APPENDIX

SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY
SHERIFF'S POSSE COMITATUS

On February 18, 1975, the San Joaquin County Sheriff's Posse Comitatus (SJSPC) filed application for a charter to be associated with the National Sheriff's Posse Comitatus (SPC). The SJSPC is a self-proclaimed citizens' posse formed to keep officials from taking away the organization's means to resist tyranny in the government, i.e., their guns. This organization is further dedicated to protecting its members from the service of liens by Federal tax agents for delinquent tax matters, keeping local police and sheriff's officers away from property that is about to be slapped with eviction notices, making citizen's arrests of suspected law breakers that posse members come across in their daily travels, and with campaigning to replace the local sheriff if he does not come up to the posse's rigidly fundamental interpretation of the U. S. Constitution. The posse, using the manual put out by the Citizen's Law Enforcement and Research Committee as a guide, threatened to arrest any official of the government, including judges of the court, who enforce Federal income tax laws. The organization originally consisted of seven signature members and was under the chairmanship of Francis Earl Gillings, Tracy, California.

SHERIFF'S POSSE COMITATUS

On February 18, 1975, the San Joaquin County Sheriff's Posse Comitatus (SJSPC) filed application for a charter to be associated with the National Sheriff's Posse Comitatus (SPC). The SJSPC is a self-proclaimed citizens' posse formed to keep officials from taking away the organization's means to resist tyranny in the government, i.e., their guns. This organization is further dedicated to protecting its members from the service of liens by Federal tax agents for delinquent tax matters, keeping local police and sheriff's officers away from property that is about to be slapped with eviction notices, making citizen's arrests of suspected law breakers that posse members come across in their daily travels, and with campaigning to replace the local sheriff if he does not come up to the posse's rigidly fundamental interpretation of the U. S. Constitution. The posse, using the manual put out by the Citizen's Law Enforcement and Research Committee as a guide, threatened to arrest any official of the government, including judges of the court, who enforce Federal income tax laws. The organization originally consisted of seven signature members and was under the chairmanship of Francis Earl Gillings, Tracy, California.

SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY
SHERIFF'S POSSE COMITATUS

On February 18, 1975, the San Joaquin County Sheriff's Posse Comitatus (SJSPC) filed application for a charter to be associated with the National Sheriff's Posse Comitatus (SPC). The SJSPC is a self-proclaimed citizens' posse formed to keep officials from taking away the organization's means to resist tyranny in the government, i.e., their guns. This organization is further dedicated to protecting its members from the service of liens by Federal tax agents for delinquent tax matters, keeping local police and sheriff's officers away from property that is about to be slapped with eviction notices, making citizen's arrests of suspected law breakers that posse members come across in their daily travels, and with campaigning to replace the local sheriff if he does not come up to the posse's rigidly fundamental interpretation of the U. S. Constitution. The posse, using the manual put out by the Citizen's Law Enforcement and Research Committee as a guide, threatened to arrest any official of the government, including judges of the court, who enforce Federal income tax laws. The organization originally consisted of seven signature members and was under the chairmanship of Francis Earl Gillings, Tracy, California.

SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY
SHERIFF'S POSSE COMITATUS

On February 18, 1975, the San Joaquin County Sheriff's Posse Comitatus (SJSPC) filed application for a charter to be associated with the National Sheriff's Posse Comitatus (NPC). The SJSPC is a self-proclaimed citizens' posse formed to keep officials from taking away the organization's means to resist tyranny in the government, i.e., their guns. This organization is further dedicated to protecting its members from the service of liens by Federal tax agents for delinquent tax matters, keeping local police and sheriff's officers away from property that is about to be slapped with eviction notices, making citizen's arrests of suspected law breakers that posse members come across in their daily travels, and with campaigning to replace the local sheriff if he does not come up to the posse's rigidly fundamental interpretation of the U. S. Constitution. The posse, using the manual put out by the Citizen's Law Enforcement and Research Committee as a guide, threatened to arrest any official of the government, including judges of the court, who enforce Federal income tax laws. The organization originally consisted of seven signature members and was under the chairmanship of Francis Earl Gillings, Tracy, California.

SHERIFF'S POSSE COMITATUS (SPC)

The SPC, also known as the Citizens' Law Enforcement Research Committee (CLERC), is a loose-knit nationwide organization established in Portland, Oregon, in 1973, by Portland resident Henry Lamont (Mike) Beach. The SPC is a non-affiliated off-shoot of the Identity Group (IG), a California based tax rebellion organization. The SPC claims that the Federal Reserve System and the graduated income tax are "ultra vires and not lawful," and that the Federal judiciary has attempted to establish "a dictatorship of the courts over the citizens of the Republic."

The SPC calls for the establishment of a posse in each county to assist the only legitimate law enforcement authority, the county sheriff, in combating the unlawful acts of others, particularly those of Federal and state officials.

Some members and leadership of the SPC have voiced hatred for Jews and Negroes, advocated the assassination of Federal law enforcement agents, and have engaged in acts of provocation and assault against Federal and other law enforcement officials.

Re: Sheriff's Posse Comitatus

DETAILS:

[REDACTED] individuals associated with the SPC were scheduled for trial [REDACTED] for income tax evasion in USDC, Portland, Oregon.

The SPC is a loose-knit nation-wide organization established in Portland, Oregon, in 1973. The SPC claims among other things that the graduated income tax is not lawful and that the Federal Judiciary is attempting to establish a dictatorship of the courts.

(b)(7)(C)
The SPC calls for the establishment of a Posse in each county to assist the only legitimate law enforcement authority, the county sheriff, in combating the unlawful acts of others, particularly those of Federal and state officials.

Some members and leadership of the SPC have voiced hatred for Jews and Negroes, advocated the assassination of Federal law enforcement agents, and have engaged in acts of provocation and assault against Federal and other law enforcement officials.

These [REDACTED] individuals (who were handling their own defense) received legal assistance from the Federal Defenders Office. On 4/30/74, USDJ [REDACTED] advised that subjects' Federal Defender had advised him that some of the SPC members discussed taking "some action" against [REDACTED] Judge or the AUSA involved in this case.

Subjects appeared as scheduled [REDACTED] in USDC Portland, Oregon. At this time they presented "citizen arrest warrants" to the USDJ and the AUSA. After this, they then requested the Deputy U. S. Marshal to arrest these two individuals stating that if the Marshal or the Sheriff failed in this duty, they would execute the warrants themselves.

Memorandum to Mr. T. W. Leavitt

The Marshal refused to execute the warrants, and the USDJ recessed court for ten minutes. During this period these individuals left the courthouse and did not appear for trial.

(b)(7)(c)
On [REDACTED] Bench Warrants were issued for these individuals charging them with failure to appear for trial.

Bond Default-fugitive investigations were promptly instituted by the Portland Office and on [REDACTED] all [REDACTED] individuals were arrested without incident by Bureau Agents.

These individuals are identified as follows:
