ALLIANCE

The National Youth Alliance (NYA) is an organization originally formed from a nucleus of Youth For (George F.) Wallace supporters following the 1968 presidential election for the purpose of countering radical leftist and anarchist influences which were then considered to be fomenting chaotic conditions on the campuses of American colleges and universities.

The NYA program promoted by its former National Organizer, Louis T. NYA dedicated itself to the preservation of "Western" culture and the eradication of Zionist influences from American life.

Following re-organization in the latter part of 1970, NYA headquarters were established at 1656 33rd Street, Northwest, Washington, D.C.

The National Socialist White People's Party is characterized separately in the Appendix.

NYA publishes a tabloid newspaper, "Attack!" and an internal newsletter, "Action", under the editorship of William L. Pierce. In the Summer, 1970 (Number 6), issue of "Attack!", an editorial statement declared it was no longer possible to cure "the System" by constitutional means and suggested the ultimate possibility of violent revolution. A leaflet published by NYA entitled "What is NYA?" contains the following information:

"The NYA was founded after the 1968 elections to provide the young people of this country with an alternative to the drug usage and lawlessness of today's campus left. NYA has selected as its symbol the mathematical sign for inequality, for a forced 'equality' means slavery for all--free men are not equal, and equal men are not free."

"The NYA has, as its objective, the protection and perpetuation of the great traditional values of Western civilization. To achieve its objective, the NYA states the following '4 Point Program.'"

"1. NYA opposes the use of dangerous drugs and narcotics, and pledges to run those who push them off the campus.

"2. NYA pledges to neutralize and overcome Black Power--in particular the unjust demands made upon the educational community.

"3. NYA opposes SDS and other anarchist groups which would destroy America.

157-12589-83

Re: NYA

"4. NYA opposes U. S. intervention in foreign wars, such as the no-win war in Vietnam."

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960's functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy," the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

Following reorganization in the latter part of 1970, NYA headquarters was established at 1656 33rd Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. The new NYA organization was chartered by the State of Virginia on October 14, 1970, and control was vested in Byers as President; Robert A. Lloyd, III, Vice President and William L. Pierce, Secretary-Treasurer. Lloyd and Pierce are former officials of the National Socialist White People's Party who left the party following an abortive power play in the Summer of 1970.

NYA publishes a tabloid newspaper, "Attack," and an internal newsletter, "Action," under the editorship of William L. Pierce. In the Summer, 1970, (Number 6), issue of "Attack," an editorial statement declared it was no longer possible to cure "the System" by constitutional means and suggested the ultimate possibility of violent revolution. It stated that NYA had the responsibility for accepting a leading position in coming revolutionary developments.

(Characterization of the National Socialist White People's Party should be utilized in conjunction with the above characterization.)

EXTREMIST MATTER - STATECRAFT;
NATIONAL YOUTH ALLIANCE

"Statecraft," a white racist tabloid which features stories, news items and cartoons vilifying Negroes and Jews, is published by Charles Bryant Baker, also known as C. B. Baker, as the national publication of a National Youth Alliance faction headed by Patrick A. Tifer, Post Office Box 202, Center Line, Michigan 48015.

The National Youth Alliance (NYA) is an organization originally formed from a nucleus of Youth for (George C.) Wallace supporters following the 1968 presidential election for the purpose of countering radical leftist and anarchist influences on the campuses of American colleges and universities. NYA currently is controlled by individuals who militantly promote white racialism and anti-Zionism and who suggest violent revolution ultimately as the means for implementing their racial and political ideas in America.

The Jewish Defense League (JDL) founded in 1968 is composed primarily of young Jewish militants who consider themselves as defenders of "Jewish rights." Demonstrations attempting to dramatize the Jewish problem in Russia and similar demonstrations against Arab establishments have often resulted in violence. Rabbi Meir Kahane, founder and National Director, has stated publicly on many occasions that violence is sometimes necessary to accomplish JDL aims.

It is noted that the Monday, February 7, 1972, issue (Volume 68, Number 29) of "The Hatchet," student publication of the George Washington University, reported the above incident in its lead story on Page One. A cartoon relating to the incident and a letter protesting the treatment of Pierce during his appearance on the campus written by Scott Sklar, Chairman, Political Affairs Committee, Program Board of the George Washington University, appear on Page Four of this publication.

Reproductions of the news story, cartoon and Sklar's letter pertaining to Pierce's appearance at the George Washington University appearing in "The Hatchet" on February 7, 1972, are attached.

Ex-Nazi Assailed by Eggs, S

by Dick Polman
News Editor

An ex-American Nazi Party member fell victim to an egg and stink bomb barrage from Jewish militants Thursday night in the University Center.

William Pearce, former editor of the neo-Nazi White Power newspaper, speaking on behalf of his National Youth Alliance, faced 15 angry Jewish supporters in a closet size Center conference room.

"I think there's enough here for a minyan now," one heckler cracked, as others slid "Jewish Power" buttons along the table to Pearce who was attempting to explain why the NYA was not a rightist organization.

He was repeatedly cut off by shouts of "Sit down, you son of a bitch," and "You're an ugly bastard." Pearce glibly noted "There seems to be a large Jewish element here, which may or may not be representative of the George Washington University."

A gray haired, and bearded man standing in the rear of the room continued baiting Pearce, and the two exchanged angry glances. Finally Pearce smiled sardonically at the antagonist, and remarked "You think you're a pretty smart kike, don't you?"

The heckler pushed his way waving his hand Pearce, demanding Pearce respond "What're you doing?"

Suddenly, the room came which splattered neck, and continued, the stink bomb room, original one of the chairs.

As the room emptied and Program Doug Allen, w Pearce. Security before their ar connected on tosses through door.

Burglar Rifles Gym Lockers; Flees with Money, Keys, Pants

by Michael Drezin
Asst News Editor

Keys, a pair of pants and an undetermined amount of money were taken from unattended lockers in the men's gym Friday afternoon while about twenty-five persons were playing basketball.

According to law student Ron Tipton, who lost a pair of pants in the incident, at least five or six persons left their clothes in lockers adjacent to the shower area of the gym. Tipton said the lockers were unbolted but that a maintenance man was supposed to have been guarding the area.

The extent of the loss could not be immediately determined because of Campus Security's policy prohibiting the dissemination of news without the approval of Director Harry Geiglien or Assistant Director Byron Matthai. According to Security, Geiglien is currently taking a "leave of absence" putting Matthai in charge of information.

When reached by phone at his home Sunday, Matthai was not aware of the robbery but said he could not let the Hatcher see reports filed on the incident. "I couldn't very well give you permission to look at reports when I'm not there and haven't seen them," he said.

The loss was first discovered around 3 p.m. when players were asked to clear the floor so it could be cleaned before the varsity basketball team began its practice. Tipton said he "heard people cursing" and later discovered that "someone had taken (his) pants which had nothing of value in them." Tipton, who lives near the gym said, "I had on gym trunks...so I ran" home.

One student at the gym who lost no property in the incident complained there is "very little control over what happens in the gym. People come and go like crazy. There's no one there to regulate it to speak of...It's really ridiculous."

Tipton said he will continue playing basketball in the gym but added, "I don't intend to dress in that locker room any more-- that's far too dangerous."

Considers GW Reforms

SFU Backs All-Univ. Assem

by Kent Ashworth
News Editor

One of GW's leading proponents of the All-University Assembly concept is the Student-Faculty Union, characterized by SFU Secretary and History Prof. Peter Hill as a "student-faculty civil liberties union."

"It really is a walk-in organization - open to everyone," Hill explained. "Anyone is welcome to raise any issues."

SFU, which operated an information center during the Mayday demonstration last spring and holds open meetings on campus issues, has been concerned with the All-University Assembly since Fall '71. The group is also considering changes in the University charter, and is dealing with the issues of departmental advisory councils and the firing of Charles McClenon from the Hatcher staff.

Vicki Anderson, student co-chairman of SFU, says the organization "makes sure that the rhetoric published by University committees is someday enacted."

"SFU is a microcosm of what an All-University Assembly might be," Anderson commented. "Students and faculty members have never worked together before, and this shows it can be a fact that it recognizes the partnership idea."

Asked where the real advisory groups lies, Anderson said "Power is where Dr. Elliott listens. Lately, the only one who listens is the Faculty Senate."

Anderson explained SFU urged Elliott to consider ideas involving involvement of alumni, University employees in the steering committee authorized at the Jan. 25 meeting of the Board and supported by the Faculty to do the groundwork for an all-university assembly.

SFU, in a resolution last year recommended the steering committee "create the broadest possible representation within the assembly."

Anderson, who co-chairs the Engineering Prof. Barry Hyatt's general faculty attitude toward "not exactly paternalism, but close to it. You're told you're here for four years while they're here for noted "There seems to be a large Jewish element here, which may or may not be representative of the George Washington University." A gray haired, and bearded man standing in the rear of the room continued baiting Pearce, and the two exchanged angry glances. Finally Pearce smiled sardonically at the antagonist, and remarked "You think you're a pretty smart kike, don't you?"

The heckler proceeded to push his way to the front, waving his umbrella point at Pearce, demanding that he leave. Pearce responded feebly "What're you gonna do about it?" Suddenly, from all points in the room came a barrage of eggs, which splattered Pearce's head, neck, and chest. While the eggs continued, the orange smoke of a stink bomb began filling the room, originating from under one of the chairs.

Allen later stated the Program Board had sent a warning note to Security "which we don't usually do," but added that Security claimed they received no such note. The Jewish Activist Front of GW, which did have members at the incident, disclaimed any responsibility for the incident. According to JAF member James Lampke, "We planned to have a verbal heckling, and then walk out. But circumstances were beyond our control. People from outside the campus came in - not anyone from our group was connected with the egg or stink bomb throwing."

As the smoke thickened, the room emptied, save for Pearce, and Program Board member Doug Allen, who had introduced Pearce. Security was called, but before their arrival, the hecklers connected on a few more egg tosses through the crack in the door.

Shortly after the incident, the Jewish Defense League of Washington notified the Hatchet that "We're responsible for it."

Center Night Manager Bill Knorr arrived, and helped escort Pearce to a men's room. "Does this happen here very often?" Pearce asked Knorr, who replied "This is the first time (since) I've been here."

JAF also expressed concern that the incident would damage their standing with the GW Administration. The group "deplores... the Jewish Defense League of Washington, including organizational branches at GW, American, and University of Maryland (for coming) to the event... carrying forth their own disruption without considering the consequences that would befall JAF."

While Pearce washed in the bathroom, most of the hecklers disappeared down the stairwell.

The Program Board, which sponsored Pearce's appearance, passed a resolution Friday in part saying "The event... was a wholly irresponsible act by the people who resorted to the use of physical violence. We... cannot condone the heckling of a speaker, and... the use of physical violence to disrupt any program."

At present, an investigation of the incident is being conducted by Officer Doug Gurnsey of the Security Force.

The egg barrage was reminiscent of a similar incident in February, 1970 when former Young Americans for Freedom chairman Ed Grebow was the target of a similar missile hurled in wild disruption of a speech by converted conservative Phillip Luce. YAF sponsored that appearance.

Security Inept

One night last week while walking down F St. towards Thurston Hall I came upon a body lying on the sidewalk. The body appeared quite lifeless and rather than play police myself, I decided to call GW security.

I walked down F St. and picked up one of the special emergency phones which rang three times before anyone answered it. I then explained my situation, giving the exact location of the body, my name,
etc. — then I hung up. Moments later the phone rang back and I was asked to repeat the location of the body — which I did. Ten minutes later a security car arrived.

My purpose for writing this letter is not to knock down the GW security force, but to suggest that they may be stale, perhaps from lack of action. Had I been in grave danger at the time I made the call, I might not have been able to write this letter. Yes, mistakes will happen.
In my case I was lucky — it was a drunk. The next person may not be so lucky. It would be better if the security force didn't make any mistakes. They can't afford mistakes, and neither can we.

Bob Chlopak

Physical Abuse

I am writing to publicly denounce the actions that people took to deliberately disrupt a discussion with Dr.

William Pierce, a member of the National Youth Alliance. The National Youth Alliance is an extreme right-wing organization which espouses anti-semitic, anti-black and anti-student sentiments. Although I unequivocally disagree with everything the NYA stands for, I cannot condone those that by physical violence (by throwing of eggs, a smoke bomb, and almost assaulting him with an umbrella) succeeded in stopping the discussion.

As Political Affairs Chairman,
it has been my policy and will continue to be my policy to allow any recognized representative of any political organization, no matter of what political persuasion, to speak at GW, as long as they can meet my budget limitations. (Dr. Pierce spoke for free). I have always promoted the idea of free speech and of VERBAL, not physical confrontation.

I deplore any physical act to stop any political speaker, for at EVERY program I solely sponsor, both the speaker and the audience have a chance to verbally interact.

I at one time thought that education fostered liberalism which is synonymous with 'toleration.' However, I may be wrong. I think it is sad that I have to worry about physical attacks on the speakers I present instead of what could be a productive intellectual confrontation between the speaker and the student.

F. Miscellaneous

An article appearing in the October 1, 1971, issue of "The Washington Post and Times Herald", a daily newspaper published at

Investigation on January 26, 1972, at the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, Washington, D.C., revealed that Civil Action number 475-71, an action brought by LOUIS T. BYERS for libel damages in the amount of $175,000, filed March 5, 1971, against C.B. BAKER, WILLIS A. CARTO, Liberty Lobby, Incorporated, and PATRICK TIFER, had been certified to the Superior Court of the District of Columbia, Washington, D.C., on October 27, 1971, for trial.

(Agent investigation,
January 26, 1972)

The Civil Docket of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, Washington, D.C., also reflected on January 26, 1972, a civil action number 1051-71 brought by Liberty Lobby, Incorporated, against LOUIS T. BYERS, WILLIAM L. PIERCE, and LEO DONALD PHILLIPS, doing business as Heritage Advertising, Incorporated. Plaintiff in this action asked for a temporary restraining order to prevent further use of Liberty Lobby's "Pledge List" for mailing of NYA "news and other scurrilous and untrue material." The complainant accused defendant of stealing mailing lists belonging to Liberty Lobby and tortiously converting them to defendant's own use. On October 18, 1971, the application was dismissed by Judge JOSEPH WADDY, United States District Court, Washington, D.C.

On June 16, 1971, a newspaper item appearing in the "Detroit Free Press" entitled "Dearborn to Host Nazi Group" announced a conference of the "Neo-Nazi" NYA on July 3 and 4, 1971, at the Congress Inn, 12800 Michigan Avenue, Dearborn, Michigan. The article stated that the NYA conference was expected to draw delegates from across the country and would include WILLIS CARTO, Head of Liberty Lobby, and JAMES K. WARNER of Los Angeles, "a former official of the American Nazi Party who now runs the Hollywood based Sons of Liberty." PATRICK TIFER of Warren, Michigan, was identified in the article as National Director of NYA and organizer of the conference. TIFER, according to the article, promised the NYA conference would be a "liberal block buster." This article is further quoted as follows:

also known as
THE AMERICAN NAZI PARTY
AMERICAN NAZIS
THE WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS THE GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

On March 30, 1971, a source advised that the American Nazi Party - World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP-WUFENS) was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1956. It was based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement, as espoused by the German Nazi Party, which was headed by Adolf Hitler. The ANP-WUFENS supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews, and communists through speeches, published literature, demonstrations and publicity-seeking devices for the purpose of seeking a legitimate, dominant, political party within the United States and in foreign countries.

