MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION CONCERNING CRIME SURVEY

Dear Sir:

In connection with the investigation of this case every effort is being made to determine whether BENJAMIN "BUGS" SIEGEL is committing any violation against the laws of the United States or whether any past violation can now be proved. In this connection, recently developed information indicates that one of the primary activities of SIEGEL and his cohorts is the traffic in narcotics. It is felt that it is desirable to develop more foundation information with regard to this matter; and, accordingly, offices receiving copies of this letter are being requested to develop factual information which will tend to prove or disprove that SIEGEL is and has been interested in the narcotics traffic.

Except where otherwise indicated, the following information was furnished by [REDACTED]

It has been rumored for several years and has been the subject of reporting in various Bureau cases, particularly with reference to VIRGINIA HILL as a National Defense Subject, that she is a very free spender, has limited funds [REDACTED]

This money appears to be used by VIRGINIA HILL, strictly for her own personal needs. She throws expensive parties; buys expensive clothes and furniture; spends freely at night clubs; tips waiters very heavily, and otherwise disposes very freely of this money. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] from March 12, 1944 to April 7, 1944. VIRGINIA HILL stated that this trip was for a vacation.

Both individuals stayed at the Hotel Reforma, Mexico City. b7c

In regard to narcotic matters it is known that VIRGINIA HILL has visited a den in Chinatown where outsiders were excluded and that "smoking" was going on and "they were flying high". It is also known that frequent reference is made between VIRGINIA HILL and BEN SIEGEL to "candy". It is not definitely known whether the term is used to denote the sugar product or whether it is meant to be narcotics as used by narcotic peddlers. The possibility cannot be overlooked that besides their personal interest in each other that VIRGINIA HILL and SIEGEL have business interests along similar lines, possibly in the narcotic field. It is now becoming better known that SIEGEL is, perhaps the King-Pin narcotic distributor in the West as will be indicated later in this letter. In addition, the possibility of prostitution, particularly on the part of VIRGINIA HILL, should not be overlooked. b7
b1

Concerning the marital and the sex activities of VIRGINIA HILL, it is known that HILL was married on three occasions, one of her husbands being deceased, the other believed to be [REDACTED] and the third an Alabama football player. b7c

From these observations and from other information already reported in connection with [REDACTED], it is apparent that SIEGEL and many of his hangers on are involved in the narcotic business and it is desired to develop, if possible, concrete evidence which would be admissible in the event of a trial of SIEGEL.

PURPOSE

To set forth information concerning the murder of Harry Meyers, with alias Harry Mackley, and Frank Keller at Los Angeles in 1933, in which current information has implicated Siegel.

FACTS

[REDACTED] has indicated that Siegel was implicated in the murder of Meyers and his bodyguard, Frank Keller, at the Bella Napoli Restaurant in Los Angeles on August 28, 1933. Siegel was alleged by the informant to have been assisted in the commission of these murders by [REDACTED], an underworld gunman who is now acting as a strongarm man for Siegel, and [REDACTED] an underworld character who is now deceased.

A review of the Bureau's files fails to reflect any detailed reference to the murder of Meyers and Keller. It is observed that this killing took place prior to the enactment of the Unlawful Flight Statute. Apparently the Bureau had no investigative jurisdiction over these gangland slayings.

A reference to these murders, however, is contained in the case entitled [REDACTED] was. et al, Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution - Murder" (Bureau file 95-521). This investigative file pertains to another gangland slaying in Los Angeles involving the murder of George L. Bruneman and an innocent bystander at Los Angeles on October 25, 1937. Information was received by the Los Angeles Division at that time indicating that Bruneman had acted as fingerman for the killing of Meyers and Keller, who are described as Chicago gangsters. It was indicated that Meyers and Keller were wanted for the murder of Morry Moll, not otherwise identified, and that Bruneman fingered them [REDACTED] underworld friends of Morry Moll. The reliability of this information received by the Los Angeles Division in 1938 is unknown. It is noted, however, that it varies materially from the present allegations involving Siegel as being a participant in this murder.

SAC H. M. Kimball, San Francisco, advised that [redacted]

Virginia Hill, present mistress of "Bugs" Siegel, left Las Vegas by plane enroute to San Francisco today. He advised that the purpose of [redacted] visit to San Francisco is not known but it possibly might be connected with his association with Virginia Hill in view of the fact that there is considerable activity among Siegel and his associates at the present time in anticipation of the opening of the Hotel Flamingo, December 26.

[REDACTED] whose identity is known to the Bureau, was mentioned frequently in the FURDRESS file, and it is to be noted also that he is the subject of Newark file 89-2 and was investigated in connection with the murder of JOHN G. FINIELLO, a United States Prohibition agent, who was shot and killed in the RISING SUN BREWERY on September 19, 1930.

[REDACTED]

In September, 1930 the RISING SUN was raided by prohibition agents, one of the latter being JOHN G. FINIELLO. When the prohibition agents put in an appearance at the brewery for raid purposes, the operators were surprised to see FINIELLO participating in the raid and said operators promptly disarmed the agents, and following this one of [REDACTED] gang stepped forward and shot FINIELLO.

A man hunt was initiated for [REDACTED] all of whom were reported to be participants in the murder. While this fugitive investigation was being pursued, AUGUST GOEBEL, the main witness for the State in the murder, was found shot and killed by unknown gangsters. A short time after GOEBEL's death, [REDACTED] surrendered himself and subsequently was acquitted in both the State and Federal courts for the murder and also for the prohibition violation.

It is worthy of note that of all the individuals involved in the murder [redacted] is the only one who is not either serving a sentence or deceased. [redacted] are both serving life sentences in Minnesota, while [redacted] was found shot to death in his automobile near Irvington, New Jersey, in 1941.

Of particular interest to the Los Angeles Field Division will be the fact that in the files of the Alcohol Tax Unit in Newark in connection with the above murder case, it was disclosed that NICK DELMORE, using his influence with Chief of Police FRANK BRENNAN of Elizabeth, obtained revolver permits for the following individuals: BENJAMIN "BUGS" SIEGEL, the subject of Los Angeles' inquiry in this matter; HARRY GOLDBERG, with alias "DUTCH" GOLDBERG; LOUIS SHORBERG and JACK NEWMAN. The reason furnished for the issuing of the above gun permits was for the protection of the RISING SUN BREWERY payroll, which it will be noted, was in illegal operation during prohibition. At the time these gun permits were furnished, NEWMAN and GOLDBERG had lengthy criminal records and SIEGEL was notorious in the East and is prominently mentioned in the FORDNESS investigation.

ATF

The file makes note of the fact that the three who obtained the gun permits were associates of LOUIS "LEPKE" BUCHALTER.

Reference is made to the last paragraph of your letter of December 19th, captioned as above, suggesting that the Bureau consider permitting your Division to approach [redacted] and Jack Rogers with the idea of voluntarily suggesting to them that the Bureau may be of some assistance to them in staying in the country provided they are willing to cooperate with this Bureau.

The Bureau respects your suggestion as such however. Certainly, your Division will not be permitted to cooperate with these latter individuals in the manner suggested by you. While the procedure suggested is what is necessary for the Bureau to attempt to cooperate with the legal representatives of the individuals involved in the activities of the individuals mentioned in the caption of the Indignation and Intimidation Service. Actually, such action will not be taken nor condoned by the Bureau regarding the activities of the [redacted] or any other governmental agency. Your plan is one which is certain to lead to considerable embarrassment to the Bureau if put into effect, especially when it is realized that the individuals involved are completely disreputable characters.

WESTROCK PUBLER Association With Raft

WESTROCK PUBLER
Cleveland, 1947, New York: Western Publishing Co.

WITH CONSIDERABLE SURPRISE I saw by Miss Hopper's Hollywood column one recent day that Leo Durocher, the manager of the Brooklyn ball club, again was a houseguest in California of his friend, George Raft, the moving picture actor-gangster and member in good standing of the underworld of Hollywood and Broadway.

WESTROCK PUBLER

I was surprised, because only a few days before I learned an excellent authority that when Durocher contracted with Branch Rickey, the general manager of the Brooklyn baseball firm, in Columbus, O., preliminary to Durocher's retention as the team manager for 1947, he promised Mr. Rickey that he would divorce himself from his old associations including Raft and Raft's dear friend, Bugsy Siegal.

Bugsy is a Blue-book boy, meaning that he is listed in the Social Register of the Bureau of Narcotics of the Treasury. Mr. Rickey has an unfavorable opinion of Raft, and only Monday he told me that in 1947 Raft will be excluded not only from Durocher's dressing room and the dressing rooms of the Brooklyn players but from the Brooklyn ball park as well.

Enlarging on Durocher's social problems, it will be recalled that Durocher loaned his New York apartment to Raft for a dicing party in which a chump named Martin Shurin lost $18,500 to Raft, according to the early returns, reduced to $13,500 in Shurin's closing statement to the New York District Attorney, on 13 straight passes by Raft, all fours and tens and most of them "the hard way," a truly miraculous streak of luck, if that was what it was.

MR. SHURIN LATER WAS TOLD by the wife of one of his fellow-guests at the dicing that her husband had conspired with others to set a trap for him and that the dice used in the operation contained unconventional markings which would have made it not merely easy for the disreputable player to win but very difficult for him to throw anything else.

The lady had quarreled with her husband at the time, but later they patched it up and she became reconciled. The complaint naturally caused an official investigation, however, in which it was discovered that Raft, although apparently not a tough guy in the pugnaacious and daring meaning of the term, but merely noisy and noisy, nevertheless was an associate of Siegal, who is about as well known with an international police rating; Joe Bonomo, the current No. 1 man in the Eastern territory; and Louis Sullivan, a veteran New Jersey and Broadway bootlegger, hoodlum, gambler and gangster, also with a record.

TWO DAYS AFTER Miss Hopper reported that Durocher again was a guest of Raft in a household much frequented by gangsters, Rickey and Durocher met the baseball writers in one of those formal press conferences in Brooklyn to announce that Durocher had signed his 1947 contract.

FROM THE America

WAS AFTER Miss Hopper reported Durocher again with a gang of Raft in a household much frequented by gangsters, Rickey and Durocher met the baseball writers in one of these formal press conferences in Brooklyn to announce that Durocher had signed his 1947 contract. The impression was given that Rickey had created no problem or controversy.

That version is incorrect, for the fact is that Rickey disclosed facts also in the Columbus meeting and that Durocher, by a spokesman prior to the actual negotiations as to his salary and other terms, promised to "keep out of questionable situations."

Rickey said Durocher was entirely honest in baseball matters and would not knowingly give information to gangsters on which they might arrange betting coups, but "dumb as hell when it comes to figuring the consequences of an association."

"He has lined up with an 100 per cent," Mr. Rickey said, meaning that Durocher had promised to avoid the appearances of evil.

As an old baseball man, Mr. Rickey knows many angles, known also to the criminal underworld, by which a manager who is "dumb as hell" that way could give underworld companions a strong betting advantage through advance information without any guilty intent.

ENOUGH RICKEY SAYS Raft has been found in the "dugout" or locker dressing-rooms and team houses where they do not mean, of course, that Raft is actually working out there like in baseball. At one of the Boston games of the late World Series he accompanied Larry MacPhail, the business manager of the New York Yankees, and Joe DiMaggio.

The publicity of the press recently extended Raft in generous measure has elicited amusing discussion concerning his cherished friend and bodyguard known as Killer Gray, whose actual name is Sam Greenberg.

The office of bodyguard to a tough guy is an interesting institution in itself, the more so inasmuch as the police records contain no data on any homicides by Killer Gray nor even an arrest for so venial an offense as wife-beating. In this case, it is still more so because authorities who claim to know Killer Gray, personally, assert that in his case the name "Killer," far from its formidable suggestion, actually is a corruption of a Jewish word "kilah," meaning "rupture" or "hernia."

My authority on such matters, George Sokolsky, tells me that in the sly Jewish humor "kilah" means something even more which, in a family newspaper, must be approached only with great delicacy.

"You might say," Mr. Sokolsky said, "that it is a term never selected by a man as a boast but invariably applied by others and without complimentary intent, it means that a man has had a very sad misfortune. A very amusing derivation of the name 'Killer' for the bodyguard of a Hollywood tough guy. I am laughing to myself."

IF MISS HOPPER was correctly informed in her report of the renewed association of Durocher with Raft, then Durocher is fellowshipping in the off-season with a man whom his employer, patron, spiritual guardian and boss has decided to exclude in season for the good of the game. However, that need not imply serious consequences just yet. There is plenty of time.

There is, of course, apprehension of interesting consequences from a direct and flagrant line of association between professional baseball, one of the cleanest of professional sports, and the underworld and its gambling syndicates, for the first time since the fake World Series of 1919.

The death of Judge Landis and the accession to his job of Happy Chandler, of Kentucky, late Governor and United States Senator, have wrought a new spirit of comradeship between elements which formerly were as distant as virtue and sin.

Chandler is a machine politician from a political environment in Louisville that includes the professional underworld types that Fiorello LaGuardia used to call tin-horns and punks.

For years Landis kept at the clubowners to hound known professionals out of the parks. Players and managers simply were not allowed to associate with them. But MacPhail was the leading sponsor of Chandler for the job of commissioner and a person who was present in the office of the Stevens Catering Co., which sells the hot dogs, peanuts and programs, reports that MacPhail walked in that office on a cold World Series day last Fall with Raft and

There has been a change of atmosphere in baseball since the day. Your page knows.

Subsequently the Boston Division contacted the Smith and Wesson Company at Springfield, Massachusetts, and was informed that the numbers 4391 were not sufficient to make a positive identification. Officials of the Smith and Wesson Company also advised that there were approximately nine guns bearing this serial number; however, each gun was identified by a preceding letter which showed the type of revolver. The Smith and Wesson officials furnished the names of the individuals who had purchased the nine guns in question, and this information was passed on to the Salt Lake City Division

PURPOSE

To advise that the Salt Lake City Office has requested authority to re-install the technical surveillance covering the "boiler room" above the Las Vegas Club at Las Vegas, Nevada. In addition, the Salt Lake City Division requests authority to place a technical on the office of the Trans-American News Service which is soon to be put in operation in Las Vegas by Siegel and his associates.

BACKGROUND

As a result of recent information received by the Los Angeles Field Division concerning "Bugs" Siegel, a strong recommendation was made by Special Agent in Charge Hood of the Los Angeles Field Division to place a technical on the residence of "Bugs" Siegel and Virginia Hill at the Last Frontier Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada, where Siegel and Hill intend to reside permanently. As a result authority was granted to install this technical; it was installed on November 30, 1946.

The Salt Lake City Field Division points out at this time that in order to adequately cover the extent of Siegel's activities it would be desirable to re-install the technical surveillance at the "boiler room" above the Las Vegas Club. Previously authority had been granted to place a technical surveillance at this club on July 8, 1946, and installation was subsequently made and discontinued on October 17, 1946. In addition, the Salt Lake City Division has advised that the Trans-American News Service is going to be put in operation within the very near future in Las Vegas by Siegel and his associates. This service will be established in the two rear rooms on the second floor of the Golden Nugget Club, located at Second and Fremont Streets, Las Vegas, Nevada. The Salt Lake City Division points out that in the event this technical is authorized

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Salt Lake City Field Division be authorized to re-install the technical at the "boiler room" at the Las Vegas Club and to authorize the installation of a technical at the office of the Trans-American News Service which is to be put into operation by Siegel and his associates. Inasmuch as previous authority had been granted by the Attorney General to cover any hotels, residences or places of business used by Siegel it will not be necessary to make a request of the Attorney General for the above.

You will observe from the attached letter from Los Angeles that a number of inquiries are being made concerning "Bugs" Siegel's activities which generally are pointed in the direction of determining whether he is actually interested in the narcotics traffic. We are not investigating a narcotics violation as such, but I think we are justified in going far enough in this situation to determine once and for all where Siegel's money comes from, how Virginia Hill obtains the fabulous amounts which she spends, all of the other satellites who revolve around Siegel.

I think that as long as we don't tie up any unreasonable amount of manpower in this situation, one or two men in each of four or five offices at the most can get a pretty accurate picture of this situation in a month and that we are justified in continuing this investigation until we definitely know what keeps Siegel going and what his connections are. If we don't spend the time and effort on this inquiry now, it is only a question of time until we will have to do it because of the allegations which are constantly being received about Siegel, Hill and the others. In the light of our recent rather complicated study of their activities, I think we have sufficient timely background information to enable us to conduct this investigation at this time with much less effort and manpower than it would take at some future date.

Re: BENJAMIN "BUGS" SIEGEL
MISCELLANEOUS; INFORMATION
CONCERNING - CRIME SURVEY

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to letter dated November 19, 1946 from the Los Angeles Field Division to the Bureau, a copy of which was furnished Salt Lake City, wherein a request was made that the Bureau grant authority to the Salt Lake City Office to install a T-M surveillance on the quarters occupied by SIEGEL and VIRGINIA HALL at the Last Frontier Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada. As a result of this request, Bureau authority was granted and by teletype dated December 1, 1946 I advised the Bureau of the installation of this surveillance.

As the Bureau has previously been advised, there are four telephone lines from the "boiler room" above the Las Vegas Club at Las Vegas, Nevada and SIEGEL, in the past, has used these telephones to place and receive most of his long distance telephone calls. The room known as the "boiler room" is a rear office over the Las Vegas Club used as a private office by SIEGEL and his associates. It was previously found to be expedient to maintain telephone surveillances on these four lines and Bureau authority is requested at this time to place telephone surveillances on these four lines the same as were previously in operation. These lines are known as LD 1, 2, 3, and 4, and all four lines are billed as Las Vegas local telephone number 7070.

The "boiler room" over the Las Vegas Club is referred to as the Las Vegas Turf Club and is located on the second floor of the Las Vegas Club at 23 Fremont Street, Las Vegas, Nevada. If Bureau authority is granted, these technical surveillances will be identified as follows:

- LD-1
- LD-2
- LD-3
- LD-4

Referring further to reference letter from Los Angeles to the Bureau, it will be noted that the Los Angeles Office requested authority for this office to place a technical on the office of the Trans-America News Service which is soon to be put into operation in Las Vegas by SIEGEL and his associates. This Service will be established in the two rear rooms on the second floor of the Golden Nugget club located at the corner of Second and Fremont Streets, Las Vegas. The telephone number to be installed there will be Las Vegas 4040. The Bureau is hereby requested to give consideration for the installation of a technical surveillance at this place also. [REDACTED] b7

It is believed that the technicals requested above will cover those telephones where SIEGEL and his important associates will make or receive all of their long distance telephone calls. This is based on a study of their habits in the past. It is also believed that unless a technical is kept on all of the above lines that there will not be ample coverage to insure that we are getting all of the available information which we are seeking in connection with SIEGEL'S activities.

The Bureau is requested to advise me as soon as possible by teletype whether authority for the installation of the above technicals is granted.

Very truly yours,

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION CONCERNING b7c

Dear Sir:

[Redacted] Los Angeles; on December 11, 1946, b2 b7D
reported that JACK DRAGNA talked to an unidentified man about various matters such as his recent arrest by the local police and his suit against the police charging false arrest. JACK then said that he was taking two ladies out "this evening. One is the wife of the U. S. Assistant Attorney General from New York. The FBI made the reservations for them."

In view of the statement contact was made with various of our con- b7c b7D tacts in the larger hotels to determine whether the wife of any Assistant U. S. Attorney or Attorney General was staying at one of the hotels
[Redacted]

In order to determine whether DRAGNA was merely boasting or actually REFERRED RECORD was going to meet these ladies, I had agents be in the lobby [Redacted] on the evening of December 11, 1946, and it was observed that JACK DRAGNA and b2 b7D an unidentified, swarthy complexioned, probably Italian, individual were together with a tall, dark woman [Redacted]
She had with her another woman, identified as her daughter [Redacted]

The blonde woman appeared to be about 27 years old. The party of four were observed to come out [Redacted] together and were observed to leave [Redacted] and walk toward the street. They were over-heard to say they were going to get a taxi. No surveillance was conducted on them.

On December 12, 1946, at 12:32 p.m. [Redacted] reported that JACK DRAGNA b2 b7D contacted [Redacted] and said that he just realized he had b7c b7D

RE: SIEGEL CASE

[REDACTED] at noon. [REDACTED] verified this, whereupon DRAGNA apologized and said that he had been out all night and had just awakened. b7c

For the information of the New York Office reference can be made to the SIEGEL CASE file and to CAPGA for complete details on JACK DRAGNA, however, it may be sufficient to say that DRAGNA is reputed to be head of the MAFIA in this area, is in charge of the Trans-America News Service which is muscling in in this area on the Continental News Service in supplying race track information to book-makers, is an Italian alien with a criminal record and a close acquaintance of BUGSY SIEGEL and generally regarded as one of the most prominent local hoodlums. IGNACIO DRAGNA, alias JACK DRAGNA, is an uncouth individual, 56 years of age, 5' 5", dark, swarthy and speaks with a heavy accent and generally did not appear to be a suitable companion [REDACTED]. There is no indication in this office how she has been in touch with JACK DRAGNA or what interest she or her husband might have in an underworld character of this type. [REDACTED] has had no contact with this office. b7c

I felt that the Bureau and the New York office should have the benefit of this information in view of the possibility that [REDACTED] and may have access to information from our reports. b7c

In this same connection there have been other indications that DRAGNA is acquainted with Federal officials. For example, on November 13, 1946, [REDACTED] reported that DRAGNA in talking to an unidentified man said that a fellow, [REDACTED] (phonetic), with the Commerce Commission and his wife were in Los Angeles and the man wanted JACK to have LOUIE DRAGNA show this couple around the city. The man said that [REDACTED] is one of the boys back here who got out of line for a while but is a.k. now. We have been unable to identify this [REDACTED] and do not yet know whether he is a member of the U. S. Interstate Commerce Commission or the State of California Commerce Commission. b2 b7c b7d

[REDACTED] advised on December 10, 1946, that he had recently ascertained from [REDACTED] a known associate of BENJAMIN "BUGSY" SIEGEL and [REDACTED] that "they", meaning members of the Chicago syndicate headed by AL CAPONE and others, "have ways of getting to TOM CLARK".

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] did not press [REDACTED] for further details as to how this could be accomplished. [REDACTED] is a Chicago hoodlum who has been written up in Crime Survey reports from the Los Angeles Field Division.