"The Richmond News Leader" issue dated April 4, 1963, published daily at Richmond, Virginia, stated that this organization was chartered in the State of Virginia as The George Lincoln Rockwell Party and that the Virginia Assembly prohibits the use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia-chartered organization. As of January 1, 1967, the official name of this organization was changed to National Socialist White People's Party, according to Commander Rockwell.

On August 25, 1967, George Lincoln Rockwell was assassinated in Arlington, Virginia, near the ANP Headquarters building. The August 28, 1967, issue of the "Northern Virginia Sun," a daily newspaper published at Arlington, Virginia, stated that Matthias Koehl, Jr., took command of the Party after Rockwell's assassination.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY
also known as
BLACK PANTHER PARTY FOR SELF DEFENSE

The Black Panther Party (BPP) was organized in December, 1966, at Oakland, California, by Huey P. Newton and Bobby George Seale with the publicly stated purpose of organizing black people to take control of the life, politics, and destiny of the black community. The current principal officers are Huey P. Newton, Supreme Commander; Bobby G. Seale, Chairman; and David Hilliard, Chief of Staff. The Party publishes a newspaper called "The Black Panther" which has openly advocated the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in a revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community have been urged to arm themselves against police who are referred to as "pigs."

In the April 25, 1970, edition of the paper, an article advocated the taking up of arms against the Government, killing officials, "thereby passing revolutionary judgment against the number one enemy of all mankind, the racist U. S. Government."

David Hilliard, quoted in "The New York Times" edition of September 13, 1969, stated, "We advocate the very direct overthrow of the Government by way of force and violence."

BPP National Headquarters is located at 1046 Peralta Street, Oakland, California. Branches of the BPP and groups known as National Committees to Combat Fascism under the direction of the BPP have been established at various locations throughout the country.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY (NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont," a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party, to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt," self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP), reported that rank-and-file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party," with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that the NSRP is composed of past members of Klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

The following editions of "The Thunderbolt" advised of the indicated changes of address:

Issue	New Address
June, 1960	Post Office Box 783 Birmingham, Alabama
July, 1965	Post Office Box 184 Augusta, Georgia
April, 1967	Post Office Box 6263 Savannah, Georgia

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY

On August 4, 1965, a source advised that Edward R. Fields, the Information Director of the NSRP and Editor of "The Thunderbolt," is the individual who actually controls the NSRP.

Issue Number 126, dated June, 1970, of "The Thunderbolt" lists Dr. Edward R. Fields as the National Director of the NSRP as well as Editor of "The Thunderbolt."

"The Thunderbolt" continues to publish articles attacking Negroes and persons of the Jewish faith.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.
(NKKKK)

A source advised that on May 22, 1960, the National Grand Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan met at Atlanta, Georgia, to discuss consolidation of the Klan's unity of effort and activities to establish a National Fund, and a National Secretary, and to design a new flag. The meeting was attended by representatives of the Federation of Ku Klux Klan, Alabama; Association of Arkansas Klans, Arkansas; Florida Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Southern Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Association of Georgia Klans, Georgia; Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, North Carolina; Association of South Carolina Klans, South Carolina; Dixie Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Tennessee; and Kysos Klan, Texas.

This source advised that at a consolidation meeting at Atlanta, Georgia, September 2-5, 1960, at which the North Carolina and Texas Klans were not represented, it was resolved and passed that their name be changed to National Ku Klux Klan.

A second source advised in March, 1964, that several meetings of Klan groups were held during the period 1960 to 1963 in an effort to unite the Klan groups under a single leadership.

The organization was granted a charter in DeKalb County, Georgia, November 1, 1963, under the name National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order."

A third source advised in December, 1963, that the organization had issued a statement of its program which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

A fourth source advised in July, 1968, that the organization has its headquarters in Tucker, Georgia, and the day-to-day operations are under the direction of James R. Venable, Imperial Wizard.
